School bus attacks injure ten children

NEW YORK (UPI) — Three white men armed with pieces of lead pipe attacked two school buses carrying black and Hispanic students to a junior high school in a white working-class neighborhood Wednesday, smashing the windows of one bus and pouring oil over the children. Ten youths were injured.

The men, who fled on foot, first stopped one bus and threw oil inside, staining the clothes of 16 youths. Minutes later, the men attacked a second bus with their pipes, smashed out windows and hurled more oil. All the students were from the ages of 11 to 14.

Nine children were treated at Queens Medical Center for cuts from broken glass and a tenth was taken to Jamaica Hospital for treatment of a possible back injury.

"We've had threats and name calling before when the buses come through this neighborhood but nothing like this has ever happened," said Alfred Freed, acting principal of the school in Queens, Junior High School 210.

* * *

Freed said the minority students came from housing projects in South Ozone Park and the Baisley Park area. The school enrollment of about 1,900 is 33 per cent black, he said.

"We deplore this kind of situation," he said. "These youngsters didn't move through the community on foot. They never have contact with the neighborhood people."

Freed said some of the children involved described the men as "working people, dressed in coveralls like mechanics. They had lengths of pipe, three and four feet long."

Police later said they had determined the identities of the men and were searching for them.

Communist candidate lectures at TSC

"We want a 30-hour work-week for 40 hours' worth of pay," Jarvis Tyner, black Communist candidate for the Vice Presidency of the United States said Monday at Towson State College.

The 31-year-old speaker dressed in a modishly-cut green suit and tie, told his mixed audience of 40 people "You dare not fail to speak out in this country because you are confronting racism, poverty and the lack of housing."

Mr. Tyner began a day-long campaign swing into the state for himself and his white, 62-year-old Presidential running mate, Gus Hall, with a 10 a.m. press conference at the North Ave. Motel, followed by a TV taping for WJZ's Larry Angel Show, aired Tuesday.

His other events for the day included a lecture in Dr. Otto Begus' philosophy class at Morgan State College on the theme "Change is the rule, not the exception," plus speeches at Towson and UMBC.
