

THE RIGHT GRINDER

No matter for what kind of grinding you want to do we can supply you with the right grinder. If you prefer to grind your corn on the cob or shelled the TYPE "D" International will do the work. This grinder is equipped with revolving knives which cut up the cobs so that when the material reaches the grinding plates it is of just the right size to be readily pulverized into feed.

Why not drop in when you are in town and let us show you an International Grinder. We also sell the old reliable New Holland Mill.

Special prices on Engines.

Jones & Satterfield

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

STRAYER'S
BUSINESS COLLEGE

Charles and Fayette Streets, Baltimore, Md.

THE RECOGNIZED LEADER.

Latest and best methods in Shorthand, Typewriting, Book-keeping, etc., taught by degree teachers.
Day and Night Sessions the entire year. Enroll NOW.
Write, call or phone for complete information.
We have on file a list of desirable boarding places, and shall be glad to assist you in making a selection.

WHEAT

Wanted—large or small lots of good wheat.

ROSE BUD FLOUR

We can save you money by grinding your wheat.

DAIRY FEED

Cow Chow, Milkmaker, Hoges Best, Cotton Seed Meal. Boost the three months' average.

POULTRY FEED

Eggs are bringing a good price. We have the goods to make them.

P. M. BROOKS

Phone 81-J. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

CULP Lumber

A Good Stock of Building Material

We meet all competition.
We have the stock.
We have our own mill.
We have experience by years of building.

When You Need Advice About Building See Us.

W. S. & A. M. CULP

Phone 5. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Established 1877
J. E. HENDRICKSON & COMPANY

Live Stock Commission Merchants
30 & Race Sts., Philadelphia, Pa.
We handle Live Stock, and have all facilities for this line of trade. We solicit the patronage of shippers, and guarantee to make prompt returns. Give us a trial and be convinced.

AUCTIONEERING

I offer my services in auctioneering real estate and personalty in Kent and Queen Anne's counties.
J. WATERS RUSSELL,
j4-3months. Chestertown, Md.

—SUBSCRIPTION TO THE TRANSCRIPT IS $1.50 A YEAR.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—The coal carts have succeeded the ice wagon in Chestertown.

—Election day will be held Tuesday, November 8, just seventeen days off.

—A special meeting of Kennedyville Grange has been called for Monday night.

—The hunting season is about here. Trespass cards for sale at the Transcript office.

—Tax payments are slowing up. The town and county need money like the rest of us.

—Traveling men are plentiful in Kent county these days, with all kinds of wares for sale.

—Mr. Herbert Urie has been made cashier of the Rock Hall Branch of the Peoples Bank.

—The Chestertown tennis courts have been about completed and are as good as any in the state.

—Many beautiful cultivated and wild flowers adorn the yards and fields of Chestertown and Kent county.

—The Old Friends Meeting House in Easton was standing fifty years before George Washington was born.

—The sheriff and his deputies made a raid on some law-breakers on the Electric Light Wharf Saturday night.

—Mr. George Patrick has purchased the shop near the old depot, Chestertown, and will open a blacksmith shop there —Manager Russell is putting some good movies on these days at Lyceum Theatre and good crowds are attending.

—Capt. Wash Woodall has succeeded Capt. Taylor as captain of the B. S. Ford until the latter recovers his health.

—While quite a few new houses have been built in Chestertown during the past year, a number are still needed.

—The yield of sweet potatoes is about average this year. The white potato crop has not yet begun to be harvested.

—The Government and Citizen Class will meet at the High School on Monday at 7.30 p. m. This class is open to men and women.

—George R. Gaither, former attorney general of Maryland and candidate for governor at one time, died this week in Baltimore.

—Mr. Clarence Usilton has accepted the Eastern Shore agency for "instant heat." Watch this paper for announcement later.

—Saturday night trade was unusually lively in Chestertown. The town was crowded with autos and teams until a late hour.

—Francis Hynson, of Rock Hall, 16 years old, crossed the river at its mouth to Queenstown recently in a small boat built by himself.

—Mrs. Edward Ringgold had a night blooming cereus in bloom on Monday. The plant is 20 years old and has been in bloom three times this year.

—Mr. Carroll, of Waterbury, Conn., said to be the best basketball forward in New England, entered Washington College this week. He weighs around 175 pounds.

—Hadaway Brothers, the downtown butchers, have on exhibition two immense sweet potatoes, weighing about five pounds each. Mr. Knoll, of Queen Annes, grew them.

—Elbert E. Nickerson, of near Rock Hall, has sold to Charles Sacker, of Baltimore, his property consisting of seven and one-half acres and dwelling. Mr. Sacker will occupy the place.

—The Chestertown Electric Light Company has extended its lines and service as far as Radcliffe Mill and Mr. P. M. Brooks, the hustling proprietor, has installed lights in his big plant.

—Mr. J. Townsend Anthony has sold his farm in Quaker Neck to Mr. Sterns of Philadelphia for $7,200. This farm was sold through Mr. Stephen R. Collins, representative of the Strout Farm Agency.

—Seven applicants took the Civil Service examination for postmaster at Galena to succeed Mrs. M. B. Hadley, whose term has expired. Among the number was Mrs. Hadley, the incumbent.

—The Kent County Poultry Association was formed Monday night at a meeting in the Business Men's Rooms. Mr. Claude E. Truslow was made chairman of the association. A poultry show will be held next month.

—While cities and towns are wondering what to do with their armies of unemployed Maryland farms are operating at nearly normal capacity and providing employment for practically all available farm labor.

—Mr. William H. Krusen, the Still Pond undertaker, has sold his undertaking business to Mr. Benj. Fellows, of Matawan, N. J., and has taken a partnership in the wholesale firm of Wm. A. Harrington of Philadelphia.

—A meeting of the citizens of Chestertown is called for October 24, at 8 p. m., at Firemen's Hall to hear a representative of the White Truck Co. discuss the advantages of fire-fighting apparatus of the approved designs.

—Many migratory birds, moving southward over Chestertown, are making these fall days filled with music, as they seem to be stopping here for some time en route and vieing with each other in filling the air with their melody.

—During a football game at Washington College Saturday between two teams of the instituion, Mr. Howes, a well known student, had the misfortune to break a leg. He was taken to a hospital Monday for X-ray examination, etc.

—H. Sachs & Son, the progressive Chestertown firm, are advertising a big sale on page 3 of this issue. This firm is noted for big bargains during these sales and this time they are offering some rare chances to secure goods at reduced prices.

—Mrs. E. W. Corwin, of Queen Anne's, near Chestertown, is a candidate for House of Delegates on the Republican ticket. Mrs. Corwin will make an active candidate and a hard fight for the office. The Republicans have named a full ticket in Queen Anne's county.

—The case of a number of farmers in this county who borught suit against D. E. Foote & Co., tomato packers, of Baltimore City, for failure to fulfill contracts for purchase of their crops, was tried in Baltimore last week, the jury rendering a verdict in the separate case of Mr. Harry C. Willis, who sued for $5,000, for $2,500. It is believed that the other cases, involving about $37,500, will be compromised.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Sessions Were Interesting An The Largest Attendance Present in The History Of The Organization

The meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Protestant Episcopal Church, which was held in Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, on Wednesday and Thursday of this week, was the most largely attended in the history of the Auxiliary. With a few exceptions all the parishes of the Diocese were represented.

Bishop Gaylor, of Tennessee, was in attendance on Wednesday and preached Wednesday evening. Bishop Davenport was here both days. A large number of visitors were present from all parts of the Diocese and quite a number of the clergy were here. The program presented in last week's issue was carried out with the addition of able addresses by the Bishop of the Diocese and a number of the clergy. On Thursday a lunch was served. The zeal and enthusiasm shown by all present was most encouraging to those interested in the cause.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Other Personals on page 2

Mr. M. W. Thomas joined a party of friends this week at New Haven, who will motor through Conpecticut, Central Massachusetts and Eastern New York.

Mrs. Anthony Murray, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hope H. Barroll.

Mr. and Mrs. Wethered Barroll, of Baltimore, are being congratulated on the birth of a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Harris and Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck returned last week from a two weeks' auto trip, having visited Niagara and other points of interest.

Miss Ellen Fisher, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Mrs. A. A. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kibler have taken rooms at Mrs. Flemmings until their home on Water street is finished.

Mr. and Mrs. James Metcalf have rented the apartment in the Custom House formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kibler.

Mr. and Mrs. Leffingwell, formerly Miss Helen Urie, of New York, are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter.

No
19th d
Ella E.
Kent Cou judged Ba ing of his c
Law Office o
Chestertown,
day of Novembe
at which time t
bankrupt may at claims, appoint a Tr
examine said bankru
such other business a
come before said meeti
SIDNEY P. TOWNSH
Ches
N. B.—Creditors shoul prove their claims before Public and file same with the or have them ready to file at t
Meeting of Creditors.

THOMAS H. SKIPPER, Solicitor.

Notice Of

FIRST MEETING OF CREDITORS

In the District Court of the United States for the District of Maryland

In the Matter of John F. Coburn, Bankrupt.

Notice is hereby given that on the 19th day of October, 1921, the said John F. Coburn, of near Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, was duly adjudged Bankrupt and the First Meeting of her creditors will be held at the Law Office of Herbert E. Perkins, in Chestertown, Maryland, on the 5th day of November, 1921, at 11.45 a. m., at which time the creditors of said bankrupt may attend, prove their claims, appoint a Trustee or Trustees, examine said bankrupt and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

SIDNEY P. TOWNSHEND, Referee,
Chestertown, Md.

N. B.—Creditors should at once prove their claims before a Notary Public and file same with the Referee or have them ready to file at the First Meeting of Creditors.

For
For
For F
ter Ja naught (o
Supt. April
tion of 10,000
for 10,000 gallo
if you use mor
rates mentioned
Should Mr. A u
July 1 any quan
the bill will re
the minimum which would $3.00. Expen
any family
use a mete
There is bu and that is fixtures. Talk
o8-3t. Chester

TODAY'S STYLE---PRE-W
QUALITY---LOW

ALL WOOL Overcoats and Suits

THAT KEEP YOU LOOKING YOUR BEST

You know that all wool of any pre-war quality is still scarce. We have it here in suits and overcoats.

These are Collegians—with a reputation for quality that dates back over seventy years.

The styles are the smartest, most authentic today produced by any of America's foremost designers.

$19, $20, $22
$25, $30, $35

They keep you looking your best. The prices are the lowest such good clothes can be old for.

We are out to win your confidence and make you a permanent customer on the strenght of these values. Come in and see them.

Vansant & Newsome

Progressive Head-to-Foot Outfitters for Men and Boys
CHESTERTOWN, MD.

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8221-0802