AFRO Honor Roll Story Told In Pictures At Coppin

They received AFRO highest award for superior community service

By BRENDA WRIGHT

"I can't express the gratitude that is in my heart for your thoughtfulness and kindness in selecting me to be the recipient of this award."

Speaking before the 200 persons attending the 1971 AFRO Honor Roll Reception at Coppin State College Library Sunday, Mrs. Eula M. Parker accepted her place among the men and women who have been selected for the past 33 years for their unselfish service to the community.

Fifteen citizens and groups were cited Sunday for community service "beyond the call of duty to make life better for others." Mrs. Parker was selected because of her community welfare work and because her neighbors know her as "a woman who Believes Christianity is helping your fellow man without thought of reward, recognition or praise."

Another community worker earning a place on the 1971 Honor Roll is Mrs. Clarice Harden, a victim of sickle cell anemia.

Mrs. Harden qualified as a winner because of her unselfishness and courage which allows her to forget herself in the service of others.

Mrs. Gladys R. Johnson, a retired nurse who has continued to serve the sick and shut-in, said she accepted her honor "with great humility" and expressed her thanks to those who she had helped as well as to those who felt she deserved the honor.

The Police Community Relations Division was one of four groups which earned the AFRO's highest Honor.

Accepting the honor was Maj. James H. Watkins, director of the Division, who said each of the 22 police officers in the group deserved the honor for their efforts to bridge the gap between the police and the community.

The Dunbar High School Basketball Team's award was received by Sen. Clarence Blount, former principal of Dunbar.

Sen. Blount accepted the award for Coach William 'Sugar" Cain, who was undergoing eye sorgery. The team was cited for an undefeated season while playing the entire schedule under a penalty that denied them the normal use of their school floor.

Dr. Percy V. Williams was presented a 1971 Honor Roll award for his role in designing the Model Early Childhood Learning Program.

After receiving his award, Dr. Williams was applauded loudly when he told the audience, "We will get Black power, we will get green power, when we get brain power."

Other winners expressing gratitude as they received their awards were: Wiliam Perkins, president of the Oxford St. Improvement Association; Juvenile Court Judge Robert L. H. Hammerman; Dr. Eugene Byrd as director of the Community Health Council of Md.; Mrs. Anita K. Henson, longtime public health nurse; Miss Harriet Vernon, who aided Neighborhood Youth Corps students; the Rev. James B. Gray Jr., pastor of North Point Blvd. Pleasant Zion Baptist Church; Miss Ruth White, fencing champion, and Echo Houses.

The final presentation of the 1971 AFRO Honor Roll plaque was awarded to Mrs. Janet Woolridge, former Dunbar High School counselor. Mrs. Wolridge was instrumental in securing grants totaling over a million dollars for the 1971 Dunbar graduating class and in seeing that 275 of the 350 graduates were college bound.

In expressing her gratitude, Mrs. Woolridge seeed to summarize the feelings of the other winners who nodded their heads in agrement: "For what are we if we walk this earth and leave nothing of us behind"

The 1971 winners were presented with the handsome Honor Roll Plaque, made of alumimum bronze and mounted on a black wood base. Inscribed are the words, 'For Superior Public Service' and 'Without Thought of Gain.'
