Embassies, YWCA hold 18th bazaar

The 26th annual International Fair in Washington, D.C. cooperatively arranged by the staff from more than 40 embassies and the YWCA of the Washington area will be held on Nov. 11, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the Sheraton Park Hotel.

Art objects from countries around the world where the YWCA is at work and samples of cloth will be available to be purchased.

International musicians and dancers and a fashion show, with models recruited from the embassies represented, will comprise entertainment. Wives of ambassadors plan to prepare ther own special recipes for food to be sold at the Fair.

A special exhibit this year will be a USA Booth, selling Americana, including small antiques, homemade American food specialities with recipes, and plants and herbs.

Another new feature, a stamp booth, will sell American and foreign stamps which have been collected by YWCA members during this year.

Four Baltimore YWCA centers are arranging bus trips to the Washington event. All require ticket reservations previous to the event. Fees quoted include admission to the International Fair. None include lunch which may consist of foods purchased at the Fair or participants may leave the Fair to eat in hotel restaurants and return to the Fair.

A bus will leave the YWCA, 128 W. Franklin St. 10 a.m., returns 5 p.m., fare is $5.50 to YWCA members, $6 to non-members. Call International Division, 685-1460 for reservations.

Another bus will leave the YWCA, 1912 Madison Ave. at 9 a.m. and returns at 5 p.m. Fair is $5.50 to YWCA members; $6.50 to non-members. For reservations, call 669-1881.

Since its beginning 26 years ago, the International Fair has grown in attendance, topping 10,000. Proceeds are contributed to the YWCA World Mutual Service Fund to support YWCAs in other countries around the world.

Entrance tickets may be purchased at the door—$1.50 for adults.

German cakes

Here are three classic, rich and moist German cakes which look far more complicated to prepare than they really are. Apple Raisin Cake (front), Lemon Kuchen and Black Forest Torte can be served together at a buffet luncheon, Club get-together, or pot luck dinner or prepare one for a grand finale to any meal.

A booklet including these delicious cakes and other favorites from around the world is available by sending 25c to "Recipes with International Flavor," P. O. Box 1791, Dept. FP, Chicago, IL 60611

LEMON KUCHEN

1 cup Squeeze Parkay margarine
2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons grated lemon rind
1½ teaspoons vanilla
4 eggs, separated
3 cups flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
Lemon Glaze

Combine margarine and sugar; blend in rind and vanilla. Add egg yolks one at a time, mixing well after each addition. Add combined dry ingredients alternately with milk, mixing well after each addition. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into greased and floured 10-inch tube pan or Bundt pan. Bake at 350°, 1 hour and 10 minutes. Cool 10 minutes; remove from pan. Glaze with:

Lemon Glaze

1½ cups sifted confectioners' sugar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon vanilla
Dash of salt

Combine ingredients; mix until well blended.

BLACK FOREST TORTE

½ cup Squeeze Parkay margarine
1½ cups sugar
3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 1-oz. squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
1¾ cups flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
¾ cup buttermilk
Chocolate Filling
Brandied Cherry Filling
Whipped Cream Frosting

Combine margarine and sugar. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition; blend in vanilla and chocolate. Add combined dry ingredients alternately with buttermilk, mixing well after each addition. Pour into two greased and floured 8-inch layer pans. Bake at 350°, 30 to 35 minutes or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes; remove from pans. Cool layers completely; split each layer in half horizontally. Spread top of one layer with Chocolate Filling. Top with second layer; spread with Brandied Cherry Filling. Repeat with remaining two layers. Frost sides of cake with Whipped Cream Frosting.

Combine margarine and sugar; blend in eggs and vanilla. Add combined dry ingredients alternately with milk, mixing well after each addition. Stir in apples, raisins and nuts. Pour into greased and floured 13 x 9-inch baking pan. Bake at 350°, 40 to 45 minutes or until wooden pick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool; frost with:

Brown Sugar Frosting

½ cup Squeeze Parkay margarine
1 cup packed brown sugar
¼ cup milk
3 cups sifted confectioners' sugar

Combine margarine and brown sugar in saucepan; bring to boil. Cook 1 minute; remove from heat. Cook slightly; stir in milk. Add confectioners' sugar; beat until smooth.

APPLE RAISIN CAKE

½ cup Squeeze Parkay margarine
1½ cups packed brown sugar
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¾ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon baking powder
½ cup milk
2 cups finely chopped peeled apples
1 cup raisins
½ cup chopped walnuts
Brown Sugar Frosting

Pumpkin Muffins

Pumpkin Muffins

12 muffins

1¾ cups enriched self-rising flour*
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
½ teaspoon baking soda
¼ teaspoon ground cloves
1 egg, beaten
⅓ cup buttermilk
⅓ cup packed light brown sugar
2 tablespoons butter, melted
½ cup canned pumpkin

Stir together flour, cinnamon, soda and cloves. Set aside. Combine egg, buttermilk, sugar and butter; stir in pumpkin. Add all at once to flour mixture and stir only until dry particles are moistened. Fill greased muffin cups ⅔ full. Bake in preheated 350° oven 20 to 25 minutes. Serve hot.

*Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop.

When trick or treaters knock at your door, trick them with a treat packed full of good nutrition, cellophane-wrapped Pumpkin Muffins. If your community has adopted a Halloween Party instead of "beggars" night, these muffins do double duty as a not-so-sweet treat.

Whatever the tradition in your area, when baking these enjoy the convenience of enriched self-rising flour. The salt and baking powder are preblended with the flour in just-right proportions for perfect baking.

But convenience is only half the story of enriched self-rising flour. Three essential B-vitamins—niacin, thiamine and riboflavin—plus the minerals, iron and calcium nutrients needed by the body everyday, are added in the enrichment.

Chocolate Filling

1 cup heavy cream
2 tablespoons confectioners' sugar
1 tablespoon cocoa

Beat cream, gradually adding sugar and cocoa until stiff.

Brandied Cherry Filling

1 16-oz. can pitted sour cherries
2 tablespoons brandy
2 tablespoons cornstarch

Drain cherries, reserving syrup. Gradually add syrup to cornstarch; add brandy. Cook over medium heat until clear and thickened; stir in cherries. Cool.

Whipped Cream Frosting

1 cup heavy cream
2 tablespoons confectioners' sugar

Beat cream, gradually adding sugar, until stiff.

memorable "Occasion." Her lovely daughter, Mary was seated at our table along with Dickinson Building Counselor, Ruth Fegley, Mr. and Mrs. Antoine Elias, Ernest Gee, Fern Kolodner and Timothy Wilson.

We also caught a glimpse of former employees, John Vernon Thornton, Marion Winborne and Helen Benton in the crowd.

It was heartwarming to see members of SSA'S top staff enjoying the evening's program. Frank DeGeorge and Tom Parrott pause to say "hello" Richard Pope, Bill Bailey, Helen Tucker and Kitty Smith were sitting at a choice front table. Herb Creech, Ed Simmons and other representatives of top management were very visible.

Tim Wilson, member of the Bureau of Retirement Survivors Insurance Equal Opportunity Staff sat with us and revealed his dream of one day being elected to SSA'S executive development program.

He previously worked at Westinghouse in Pittsburgh, taught business administration at Morgan State University and was a civilian employee with the Army Corps of Engineers.

At the present, he is working on his second masters degree. The lady in his life is city employee, Nancy Aquilla. They haven't set a wedding date, but judging from the look in his eyes when he talks about Nancy, I predict that an announcement will be made very soon.

Mr. Wilson is an active member of Union Baptist Church and serves on the Trustee board. The Rev. Vernon Dobson is the pastor of the church.

Congratulations to Mrs Carolyn Johnson. She became a proud grandmother for the third time last Saturday. We hope to have more next week about this baby boy who is also a member of our family. Carolyn works in the Woodlawn Operations building.
