New hospital center gives community buffet

By GEORGIANNA MOODY

If you're a resident of the Latrobe Homes, Somerset, Douglas or Lafayette Courts, you and your family can afford sickness, because the East Baltimore Medical Plan is ready and waiting to administer to your medical or psychological needs at no cost to you.

However, you must enroll your family at the Center, 1631 Aisquith and take advantage of the center's service.

The staff at the Center has been handpicked, with some of the best doctors and nurses in the nation. The doctors all belong to the Johns Hopkins Hospital staff.

The staff and board are going all out to make the community aware of the Center's many services.

On Jan. 28, the staff provided a delicious buffet luncheon for community and social agencies representing the community to report the plan's progress and to ask cooperation in spreading the good news.

In attendance were: Sandy Peeler, Sarah Cousion, Iris Griffin, Bettye Cashier, Jean Barnes, Julia Matthews, Evelyn Douglass, Yvonne Thedore, Elizabeth Brooks, Earl Jones;

• • •

Also, the Rev. Edward Stelmoschauk, Father Collards, Lucille Jorham, Mary Robinson, Georgianna Moody, Francis Reives, Dollie Thaniels, Councilman Douglas, Dr. Bernard Harris Jr., Wayman Henry Jr. and Dr. Hunt.

Many residents living in the Lafayette Courts have complained of the early morning noise from a loud speaker at the New Post Office on Fayette Street.

Mrs. Elizabeth Alston complains that the noise wakes her children so early in the morning that they are unable to go back to sleep and when in school they cannot remain awake. Residents plan to write their Senator and Councilman to have the noise stopped.

Mrs. May Jones was honored with a birthday party at her home 620 Linnard Street, January 29th. Mr. and Mrs. James Price and Mr. and Mrs. Houston Monroe were among her guest.

Get well wishes: to Mrs. Lula Mae Hill, Mrs. Mary Reid, Mrs. Bertha Stokes, Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, Mr. Oscar Jones and Mrs. Doris Ball.

On Saturday, February 5th a Ham and Oyster Dinner will be given at the Timothy Baptist Church, 1200 block W. Saratoga Street, time 12 to 7 p.m., price $2.00
