THE MORAL EFFECT OF BEING INSURED

Have you ever stopped to think that to be insured makes us better morally better? It is the performance of a duty—the fulfillment of a natural desire—the protecting of our own. It calls for the payment of money-a sacrifice-and without sacrifices the world would be a desert. Nothing is more uplifting or has a greater moral effect upon our daily life than the knowledge of duty done, and the greater the sacrifice, the greater the blessings that will surely follow. The moral effect of being insured, with everything guaranteed and
