Tau Gamma Delta

By Michele Lynn McRae

How dashing the women of Tau Gamma Delta Shosted some 500 guests at their Annual Scholarship Borority, Inc., Pi Chapter were last weekend when theyall at Dogwood Rd. hall.

These ladies were all dressed-up recently when their sorority, Tau Gamma Delta, Pi Chapter hosted its annual scholarship ball at a Dogwood Rd. hall. About were from left: Sorors, Edith Harris, Christine Bland, Toni Carter, Sally Herring, chairman, Doris Cook, Flossie Johnson, Norma Scott, basileus.

Funds raised from the ball will be used to assist deserving young students in the Baltimore area to attend college. The group holds this function each year for this purpose.

Tau Gamma Delta Sorority, Inc. is a non-profit philanthropic business and professional women's organization with the purpose to cultivate and encourage high scholastic standards, promote high individual conduct, add to the harmony, discipline and the general welfare of their womanhood.

The organization's National Service Projects include scholarships to economically deprived youngsters, financial assistance to nursing homes, hospitals, needy families, and orphanages coast to coast.

Tau Gamma Delta Sorority, through local, regional and national fund raising projects, has donated over $112,000 to scholarships and $80,000 to charities in the United States.

Each year the sorority selects a student from the community where Boule is held and scholarship is presented. The organization donates to a local charity, a national charity, and a local church during the convention.

Tau Gamma Delta's main thrust is to upgrade and enhance the lives of America's youth and senior citizens. Their service oriented purpose points toward the challenges which cause change in the ghettos and helps others reach for what seems to be the unreachable star.

Woodlawn HIGHlights

By MARJORIE R. GREEN

MRS. GREEN

Congratulations to Miss Fortune Brown, GSS Technical Assistant in the Mail and Distribution section, BDI. Miss Fortune, who has been with the Social Security Administration seven years, received a high quality increase in pay in recognition of the superior manner in which she performs the duties of her job. She is attending Morgan State College under the Upward Mobility program.

"The Winning Hand" was the theme expressed during the luncheon sponsored by Blue Ridge Region Council 9 last Saturday in Silver Spring, Md. Representatives from most of the area Coastmistress clubs were on hand to compete in the preliminary speech contest.

The clubs were broken down into two groups that competed simultaneously. Toastmistress clubs represented in the first group were: Carderock, Chesapeake, Point Breeze, Potomac, Security and Woodlawn. The second group listed Baltivox, Columbian, Federal, Postal, Vita and Walter Reed.

The six lucky ladies making it to the finals were Mesdames Mary Peyton, Judy Parrish, LaVaughn Goss, DeOssie Hillard, Verna Day and Martha McCready. In spite of the strong competition, second and third place were captured by SSA'ers Verna Day, Woodlawn toastmistress and Martha McCready, Chesapeake Toastmistress Club.

First place winner was Ms. La Vaughn Goss, member of the Carderock Toastmistress Club. Mesdames Day and Goss will compete in the North Carolina Regional contest May 11 through May 13.

Social Security Commissioner Bruce Cardwell and assistant commissioner for Administration, Frank DeGeorge were recent luncheon guests of five members of the Federally Employed Women's group.

The purpose of the luncheon meeting was to acquaint the commissioners with the problems and issues confronting women in their struggle for recognition equal to that of their male counterparts.

Members enjoying the lunch and get acquainted discussions were: Mesdames Barbara LaCroy, president; Verna Day, Mary Stohl, Stephanie Crowley and Anne Fowler.
