degree, Julia is a equal opportunity specialist for the Department of State Planings. As winner of the club level contest, Julia will represent her club at the council level.

The fourth and last contestant to compete was SSA's Margaret Blue, a fantastic woman who is a wife, mother, grandmother and Sgt. First Class in the Army Reserve Corps.

She was the first woman to graduate from the U.S. Army transportation school. Margaret holds a license in Marine Engineering. Her speech topic was "Should Blacks Celebrate the Bicentennial.

Mrs. Verna Day, International Toastmistress contest winner, who recently lost her husband, the Rev. John Day, put aside personal grief and arrived at the contest to show her support and concern for her club members.

Scattered throughout the room were representatives from other toastmistress and toastmaster clubs in the Baltimore Area.

Table companions at the event held at the Holiday Inn were: Mrs Helen Moore, Evelyn Revels, Joan Coursey, Marty Purvear, Dorothy Brown and James Best. The closing thought was given by Jennie Knox.

Mrs. Bernadette Smith is president of the Woodlawn Toastmistress Club; Mrs. Gwendolyn Moore is Council No. 1 president. How could anyone deny this fantastic group anything??? "Whomsoever will, Let him come." "Practice, speaks the intelligence of understanding." God is for real, man!

END OF PROMO — Roland Rogers was among the last of those persons to receive a free package of Long Johns cigarettes, a new American Tobacco Co. brand. For the past 13 weeks, American Tobacco and the AFRO have passed out some 1,300 complimentary packs to Baltimore smokers. Numerous organizations took advantage of the offer by having Long Johns at their affairs. The new 120 mm brand is now on sale at your favorite tobacco counter.

suits. Charles Wells made his own suit. If you folks want to find out about all kinds of talent - whatever it may be - come to Catonsville.

The guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Reginald Boston, the Rev. and Mrs. Monroe Simms, the Rev. and Mrs. Gentry McDonald, and Rev. Sister Theronia Collins, associate pastor at Morning Star.

In an earlier issue I gave the history of the Chorales but there are a few notes that I recently picked up:

The group has grown from 7 members to its present membership of 35. A former member, Ruth Ragler, is deceased.

The first leader of the Chorale was Yvonne Staples James, who is now living in Pensacola, Fla.

The group continued to grow under the leaderships of presidents, Shirley Sewell and Shirley Smith. Lil Hawkins was chair-person for the dinner and Lillian Marner and Cassandra McDonald were honorary co-chairpersons.

I cannot let another week go by without writing about that hard working gal, Lil Hawkins. She has been a member of Morning Star for over 25 years and has spent most of her life here in Catonsville.

A graduate of Coppin State College, where she received her B.A. and M.A. in education, she is currently a sixth grade teacher at Irvington Elementary School.

The former Lillian Rideout, she has been married to Robert Hawkins for over 22 years. They are the proud parents of two boys: Franklin, 16; and Drew, 7.

The entire Hawkins family is very involved in civic and church activities. Lil is a talented musician who has served as organist for the senior choir since its inception. This "gal" is also one of the church's most successful fund raisers.

Combining her love for travel and her desire to aid the church financially, in the summer of 1974, she organized a trip to Disney World which raised $700 for the church.

"Family and church members have inspired me to a life of service to others that is given without expectation of recognition or monetary gain," says Lil.

May God grant this wonderful person continued good health and strength to pursue her life of service. The Catonsville Community salutes you, Lillian Rideout Hawkins.

Crescent Lodge No. 355 Elks of Catonsville held its annual fellowship dinner recently at the Elks Club.

Among the guests were the District Deputy, Brother Elmer Handy, and the Tri-State Convention Director and his wife, Brother David Shockley and Mrs. Shockley.

The dinner was prepared by Brothers James Hall and Raymond Johnson.

Also among the guests was Mrs. Amy Warden, the Auxillary Tri-State president.

Congratulations to Idell Pugh and her Founders Day Committee for the "Sisterly Yours" luncheon at Blue Crest North when Epsilon Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority celebrated its 68th birthday. It was truly a beautiful affair, so hold on and I'll tell you more about it next week.

Congratulattons also to Vernice Reynolds and her committee for the beautiful dinner dance that the We Wives Club held as a part of theirir 35th anniversary celebration.

This affair was so great that I cannot find words to describe it. Bobby Felder really did his "own thing" by playing all the tunes that were familiar to our generation.

Funeral services were held Thursday at St. Mark Catholic Church for Cornelius Simpson, a member of the Catonsville Golden Age Group. Until his illness, he was employed at St. Mark Church.

Sympathy cards to Lucille Monroe, whose husband, (Samuel), was buried last week.

Get well cards to Joe (Elizabeth) Barnes who is in the Veterans Hospital, Loch Raven Blvd. He is a member of American Legion Post No. 253.

During the Holy Season of Lent I will share some thoughts with you that have been taken from "Everyman's Way Of The Cross" by Clarence Enzler.

Continue to send me news whether it be by phone or by mail. Continue to remember the sick and the shut-in wherever they may be.

The Art of Happiness

You can't pursue happiness and catch it. Happiness comes upon you unawares while you are helping others.

Happiness is like perfume—you can't spray it on others without getting some on yourself.

Happiness is like perpend upon a full pocketbook, but upon a a mind full or rich thoughts and a heart fulp of rich emotions.

Excerpts from The Art Of Happiness—Wilfered A. Peterson (Golden Thoughts Ambassador Cards

Raspberry Cream Charlotte

(8 to 10 servings)
- 8 slices enriched day-old bread
- ½ cup butter, melted
- 1 envelope (1 tbsp.) unflavored gelatin
- 3 package (6 oz.) vanilla pudding and pie filling (not instant)
- 4 packages (3 oz. each) cream cheese, softened
- 1 package (10 oz.) frozen raspberries, thawed
- 1 cup boiling water
- 1 package (3 oz.) raspberry flavor gelatin

Trim crusts from bread. Cut each slice in half; dip in melted butter. Stand strips around edge of 9-inch spring form pan, fitting strips very tightly together. Trim bread to fit evenly around top edge. Toast in preheated 400 degree oven 15 minutes. Cool.

Stir together unflavored gelatin and pudding mix; prepare and cook according to pudding mix instructions. Chill. Beat in softened cream cheese. Pour into bread-lined pan. Cover and return to refrigerator. Drain raspberries, reserving juice.

Add 1 cup boiling water to raspberry gelatin, stirring until dissolved. Add reserved juice; chill until mixture slightly mounds when dripped from spoon. Place raspberries on top of pudding. Spoon thickened raspberry gelatin on top.

Chill until firm, about 2 hours.

Food clips

Milk is one of the oldest foods known to man. The world's earliest records, found in the Sanscrit of ancient India, date back 6,000 years, but milk had already become an important food. There are more than 50 references to milk in the Old Testament.

One cup of plain yogurt, fork blended with 1½ teaspoons of ranch dressing mix for salads and 2 tablespoons of grated Parmesan cheese makes a delightful accompaniment for green salads.

As a dressing it has fewer calories than most others since yogurt contains about nine (calories) per tablespoon as compared with commercial low-calorie dressings that contain from 16 to 25.

Fish fillets (1 pound) of perch, haddock or turbot are delicious when baked with an easy, flavorful sauce. Thaw and drain frozen fillets and arrange in a single layer in a 2-quart buttered, shallow baking dish.

Combine and heat two-thirds cup condensed cream of celery soup and ¾ cup dairy sour cream. Add ¾ cup (3 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese and heat over low heat, stirring constantly, until cheese melts.

Spread over fillets and bake in a preheated 370 degree F. oven 20 to 25 minutes or until fish flakes. Sprinkle with ¼ cup (1 oz.) more Cheddar cheese and return to the oven for 5 minutes more.

This will delight four people!
