Firebomb victims blame disturbance on TV show

Several residents in the Glen Burnie-Marley Park Area, told the AFRO, "We are armed and prepared if they come back. We must protect our families because the situation is pretty rough. They should have never shown that movie on the television."

The above statements were made Wednesday after two ministers' homes and other citizens' homes were struck by firebombs.

Captain Lee Volrath of Anne Arundel County Police department revealed, "The person or people involved were probably encouraged and got the idea from a recent television show. "No one has been arrested and we are still investigating."

Captain Volrath was speaking of the movie based on Ku Klux Klan activities in Mississippi. The movie repeated incidents where Klan members firebombing black churches, molotov cocktails thrown from cars.

The movie also showed Klan members firebombing black churchts. The home of the Rev. Wilbur T. Driver, assistant pastor of St. Timothy Baptist Church, Grove'and and Granada Ave., was firebombed 7:45 p.m., Feb. 24.

* * *

The Rev. Mr. Driver lives on E Howard Ave., in Glen Burnie. Police report a two by three foot wooden cross was placed on the minister's lawn.

The cross had been soaked in a flammable liquid, police said, but did not catch fire. The Rev. Mr. Driver's wife, Mrs. Doris Driver told the AFRO, "She heard the firebomb hit the roof.

"My husband put the fire out and cut his foot on a piece of glass while putting out the fire."

"It is very unsetting and to a point, we are scared to close our eyes in here," said Mrs. Driver.

The Anne Arundel County police report they are patrolling the area daily.

The home of Mrs Marguerite Richardson of the 100 block Scott Ave., was struck Feb. 25, by two firebombs.

* * *

Mrs Scott lives three miles from the Rev. Mr. Driver. Police report the firebombs thrown in her home were the same type used in the other homes.

The home made bombs are gas-filled bottles which were ignited by a cloth stuck in the opening.

Mrs. Richardson stated, "We have never had any trouble. Some people seem to believe it's white people doing this."

The suspects threw two firebombs on Mrs. Richardson's property. As she attempted to put out the fire on her front lawn, police report another firebomb was thrown in the back of her house.

* * *

The other firebombing was reported to the police by a 70-year-old farmer who lives in an isolated area with his brother.

Percy Turner stated, "I have lived here all my life. This is the first time I have had trouble. Mr. Turner stated he was upset over what happenid but indicated he was not upset over what had happened but indicated he was "armed if they returned to his home."

None of the citizens could explain why their homes were firebombed. However, they continued to repeat, "If they return, we are ready for them."

Renovation program flags at Forest Park

Failure to complete a major $675,000 renovation program has left Forest Park High School in deplorable condition.

Harry Smith, member of the Forest Park High School Association, told the AFRO, "The roof has been leaking for seven years. Construction for the $90,000 roof has not yet begun."

Three and four-year-old students involved in a child development at the school must stand on buckets to use the dilapidated toilet facilities, Mr. Smith added.

Funds for the renovation program were appropriated in July, 1974 under the Capital Improvement Program. However, since that time only two projects have been completed, a $258,974 boiler plant and a $9,990 tennis court.

A sprinkling system, interior plastering and masonry and water repairs are still left incomplete.

Curtis Lantz, assistant superintendent of physical plant stated. "Many of the projects are behind in schedule. We do expect to complete the work at Forest Park by September."

However, parents of Forest Park students may boycott classes next September if the repairs are not completed by that time.

Forest Park, built in 1924, is one of the oldest schools in the city. With a maximum capacity of 1,100 students it now has only 800 students currently enrolled.

Under the new senior high school desegregation plan, the school has a projected enrollment of 1,600 students.

Planning funds to study the feasibility of renovating the school or constructing a new facility was deferred until fiscal year 1977 under the CIP.

An appeal was made by the School Board to the Interagency Committee who were leading down the decision.

The state Board of Public Works met with an agency in Annapolis on Feb. 26 and restored the project to the program. The school will receive only $25,000 of the requested $488,000 for planning.

Other projects included in the program for fiscal year 1976 are a $279,000 athletic field for the Dunbar High School and construction of the new Senator William L. Hodges Elementary School.

James Earl Ray refused a new trial in King case

BULLETIN
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — A federal judge has rejected James Earl Ray's bid for a new trial in the 1968 murder of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The court sustained the state's contention that Ray had voluntarily pleaded guilty in the case.

"The total circumstances (of Ray's Guilty Plea) do not constitute a violation of the constitutional rights applicable to one who voluntarily pleaded guilty on the advice of competent counsel of his own choosing," U.S. District Judge Robert McRae Jr. said.

The judge heard eight days of testimony late last year on Ray's claim he was coerced into admitting guilt and the state's rebuttal of that contention.

Ray s lawyers immediately said they will appeal the ruling to the 6th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals and, if necessary, to the Supreme Court

The confessed assassin, now 47, contends famed defense attorney Percy Foreman of Houston pressured him into pleading guilty on March 10, 1969. He said Foreman hoped to preserve the littrary value of books about the April 4, 1968, murder and Ray's role in it.
