IN MEMORIAM

SKINNER — In loving memory of my husband JOHN SKINNER, JR. who passed away February 24, 1970:
What would I give his hand to clasp
His patient face to see
To hear his voice, to see his smile,
As in days that used to be.
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife
And clasp each other's hand once more,
In Heaven, that happy life.
Loving Wife,
LOUISE SKINNER

SMITH — In loving memory of my dear son, our father and brother, WALTER L., who passed away February 26, 1975:

She is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
She has wandered into an unknown land,

It needs must be since she lingers there.
And you . . . O you, the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return . .
Think of her faring on, as dear .
In the love of There as the love of Here;
Think of her still as the same, we say;
She is not dead . . . she is just away!
