In August wren Cannon was dismissed, two black lawmekers were among citizens who deplored the sudden dismissal.

They were State Senator Verda F. Welcome and Del. Troy Bralley, both of the Fourth District.

At the same time they praised Cannon for his modernization of state penal institutions, they called on Gov. Mandel to name Mr. Jordan, then the deputy, to Mr. Cannon's post.

Under Cannon, regulations were relaxed to provide for more humane treatment of inmates and black employees were upgraded and hired in larger numbers.

9-year-old girl injured by police car Tuesday

By WILLIE EGYIR

A nine-year-old 4th grade Gilmore Elementary School No. 107 girl was admitted to the Lutheran Hospital last Tuesday afternoon with a "cracked bone" on the left leg when she was knocked down by a police car on Baker St. near Fulton Ave.

The girl, Wanda Privitt and her friend Naomi Capels were crossing from the southern to the northern end of the street when the incident occurred. Naomi escaped being hit.

Mrs. Ida Privitt, Wanda's mother, describes her daughter's condition as "very serious."

A hospital spokesman said the following day however, that her condition was satisfactory.

The accident drew a large and excited crowd to the scene.

An eyewitness, Carol Lyles, told the AFRO she entimated Wanda was dragged to a distance of about 20 feet before the car stopped with her leg still under the back tire of the car.

According to her statement the police car, driving behind three others, was going at "hair-splitting speed" even though it was nearing an intersection with the red lights on.

"There was not emergency sign, no alarm or warning. It made me mad," she said.

"Wanda was screaming in terrible pain," crimed in Theresa Coles, another witness who claimed she was with Carol Lyles when the incident occurred.

There was dried patch of blood on the spot where the accident happened when this reporter arrived.

Wanda had, however, been taken to the hospital.

Carol said she protested when the white police driver attempted to lift the screaming girl from under the car.

"The girl's leg was still under the tires and I could not see how he could lift her without doing her further harm."

Both Carol and Theresa said the incident happened at about 3:45 p.m. but it was not until about 4:30 when the ambulance arrived to convey the injured little girl to the hospital.

Police Department officials report that a trial has been set for Oct. 6, 7 a.m. in Traffic Court Part 2 for Western District Officer Edwin Raymond Bollack, 43, 1200 block Haverhill Rd., driver of the police car.

He is charged with negligent driving. Pending trial, the officer is stillon regular d[illegible]

Attorney's emotions postpone case

Chief Judge Dulany Foster, Baltimore Supreme Bench, postponed the hearing of a narcotic violations case Wednesday, Sept. 15, because of the emotional state of the defense attorney.

Court records show that the case of Oliver St. Claire Franklin Jr., 2100 block Mt. Holly St., son of a Methodist minister, was postponed at the request of his attorney, Larry Gibson.

* * *

Mr. Gibson, who managed the Paul L. CHESTER CAMPAIGN FOR THE city Mayoralty nomination against the Paul L. Chester campaign for the City Council presidency, reportedly made the request because he was emotionally upset after Mr. Chester lost the election Tuesday, Sept. 12, in the democratic primaries.
