February is a month of celebrations

February is a month for celebrations — and whenever we celebrate, good food plays an important role.

Innovative cooks dream up heart-shaped recipies in honor of St. Valentine along with delicious uses for tart cherries — George Washington's favorite fruit. And, no February party could do without its traditional Lincoln logs.

This hearty menu honors all three occasions, centered around savory meat Sweetheart Loaf, yeast-raised Corn Meal Lincoln Logs and, of course, Cherry Tree Torte for dessert. Hostesses will appreciate the meal's sound contributions toward well-balanced nutrition.

Sweetheart Loaf takes only minutes to put together — the real work is done by the oven. Naturally good tasting oats and mellow Cheddar cheese provide protein to help stretch one pound ground beef into six wholesome servings. The corn meal used in Lincoln Logs is enriched with B-vitamin and iron, too.

Prepare, bake and freeze Lincoln Logs in advance if you wish; they can be reheated just before serving. Cherry Tree Torte is another doabead recipe. Prepare its pancake base tonight, then fill and top with its sweet cheese and cherry mixtures tomorrow.

February holidays — celebrate three of them in this one dinner but don't expect your family and friends to wait a whole year for a repeat performance!

Sweetheart Loaf
(Makes 6 servings)

1 lb. ground beef
3 cup quick or old fashioned oats, uncooked
3 egg
3 cup grated mellow Cheddar cheese
4 cup catsup
One third cup sliced pimiento stuffed olives
3 teaspoon salt
¾ teaspoon crushed oregano
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Heat oven to moderate (350 degrees F.). Combine beef, oats, egg, ½ cup of the cheese, ¼ cup of the catsup, olives, salt, oregano and pepper; mix well. Place in shallow baking pan. Press to form heart shape. Make edge slightly higher to form "well" on top of meat loaf.

Spread remaining ¼ cup catsup within "well." Bake in preheated oven (350 degrees F.) 35 to 40 minutes. During last few minutes of baking period sprinkle remaining ½ cup cheese over catsup.

Corn Meal Lincoln Logs
(Makes 2 dozen)

1 cake compressed or 1 pkg. dry yeast
¾ cup lukewarm water
½ cup shortening, soft
One third cup nonfat dry milk
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 egg
2-¼ to 2-½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
¾ cup enriched corn meal
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese
¼ teaspoon garlic powder
¼ teaspoon crushed oregano

Soften yeast in water. (Use warm water for dry yeast). Pour over shortening, dry milk, sugar and salt. Beat in egg, 1 cup flour and corn meal. Stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board or canvas; knead until satiny, about 10 minutes. Round dough into ball; turn in greased bowl to lightly grease top. Cover; let rise in warm place until double in size, about 1-½ hours.

Punch dough down; turn out on lightly floured board or canvas. Cover; let rest 10 minutes. Divide dough in half. Roll out each half to form a 16 x 15-inch rectangle. Cut into 5 x 4-inch rectangles.

Combine butter, Parmesan cheese, garlic powder and oregano. Brush over 5 x 4-inch rectangles. Roll up each rectangle jelly roll fashion to make 5-inch logs. Pinch edge to seal and place seam side down on greased cookie sheets. Brush with melted shortening; cover and let rise in warm place until nearly double in size, about 45 minutes. Bake in preheated moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes.

This February Menu honors St. Valentine, George Washington and President Lincoln all in one. It stars Sweetheart Loaf, Corn Meal Lincoln Logs and Cherry Tree Torte.

Cherry Tree Torte
(Makes 8 servings)

¼ teaspoon salt
2 eggs
One third cup sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla extract
½ cup pancake mix
One 3-oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
1 tablespoon milk
¼ teaspoon almond extract
One 21-oz. can cherry pie filling

For pancake torte, heat oven to hot (400 degrees F.). Grease sides and bottom of a 9-inch square baking line with waxed paper and grease again.

Combine salt and eggs in small mixing bowl; beat until thick and lemon colored. Very gradually add sugar to eggs beating well after each addition. Beat in vanilla. Gradually fold pancake mix into batter. Spread evenly in prepared pan. Bake in preheated oven (400 degrees F.) 8 to 10 minutes. While torte is baking, sprinkle a towel well with confectioners sugar.

Immediately on taking torte from oven, loosen edges and turn out on towel. Peel waxed paper carefully from torte. Cool. Split cake in half to make two layers. Beat together cream cheese, milk and almond extract until smooth. Spread over cut side of bottom half. Top with ½ of the cherry pie filling. Place top half, cut side down, over cherries. Top with remaining cherry pie filling.

Mala Rubinstein Zig Zag Diet calls for sensible eating habits

"A firm, well-proportioned body isn't a matter of luck — it's the result of sensible eating habits and adequate exercise," says Mala Rubinstein, world-famous beauty authority.

"Maintaining ideal weight often calls for determination and discipline, but the rewards are many, including the wonderful feeling of confidence that springs from knowing your figure is lithe and attractive."

If you have a tendency to gain a few extra pounds from time to time, follow the quick-slimming plan recommended by Miss Rubinstein. It is based on "zig" days of relatively normal eating alternated with "zag" days of rigid dieting. The suggested menu is high in protein, vitamins and minerals and provides adequate energy for a normal working routine.

The ground rules for Miss Rubinstein's diet are simple and sensible. The list of no-no's includes all fried foods, fatty meats, pastries, rich desserts, cream and sugar. (Alcoholic beverages are also banned from the 3-day scheme of things). On the "yes" side are lean meats, fish, non-fat dairy products, leafy green and yellow vegetables, fresh fruits.

Plan your diet menu in advance. And resist supermarket temptations . . . buy only what's on your shopping list. Use a minimum of salt in cooking, none at the table. Drink plenty of water between meals . . . none with.

Limit between-meal nibbling to a raw carrot or celery stick; otherwise, just stay away from the pantry or refrigerator. (The out-of-sight, out-of-mind theory works wonders when you're dieting!) And get more exercise! Your "daily dozen," a brisk walk, an action sport if possible, will take your mind off food — improve your circulation — and help firm and tone your figure. As advisable for all diets — check with your doctor to be sure that this food program is permissable for you.

The first diet-day calls for liquids only:

8 a.m. . . . grapefruit juice
11 a.m. . . . tomato juice or vegetable juice
1 p.m. . . . 1 cup herbal bouillon or clear vegetable broth
3 p.m. . . . fruit juice (grapefruit, orange, cranberry or apple)
5 p.m. . . . 1 cup herbal bouillon or clear vegetable broth
9 p.m. . . . 1 glass of skim milk or buttermilk

For the next 2 days (or the balance of the week, if you wish):

On arising — Large glass of hot water with juice of ½ lemon

Breakfast — Grapefruit juice, 1 cup plain yogurt mixed with 3 tbspns. wheat germ, black coffee or tea OR Half grapefruit-black coffee or tea.

Lunch — Mixed green salad or raw vegetable salad with lemon juice (no oil) OR Tomato stuffed with cottage cheese OR Lean broiled hamburger (no roll), tomato slices and lettuce (with lemon dressing, only)

Dinner — Brölled lean meat (lamb chop, small steak or liver) or fish, two vegetables "au natural" (no butter, sauce, breadcrumbs, etc.), small lettuce-and-tomato, grated raw carrot or cucumber salad, fresh fruit

Bedtime — Glass of skim milk or buttermilk

"Will-power works," maintains Miss Rubinstein — who views self-discipline as an important prerequisite of beauty. "Simply make up your mind that you're going to stick to your diet regimen . . . and then do it!"

To aid you in the doing, these tips: "Don't talk about your diet. Don't think about rich foods. Don't look at a menu, if dining out . . . it can be maddening! Do keep in mind the prettier figure you'll have!

Chi Delta Mu hosts annual Founders' Day

By Pinnie L. Ross
AFRO Columnist

February 9 was a date to remember. The new Hilton Ballroom was the scene of the annual Founders' Day black tie Banquet, presented by Iota Chapter of Chi Delta Mu Fraternity.

The ballroom was filled to capacity with invited guest, and why not — forget the date — no way. Beautiful forget-me not calendar - type invitations went out to guests in and around the Baltimore metrocolitan area.

From 6 until 7 p.m. guests sipped drinks from an open bar, after which they went into the Francis Scott Key Ballroom and were served a delectable roast beef dinner.

Bobby Felder provided the music until midnight and regrettably the party was over.

Chi Delta Mu recently filled the Garland Dinner Theatre in Columbia to capacity at its annual scholarship fund raiser.

The fraternity is composed of physicians, dentists, and pharmacists. Dr. Bernard White is president.

It was a busy week for this writer, but an enjoyable one.

Invited guests from Columbia motored down to Annapolis last weekend to party with the Annapolis Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. They had their Shadow Dance. Hey, it was together!

Their little brothers (Scrollers) were kept busy checking coats and assisting their big brothers and the silhouettes in many ways.

Bobby Felder did his thing again, as always. Guests danced until 2 a.m.

Grand chapter members were present. Dr. William (Stud) Green and Ernest Davenport, past grand polemarch, also St. Elmo Crawford, Jr., grand vice polemarch, Attorney and Mrs. Winfred Mundle, all came from Washington, D.C.

Reoresentatives from Columbia, Silver Soring, and Aberdeen chapters were present also.

Mr. and Mrs. William Palmer had a fabulous after-party at their spacious Heritage Park home. They entertained 60 couples — good food . . . beautiful hospitality from beautiful people.

A dinner and fashion show will be held at 3400 Copley Rd., Church of Christ, Saturday, Feb. 22, starting at 6:30 p.m.

Judge James L. Bundy will be the guest speaker. Committee members are Ann Drayton, Pat Bernard, Jean Payne. A parade of spring hats will be a part of the show with the latest in spring fashions. Bishop Monroe Saunders is the minister. For ticket information call 542-5800 or 945-8499.

Thought For Today

Catonsville Notes

By Liz Williams
AFRO Columnist

Greetings

When good friends walk
beside us
On the trials that we must keep,
Our burdens seem less heavy
And the hills are not so steep.
The weary miles pass
swiftly
Taken in joyous stride,
And all the world seems brighter
When friends walk by our side.

The above verse was taken from some notepaper I had. Source and author, unknown.

Many interesting things have been happening in our community. On St., Feb. 8, the Gospel Choir from All Saints Church (Liberty Heights Ave.) sang at the 7 p.m. Mass at St. Mark Catholic Church here in Catonsville.

The organist and director is Bill Cummings, music teacher at Northwestern High School. Larry Barber is the assistant director and Joe Defillipo plays the drums. It was a beautiful experience for all (both black and white) who participated at this Mass. We have nothing but the highest praises for the pastor (Father Duke) and his assistants.

At least once a year the "Emma Williams Lodge" headed by Mrs. Jessie Steward sponsors a variety dinner. This year these ladies did it again. They started at noon and before the day was over there was a complete sellout.

Kings Tavern," a landmark in Catonsville, is under new management. The new manager is Mrs. Clestine Williams from Washington, D.C. Mrs. Williams does all of the cooking and the staff consists of her daughters and nephews.

Many workers in the Printing Office in Washington, D.C. will remember this lady because she worked at Ivory's Grill for many years. This eating place is across the street from the Printing Office. If you want a good meal at a reasonable price, go to Mrs. Williams' (no relation) place. Her grand opening is tonight.

Tune in on Betty Cox's program on Tuesday, February 18, Channel 11, WBAL. She will present a Special — "Better With Age". One of our good neighbors, Mrs. Irene Holland will be on the program.

She is representing the Senior Citizens Center (St. Timothy's Church, Ingleside Ave., Catonsville. Please look at this program and mail any comments, positive or negative to Betty Cox, c/o Channel 11. Remember the time — February 18th at 9 a.m.

The Grace Improvement Organization is presenting its second Afro-American Heritage Weekend on February 21st, 22nd and the 23rd. More about this next week. Full particulars will be given.

Send "get well" cards to Leon (Toye) Webb, 171 Winters Lane. Mr. Webb is in St. Agnes Hospital.

Have a good week and think about the poem on friendship.
