ANYONE FOR CAKE? Miss Dionne T. Salmond, seated on table with mother, Mrs. Leslie R. Baptist standing by, seems to be ready to offer her guest a slice of cake. On the other hand, co-honoree, Miss Le Shawn E. Gee, with spoon in hand and held by mother, Mrs. Deborah K. Gee, seems to feel that the time is right for some ice cream. All in all fun was had by everyone last week when the two young girls celebrated their birtdays. Guest included B. Nicole Calimese and mother, Mrs. Stephanie Calimese, Crevon Adams, Charles Stokes, Rhonda Hopkins, Crystal Hopkins, Karen Hill, Sharrice Georgie, Anita Kenney, Lanit Keny, Warren K. Leak and Hi Harris. (AFRO photo by John Dorman).

MRS. DAVID LEE HARRIS

Mr., Mrs. Harris visit the Poconos

Mr. and Mrs. David Lee Harris have returned from their wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania and are settling in their Ann Arundel County home.

The former Miss Sharon Antoinette Battle and Harris were married Sept. 2, at New Antioch Baptist Church, with the Rev. H. Hemreid officiating.

For her wedding Miss Battle chose a white, full-length, A-lined gown that was trimmed with lace and flowers in the front. Her shoulder-length veil was trimmed with the same pattern.

She carried a lovely bouquet of white and blue orchids.

Pink and blue was the color scheme for her ceremony and her sister, Miss Sonia Battle, who was maid of honor, wore a pink gown with a matching pink cap. Her flowers were pink and white.

Carrying blue and white flowers and wearing blue gowns with matching caps were bridesmaids Misses Janice Battle, Barbara Perry, Edwina Francis and Mrs. Jean Johnson.

Cute, Miss Lelitia Johnson made a charming flower girl in a pink gown. She carried white petals.

MRS. AND MRS. E. PARKER SR.

Ernest Parker feted at dinner

Ernest Parker Sr., employed at the Davidson Chemical Co. for 38 years, was recently honored by family and friends at an elegant retirement dinner.

The father of 15 children, Parker started at Davidson in 1935. At that time he earned about $16 a week, and did extra jobs to earn more money for his family.

He sold wood and fresh produce for extra money. During Christmas season he got holly, hollyberries and grape vine home for his wife and older children to make wreaths.

* * *

Through the years Parker has helped his children through school and all are taking their places in society.

Four of his children are teachers, two government workers, one a Chevrolet employe, two work for Westinghouse, one is a counselor for the Neighborhood Youth Core here in Baltimore, and three are still in high school.

Among the guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Warner Fornos, he is Democratic candidate for Congress from the fourth district; Mrs. Cora White and daughter Cindy, she is the wife of Parker's nephew, Dr. Leroy White.

Dr. White was unable to attend because he was officiating at a funeral in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

His daughter, Mrs. Ruth Gant, of Hopewell, Va. also was able to attend the dinner.

* * *

Among those taking part in the program of events were the St. Johns Young Adult Methodist Choir, Pumpney, Md.; Misses Kimberly Parker and Cindy White, on piano; Miss Lisa Davis doing a creative dance, and Misses Tina Parker and Lisa Davis doing a pantomine.

Also recitations were given by Mesdames Pearl Cooper, Mozelle Johnson and Louise Parker.
