CHESTERTOWN PROOF

Should Convince Every Chestertown Reader

The frank statement of a neighbor, telling the merits of a remedy,
Bids you pause and believe.
The same endorsement
By some stranger far away
Commands no belief at all.
Here's a Chestertown case. Ask your neighbor.

A Chestertown citizen testifies.
Read and be convinced.

Enoch Pleasanton, W. High st., says: "I was in a bad condition with kidney complaint and my back gave out and ached so I couldn't get around. There was no let up to the constant aching and every move I made caused me to suffer. My kidneys were disordered and very irregular in action. Doan's Kidney Pills soon brought relief from the distressing ailments. My back is now well and strong and my kidneys don't trouble me. I give the credit to Doan's and advise anyone having kidney trouble to try them.

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Pleasanton had. Foster-Milburn

WEDDINGS

A quiet, pretty wedding took place last Saturday evening, Oct. 15, at Pomona parsonage, Pastor Lindale officiating. The contracting parties were Mrs. Marguerite White Harris, of Chestertown, and Mr. Elmer Lee Joiner, of Lynch Station. After the ceremony all the above-named proceeded to Mowbray's Chapel Festival, the bride and groom returning later to Cehstertown.

Miss Helen Goodwin Joynes, daughter of Prof. George Goodwin Joynes, of Accomac county, Virginia, was married Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock to Dr. William Houston Toulson, of Baltimore, formerly of Chestertown. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H.P. McCormick, pastor of North Avenue Baptist Church, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Samuel Benjamin Hance, 2330 Eutaw Place, Baltimore. Mrs. A. M. Shipley and Miss Blanche M. Joynes, sisters of the bride, were matron of honor and maid of honor, respectively. Dr. Frank S. Lynn was best mann. A reception was given. Doctor and Mrs. Toulson will live at 2306 Eutaw Place after November 15. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Toulson, parents of the groom, and sisters, Misses Hallie and Mabel Toulson, were present.

St. Michaels R. C. Church was the scene of a double wedding September 29. The principals were John McKenney and Elizabeth Schauber and Arthur Coleman and Bernice Schauber. The ceremony was performed by Father Edward Cunnie. The eldest couple were married first while the other two acted as witnesses. Mrs. McKenney and Mrs. Coleman are resident of near Chestertown, being the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Schauber. They will reside in Chester, Pa.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wolfe, 2500 Boulevard, Wilmington, when Beulah Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stevens, of the Millington-Sudlersville community and Mr. Albert Ripka were married by the Rev. George C. Williams, pastor of McCabe Memorial Church, Wilmington.

Kent Co. S. S. Convention Next Week

The Kent County Sunday School Convention will meet in Kennedyville M. P. Church Thursday next, Oct. 27. The following speakers will be present and make addresses:

Abner B. Brown, General Secretary, is a graduate of Potsdam Normal School and Cornell University. Mr. Brown has been ten years a county S. S. President, General Secretary of Florida S. S. Association one winter, four years attorney of the Anti-Saloon League of New York and President of the New York State S. S. Association.

Rev. Maurice R. Hamm, Assoc. Gen. Sec., took high rank in Colgate University, from which he graduated. Mr. Hamm has had experience as a pastor, a County S. S. President, was a member of the staff of the Anti-Saloon League of New York for three years and came to Maryland Feb. 1, 1921.

Col. Jos. H. Cudlipp, Supt. Young Peoples, is a graduate of the West Chester, Pa., High School, the Philadelphia Academy and the Reformed Episcopal Seminary. Judging from the length of his pastorates, Col. Cudlipp has been a success in that field, as he organized the Atonement Church at Lancaster and remained its pastor 9 years.

Miss Bertha Keiningham, Supt. Teacher Training, is a graduate of the Bible Teachers' Training School, of New York City, and has taken work in Hopkins. Launched the Community Bible Classes of Baltimore, Md., for Dr. Howard Kelley, which have grown from an attendance of four to an attendance of 1200 and from one teacher to four teachers.

Miss Lillian E. McCormick, Supt. Children's Division, has long been a valued member and worker of Gatch Memorial M. E. Church and school, Her father, Thos. A. McCormick, is treasurer of the Northeast District of Baltimore. Miss McCormick has been county superintendent of Children's Division work of Baltimore county, assistant to Miss Maggie E. Wilson, a former State Supt. of Children's Division work and has completed two years' work at Boston University in her chosen department.

Count Ilya Tolstoy To Lecture At W.C.

President Gould announces that Count Ilya Tolstoy, who tendered his services some weeks ago to the Committee for Relief of Russian American Youth and Destitute in America, and is now making a tour of the states at the invitations of Women's Club, Colleges, etc., for the purpose of giving free lectures as to conditions in Russia, will lecture in the Auditorium, William Smith Hall, Wednesday, Oct. 26, at 8 p. m.

Count Tolstoy is well qualified to speak on Russian affairs, and it is confidently expected that the lecture on this occasion will be interesting and instructive, full of information, calculated to give us a better understanding of present Russian conditions.

No admission fee will be charged, but a collection will be taken and the funds collected will be donated to the Relief Work of the Russian American Committee, with headquarters at 350 W. 87th St., New York City.

Germany Schultz, Pudge Heffelfinger and Truxton Hare would be considered the three greatest of all time at center and the guards. But locating the two greatest tackles has the experts covering a wide range and shooting in a number of varied directions. Henry of W. and J., Hillebrand, of Princeton, Hogan, of Yale, Curtis, of Michigan, Cutts, of Harvard, are all among the many mentioned, but their superior talent is not outstanding. Great tackles have been fairly abundant, but Heffelfingers have been extremely scarce. And yet tackle play is supposed to lurk beneath a wider spotlight than guard or center.

The Chestertown High School football team, under the direction of Coach Atwater, has developed into a strong aggregation. On Friday afternoon last they journeyed to Smyrna and defeated the High School team of that town by the score of 27 to 7. They were playing Cambridge yesterday here as we went to press.

The football "dope" was spilled on Saturday and, in fact, scattered to the four winds of heaven. At Annapolis St. John's mastered the State eleven and the Navy humbled Princeton. Those who saw the contests are unanimous in saying that both victorious teams earned their victories.

The Penn State-Harvard game today is attracting the attention of football fans of the country. It looks to us like Penn State has a fine chance to lower the colors of the Crimson team, although Harvard is seldom caught off her guard these days.

The world's series netted Uncle Sam a handsome profit, but not so much as the Dempsey-Carpentier boxing bout. Frank K. Bowers, Collector of Internal Revenue, has announced that the tax collected on the eight world's series games amounted to $90,-023. The fight brought in $158,994.77 in taxes. Twelve field inspectors of the Revenue Department kept tally on the attendance at the ball games and checked off the sales of tickets with the baseball managements.

Washington College has a real chance to defeat the demoralized University of Delaware College team on October 29. The University of Delaware football team played three games without making a score and the opinion of many is that unless conditions change materially or some easy team is played the prospects of a successful season are slight. The fault is not placed on Derby, the new coach. He encountered a condition, it is claimed by many alumnus, which no coach could overcome in one season. There has evidently been outside influence which has made it hard for him to maintain discipline on the team. This state of affairs is blamed on many and various causes. On top of his other troubles the coach is now faced with the handicap of losing one his best men because of studies—Magaw—said to be the best end on the team.

Zybszko, holder of the championship of the world wrestling crown, has done the unusual thing, i. e., turned challenger and urged his competitors to take a whirl at the title. He believes himself unbeatable and does not hesitate to say so. The career of Zbyszko, champion of the world at the age of 42, is unparalleled in sport history.

Under the heading, "Facing Morning," Grantland Rice pens these beautiful lines:

Face to the golden morning,
Look to the rising sun;
For the night is black and the twilight track
Is dark where the shadows run;
Face to the highway leading
On to the dawn and dew.
Back from the night to the morning's light
Where the white of the world breaks through.

Face to the silver morning,
We've turned to the night too long;
There's light on the hill and a hurt to kill
With the turn of a morning sun;
Face to the highway leading
On to the dawn and dew;
Back from the dark to the song of the lark
Where the white of the world breaks through.
