STATE OF MARYLAND

Treasury Department, Comptroller's Office

Annapolis, October 8, 1921

In pursuance of the requirements of Section 23, of Article 19 of the Code of Public General Laws, I herewith publish the names, titles and amounts due by the following Officers who are in arrears to the State of Maryland:

Name	Title	Year	Principal	Interest
Harry E. Taylor	Collector	1919	$2389.10	$286.69

E. BROOKE LEE, Comptroller.

MASSEY

(By a Citizen)

Massey, Maryland, is the name of our village,
The farms around us are fine for tillage.

We've churches, school and even a bank,
The latter for which Mr. Massey we thank.

In banking and insuarnce work,
Miss Newnam is a competent clerk.

Mr. George Moffett has a general store,
He sells boots and shoes and groceries galore.

Postoffice and store has M. P. Dunn,
In which he sells everything under the sun.

Malsberger's store is across the street,
Buy anything there from coal to salt meat.

If ever there's anything wrong with your car,
Edwards' garage is not very far.

Huey's implement store has tools and seed,
Mr. Clark is there to sell what you need.

If your carriage or wagon needs any repairs,
Hicks' blacksmith shop will soon banish your cares.

Whenever you wish to hire a car
Mr. Woodall will take you short distance or far.

At the school Misses Donahoe, Radnor or Ware,
Will teach your child and treat him square.

Medford or Marriner at the station,
Will sell you a ticket for any location.

Mr. Painter has the milk station up the track,
Your cans are emptied before you go back.

Maslin and Pierce sell a nice dainty dish,
They've usually plenty of nice fresh fish.

Hurlock and Glass can tomatoes and corn,
The canneries are closed now and look quite forlorn.

Whenever you want a good hearty meal,
Maslin's Hotel will give a square deal.

When you need oil or gas for your tractor or car,
Darrel brings it if you don't live too far.

If you're interested in your soul's salvation,
Brace up, go to church, for the good of the nation,

In the Episcopal Church and the Methodist too,
There are plenty of seats for me and for you.

Please come to Massey and pay us a call,
A hearty welcome will be given to all.

My name I do not care to mention,
But I thank you for your kind attention!

—Immediate improvements to telephone plants in Maryland costing $562,721 were authorized by the Executive Committee of The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company at its September meeting. They are part of the company's program of $3,000,000 progress in Maryland during 1921, and provide additional facilities for practically every part of the state.

County Agent's Notes

On Thursday evening, October 6, several of Kent's poultry enthusiasts met in the Co. Agent's office and organized a poultry association. The first activity of this new organization will be to stage a poultry show this fall in connection with the County Exhibit.

The Kent County Agricultural Council met Friday, October 7, in the Co. Agent's office. Plans for the Annual County Exhibit were made. The dates set were Nov. 17, 18, 19. Because of the growth of the Exhibit and the addition of a Poultry Show, the Exhibit will be held at Washington College this fall.

Such a few Holstein Breeders met at the call of the Holstein Association Friday evening, Oct. 7, that the proposed Holstein sale was called off.

If a man likes Durocs it would be like a vacation to visit the Creawards Farm at Rock Hall and gaze upon the herd there. You ought to see old "Chief," a wonder at 13 months of age. When one year old "Chief" weighed 503 pounds. Can anybody beat that?

Undefeated Holstein Bulls proudly graze upon the clover at N. V. Walters' farm in Galena. There are many other undefeated bulls in Kent county, but not like these.

Speaking about Poland Chinas, F. C. Wood, on the "Springfield Farm," Rock Hall, has the finest herd ever assembled in Kent county. "Price," the typey herd boar, will weigh around 800 pounds.

Giants Win World's Series

The New York Giants won the fifth game in the World's Series Thursday which gave them the championship. The New York Yanks won three contests. The Giants won the series for several reasons, namely:

1st.—By playing more consistent baseball throughout the series, especially during the last three games.

2nd.—By batting better throughout the series generally.

3rd—By getting what are known as the breaks in baseball, which, to our mind, usually go to the team playing the best baseball.

4th.—Because Ruth, the Yanks' batting ace, was unable to give to the series the same brand of baseball that characterized his playing throughout the season, and being out of the series during the last three games altogether—thus not only weakening his team in the batting line but also detracting from the morale of the club generally.

As the teams faced each other during the games played, the Giants carried away the honors by greater speed and a stouter defense at critical times. They won even against pitching that carried them for 18 innings without a tally. They won through fine pitching on their own side of the wall and because the Yank defense was unable to stand the strain.

A close scrutiny of all the contests, through the daily press, shows that the Giants earned their triumph not so much by any slashing display of power upon attack, but by greater defensive steadiness under fire. They were more alert at the finish for any open chance. They seemed surer when steadiness was needed in the closing drive. Unable to earn runs in the two final days, they were at least alert enough to profit by the weakness of the opposition and quick enough to jump into the breach.

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.
