Columbia Capers

BY PINNIE L. ROSS

Miss Edna Hill, the former Miss Black Teenage America, now Miss U.S. Teen Revue, has been very busy making personal appearances across the country since she has won the national title of Miss U.S. Teen. Fashion shows, T.V. appearances, speaking engagements . . . her latest trip took her to the prosperous city of Atlanta, last weekend. Edna was accompanied by her national sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Jackson.

As this black beauty walked the runway of the plane, she was greeted by cameramen flashing in all directions, T.V. news film reporters. Naturally, Edna was full of smiles as usual, but with sophistication.

The purpose of this particular trip was to be the guest model in a fashion show sponsored by the Sigma Gamma Rho Chapter, the Georgia sponsor.

Not only did Miss Hill receive loud applause because of her national title, but also because of the way she presented herself on the runway as well, just gliding along with confidence and poise. Yes, that's Edna.

The Baltimore community is invited as well as Howard County residents to a well prepared Symposium, "An Over View and Dialogue to Black Involvement." The Symposium will be held at the Interfaith Center at 3 p.m. until 5 p.m. sponsored by the Columbia section of the National Council of Negro Women.

According to the National Council President, Mrs. Vera Wilson, each participant will give a brief background of his organization, its purpose, his role in the organization, and how the organization can be of service to the community. There will also be an exchange of dialogue with the audience.

Come out on Sunday and be informed as to what's available in your community.

Bowie (Md.) State College will present its second annual Calendar Girl Contest. The contest will be held Tues. March 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the new Community Arts Center.

The Columbia Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority recently observed Founder's Day. The sorority worshipped at the St. John Baptist Church at the 11 a.m. service. The church is located in the beautiful Interfaith Center, Columbia's unique interdenominational experiment in sharing worship facilities.

After the service, the sorority members had a brunch at Woodward and Lothrop's "Patuxent Room," after which they gathered in the lovely home of Soror Clister Lyles for Founder's Day Rededication Services and a lovely repast.

The newly-elected basileus of the group is Mrs. Ethel Hill. Other officers include Sororz Jacqui Brown, Elayne Mitchell, Roberta Briscoe, Lula Wade, Ruby Polley, Francine Boyd, Sandra Edgecomb, Rosalyn Penn, Willie Davis, Barbara Brown, and Anna McIver.

Sweetheart of Year

Little Miss Kellye Jones was awarded with the title, "Sweetheart of the Year" recently after she displayed an original African Dance created by her dance instructor, Mrs. Cherie Sims.

Kellye is eleven years old and attends the Bentalou Elementary School. Her sister, Monica won the award last year.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones of Vine St.

It's A Boy

Mr. and Mrs. Andre Street (Darnelle) of Dickey Hill Rd., recently became the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy, Devin Andre, who was born at the Greater Baltimore Medical Center.

Proud grandparents include Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Street and great-grandparents, Mrs. Betty W. Johnson, Roland C. Haywood Sr. and Mrs. Lillie M. Street, all of Baltimore.

Sugar 'n Spice

Another newborn in town is little, Chrystal Louise Dyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chris Dyer (Roslyn). Born at Mercy Hospital the baby weighs 7 lbs. 1 oz.

Residents of Glen Burnie, the parents are employed by the Baltimore City Public Schools.

Happy grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, (Sarah) of Fulton Ave. and Mr. and Mrs. James C. Dyer, (Louise), of Clifton Ave.

A Baby Shower

Ms. Harriet Carter was recently surprised at a baby shower in her honor at the Albemarle St. home of Mrs. Evelyn Scipio. Ms. Carter came for a visit and found most of her relatives and friends waiting for her arrival.

Those about were: Mesdames Michele Wylie, Gloria Watson, Marie Ellis Harden, Judy Scipio Young, Gloria Davis, Admenia Butler, Rosalind Harris, Grace M. Johnson, Evelyn Scipio, Patricia Bowyer, Ellen Hinton, Gladys Davis.

it. We are easy to criticize our children but we very seldom praise them."

Mrs. Cox continued: "Did our children bring crime, V.D. and ugliness into the world when they were born? We are responsible for our children. We can't place the blame on someone else. We have to change things, they look to us for help. We must work together to do what must be done. If we don't save our young who will?"

While Mrs. Cox was returning to her seat, Del. DuBurns came to the podium and announced that the teachers strike had ended, which brought even more applauses.

Remarks and the financial report came from Mrs. Mabel L. Watts, president of the Women's City-Wide Committee and Mrs. Bertha Driver, treasurer of the committee.

The proceeds from last year's tea helped hundreds of children. During the year the committee paid college tuitions, sponsored a basketball team for teens, held an all-day outing, a boat ride on the Port Welcome, theatre party and even passed out Christmas gifts and candy. Some $4,000 was raised.

Officers of the Eastside Community Committee are:

Melvin G. Roy, president; Mrs. Martha E. Underwood, vice-president; Oscar Arter, vice-president; Jesse Simpson, treasurer, and Mrs. Thelma D. Ray, secretary.

Woodlawn Highlights

By Marjorie E. Green

It was a thrilling moment last Thursday when the afternoon quarterly meeting of the United Missionary Baptist Convention was interrupted to present this writer with a life membership pin.

Having secured the membership sometime ago, I began to think that I had been forgotten until I heard the request to come forward.

The cherished certificate presented by the Womens Auxiliary indicates that enrollment in the organization is "for the purpose of helping to promote the ideals and work of the convention, that the cause of Missions and Christian Education may ever advance."

It further states that "The executive board of the Womens Convention has issued this life certificate, which entitles the recipient to a Life Membership badge, annual reports, and a messenger to the annual session, and to enjoy the rights and privileges of active membership so long as the recipient remains a member of a regular Missionary Baptist Church affiliated with the U.B.M.C. of Maryland." The certificate is signed by Mrs. Mary E. Harrington, President of the Womens Convention and Ms Natalie Carter, Recording Secretary. The Quarterly meeting was held at Friendship Baptist Church. Rev William McCoy, Host Pastor and Rev. Dr. Montague J. Brackett, President U.M.B.C.

Breakfast with F.R.E.D. at Memorial Baptist Church on Saturday morning was well worth the trip across town in the rain.

Members and friends of the Maryland Baptist Convention and the United Baptist Missionary Convention of Maryland joined in fellowship to reaffirm their joint effort to support the F.R.E.D. Banquet. The banquet will be held at Martins West on 27 for the benefit of the Baptist Aged Home.

Among those extending greetings to the breakfast group were: Mrs. Thelma Culp, President, Women's convention, U.B.M.C. of Maryland; Miss Helen V. Benton, Banquet Chairman; Rev. Samuel T. Redd, Publicity Chairman and Rev. L. Graves, Jr. General Chairman—F.R.E.D. committee.

SSA's Mrs. Rosie S. Keene, presided over the program and also served on the F.R.E.D. breakfast committee.

Hello's were exchanged with SSA's Rev. J. Marion Bradley at the U.M.B.C. Quarterly meeting and again this past Monday evening at the Church Wide Institute. Rev. Bradley is the pastor of the Bureau Baptist Church.

An Eastside couple, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Venable celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary at their Washington St. home recently in a small family dinner.

Later during that same afternoon a second celebration came about for the Venables. It was the arrival of a new grandchild born at John Hopkins Hospital weighing 7 lbs. 1 oz.

The Venables are the parents of a daughter, Mrs. Garfield Robinson, (Virginia), and two sons, Berkley and Saterfield.

Both members of Faith Baptist Church since 1932, Mr. Venable is a retired Bethlehem Steel employee where he worked for 47 years.

Pierian Day

Mayor William Donald Schaefer has proclaimed March 9, as Pierian Day in Baltimore.

The Pierians organized in December 1958 for the purpose of bringing together a group of women who were interested in seeking a deeper appreciation of the fine Arts.

Specifically through cooperative efforts with the Gallery of Art, Morgan State College, through its Art in the Public Schools of Baltimore Program and through its efforts of broader encouragement and promotion of the arts in all forms and media, the group has brought quality arts to a larger segment of our community.

The name Pierian was taken from the word Pieria which was a region of ancient Macedonia, one of the earliest seats of the Muses. The Pierian spring was a fountain in Pieria sacred to the Muses and believed to communicate poetic inspiration.

Mesdames Jewel Mosely, Lydia Mussenden, Audrey Norris, Melissa Perdue, Verniece Reynolds, Alice Russell, Gwendolyn Tarter, Mamie Todd, Celonia Walden, Vivian Washington, Verda Welcome, Ruth Welling, Catherine Wilson and Theda Wilson.

SLIM SILHOUETTE . . . a smooth profile for a trim appearance under every fashion. Gives you all-over control, yet lets you reach, stretch and bend in comfort because it's made with the exclusive 18-Hour fabric. Attractive lace cups suspended in a unique self-adjusting frame of sheer light-weight elastic. Adjustable stretch straps. At last, all-over comfort, control and a trim appearance, all day long!
