County library schedule

All Annapolis and Anne Arundel County libraries and headquarter's offices will be closed all day Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 24 and 25 for Christmas Eve and Christmas Day and Monday, Dec. 31, New Year's Eve.

Full library service continues every Sunday from 1-5 p.m. at Annapolis and North County Branches. However, during the holidays, to conserve energy, this service will be suspended on the Sundays preceding Christmas and New Year's— Dec. 23 and 30.

State seeks juvenile foster homes

Dr. Neil Solomon, Maryland's health Secretary, revealed that the Juvenile Services Administration has launched a statewide search for foster care and emergency shelter homes to serve troubled youths who need to be removed from their own homes.

Currently, Juvenile Services is serviced by more than 200 shelter care homes and nearly 100 foster homes. At least twice that number is needed to effectively serve Maryland's troubled youth.

Shelter homes are designed to provide care for up to 30 days, while foster homes offer extended, long-term services.

* * *

Juvenile Services will provide supervision for each child placed in foster or shelter care, and will provide financial support and guidance to the shelter and foster parents.

William Dickerson, home-finder for Juvenile Services, will meet with all interested persons to fully discuss the requirements of the administration's shelter and foster care programs and to answer all questions of prospective providers.

Dickerson can be reached at Juvenile Services headquarters, 6314 Windsor Mill Road, Baltimore 21207; Telephone: 301-265-6400.

Y names Ronald Adams to new post

In a move to organize its new center city services, the Young Men's Christian Association of the Greater Baltimore Area has named Ronald Adams to a newly created associate general executive position.

Adams will direct the combined activities of the association's Central, Druid Hill and North Baltimore centers. Current figures for the three operations list membership at 5,166 persons with a combined budget of $754,300.

Adams will also have a major responsibility for expanding and diversifying the association's constituency through increased programs and services to block communities in Baltimore City.

Teens forming roller team seek aid

The Atlantic Wildcats, a group of Baltimore youngsters trying to develop a semi-pro roller derby team, is again asking for financial aid from Baltimore citizens.

The team is managed by Steven Bright, a local high school student, who says that he is sure the group can develop into a "rugged, power-house team."

Steven may be contacted at 514 N. Brice St., or by calling CF 3-4834.

Board of Cardinal Gibbons High School is sponsoring an Advent day of recollection on Dec. 9 at the school.

* * *

St. Mary's Seminary College in Catonsville will host a pastoral care seminar for deacons of the Archdiocese on Dec. 14.

LOTTERY BONUS—Posters are going up around the state advertising the Maryland State Lottery's new Holiday Bonus program. Here, Playboy Bunny Denise helps Theodore R. Peters, vice president of the Super Pride Market chain, put up the colorful posters in the market at 2305 E. Chase St. During the holiday bonus period, Nov. 29 to Jan. 4, the lottery will give away new cars, color tvs, radios and cameras in addition to regular weekly cash prizes. Two numbers will be drawn each week. Cash prizes will be awarded winners on the first number drawn and merchandise prizes to winners on the second number.

Coppin Center, Green Sisters hold benefit

The Green Sisters and the Coppin Center are co-sponsoring a benefit in behalf of ROTAN (Reaching Out To Aid the Needy), on Dec. 8, 7:30 p.m. in the Coppin State College Auditorium.

Several Baltimore City dignitaries are expected to be on hand and many of the city's best known gospel groups will perform.

Further information may be obtained by calling George Diggs or Mrs. Edna Issac at 234-9163, or Miss Joyce Butler at 578-8313.

The effect of the fuel crisis on food production will be one of the topics discussed by a special panel on Friday, Dec. 7, during the Maryland Farm Bureau's convention at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Dr. Buffkins picked to join Israeli meet
