boundaries of Mulberry St., Frederick Ave., Gilmore St. and Warwick Ave., the Center will welcome, in addition to those families already enrolled through the State's Medicaid program, a new group of families.

These are families whose income is too high to receive medical assistance, but who cannot afford health care.

It is anticipated in the future that the West Baltimore Community Health Care Center will eventually provide family, pre-paid health care services for up to 30,000 West Baltimore residents.

Dr. Claude D. Hill is president of the West Baltimore Community Health Care Corporation Board of Directors and consulting doctor with the clinic, and will be master of ceremonies at the dedication. Mrs. Ethel Bond is vice president of the Board, Mrs. Julia Young, treasurer, and Mrs. Mary Blanton, secretary.

Members of the Building and Planning Committee, who are also members of the Board, are Perry D. Watson, chairman, Charles Evans Hughes and James Bennett.

Other members of the Board include Dr. Harle V. Barrett, Mrs. Virginia Craig, Mrs. Mary Dugbins, Dr. Robert E. Farber, Roosevelt Nixon, Alvin M. Powers, Mrs. Dorothy Roosevelt Nixon, Adam M. Vidaver and Dr. Edgar P. WilliamsonII; executive acting director is James C. Harvey.

the saw.

After Sanitation collects the garbage they say their cans are left dented, destroyed, defaced, mishapen and useless" and no longer in watertight, raiproof condition," all of which violates the law, and because of those damages they are then forced to replace them or be subjected to criminal prosecution."

They also allege the law allows them to use plastic containers which can resist the handling by the Sanitation personnel, but because of an unlawful interpretation by Dr. Farber, Commissioner of Health, a defendant named in the case, they are precluded from using plastic cans.

Mrs. Goodman and Mrs. Alkalis also contend damages to the cans were caused by "negligence and carelessness" in the handling and failure to provide adequate supervision, training and instruction to personnel in how to collect garbage without damaging receptacals.

Mrs. Goodman and Mrs. Kalis ask for damages on behalf of all citizens and ask Superior Court to declare that use of plastic receptacals is proper under the law and is proper and for the promotion and protection of the public health equally or better than metal cans.

Also that the use of nuisance notices by the Commissioner of Health to occupants using plastic cans is improper since using plastic cans is not a nuisance as such and does not violate the law, and the use there of does not create a nuisance.

Also named as Defendants are Dr. F. Pierce Lawver, Director of Department of Public Works; Gene L. Neff, Head of Bureau of Utility Operations and Edward J. Moore, Chief of Sanitation Division of Bureau of Utility Operations.

three-quarter leather jacket around him. But that didn't make things right for The Genius.

"I just can't work," Charles told the audience. "It's cold as hell up here. It's ridiculous."

He wasn't bluffing either when he said he wasn't about to work under what he apparently viewed as North Pole conditions. And he proved it by walking off the stage where "smoke" from the cold air could be seen under the spotlight shooting on stage.

Seconds later an announcer declared intermission and the lights popped on all over the place. Some in the audience made comments like "get him a stove," but most of those attending what was billed as "The Ray Charles Concert" seemed in agreement with the musician about the temperature.

Anyway, a few minutes later the air conditioning system was shut off and Charles appeared once again, ready to continue his performance.

But before he got back to doing his musical thing, he apologized to the audience which cheered his return as they did throughout his performance.

"I apologize for delaying the show," he said sincerely, "but I was freezing. It's off now . . . and I thank you wonderful people . . ."

Perhaps the reason for the "freezing" temperature was the attendance. There were only about 1,500 in the huge 12,000-seat Coliseum, but it appeared that the air-conditioning switch had been set to accommodate a full house. —R. H. B.

We will never forget.

HAWKINS — In loving memory of my dear godmother, MARY HAWKINS, who passed away September 23, 1971.
God made lots of beautiful things;
Sunset and roses, and trees,
Birds, and starlight and loyal friends.
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare.
More loving and more true.
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare—
A godmother as dear as you.
Your Loving Adopted Godchild, ROBERT BOONE

HUDSON — In memory of our loved one, GARFIELD HUDSON, who passed away September 23, 1965:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His very patient, worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
THE FAMILY

SCRIBNER — In loving memory of our dear son and brother STEWART SCRIBNER, who passed away September 20, 1971.
Lord,
You gave us him for a little while
We grew to love his cheerful smile,
His playful ways and teasing too did not cease to be as he grew,
Then you needed someone to brighten your heaven
And said "I'll take one son and leave them seven"
The joy and laughter he's bring to you
It broke our hearts but You were there
To give us strength, to show You care
So tell him we love him and miss him too
But that we're happy he's there with You.

In the book of life there are memories,
Of the happiest moments I've known,
And recorded in love is the blessing
Of a wonderful son of my own.
You are gone, but the treasure you left me
Is truly a value untold;
A life filled with deeds of kindness
And beauty of heart and soul.
Tender thoughts and silent heartaches
Are with me all for you.
Memory will keep you ever young
Till my life on earth is through
Eternal rest give him, Oh Lord
And let Thy Perpetual light shine upon him.
