Help Wanted

THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
IOWA CITY, IOWA

ANNOUNCEMENT: ADMINISTRATIVE VACANCY, ASSISTANT DEAN FOR ADMINISTRATION

Appointment effective: As soon as possible. Initial date of appointment can be delayed until second semester 1974-75 (or June, 1975, if necessary) in order to obtain best qualified person.

Qualifications desired: A doctorate in a field taught in the College of Education. Experience in contemporary planning systems and techniques. Experience in budget development and budget administration. Sensitivity to good research design. Ability to assist faculty members in formulating grant proposals. Ability to work well with others. Skill in public relations. Ability to write well; capability of editing studies and publications.

Responsibilities: Budget administration (except for personnel administration) including: faculty travel; physical plant, office and instructional equipment, general expense accounts. Liaison with University offices responsible for physical plant services, space assignment and utilization, and information services. Supervision of special College of Education financial accounts. Assistance to faculty in developing grant proposals; review and approval of grant requests; liaison with foundations and government agencies on financial subventions; administration of financial aspects of grants received. Institutional research affecting the College of Education. Field relations; coordination of the service functions of the College of Education. Other administrative assignments delegated by the dean on an ad hoc basis. Teaching at least one course a year in the field of academic expertise.

Salary: Appropriate to the position and to the preparation and experience of the appointee.

Retirement and Insurance: The University of Iowa provides 6.6 per cent of the cost of a TIAA retirement plan. The University contributes 6.6 per cent on the first $4,800 of salary and 10 per cent of all salary received above $4,800. Toward this retirement annuity, the individual contributes 3.33 per cent of the first $4,800 of salary and 5 per cent of all salary received above $4,800.

The University contributes 5.85 per cent of the first $13,200 of salary toward FICA (social security); the individual contributes a like amount.

The appointee will be included in a very reasonable group life insurance plan. The premium paid by the University is $3.55 for each $1,000 of life insurance carried. The individual pays $2.21 per $1,000 of salary toward the life insurance premium. The total amount of coverage available varies with the age and salary of the faculty member; however, coverage approximates two and one-half times the amount of annual salary. Faculty members are eligible for a group Blue Cross-Blue Shield policy with premiums paid by the individual.

The University pays the total cost of a major medical insurance policy and disability insurance.

The total contribution of the University to fringe benefits amounts to approximately 16 per cent of the individual's salary.

Equal Opportunity Employer: The University of Iowa is an equal opportunity employer.

Applications: Inquiries and applications should be sent to:
