SPORTING NOTES

WASHINGTON COLLEGE TO PLAY GEO. WASH. UNIV. HERE TODAY—DELAWARE DEFEATS WASHINGTON — HIGH SCHOOL VICTORIOUS

State football games for today are as follows:

Washington College vs. Geo. Washington University, at Chestertown.

University of Maryland vs. Yale, at New Haven.

Johns Hopkins vs. Haverford, at Baltimore.

Western Maryland vs. Delaware, at Newark, Del.

St. John's College vs. Gallaudet, at Annapolis.

United States Naval Academy vs. Bucknell, at Annapolis.

Mt. St. Mary's vs. Davis and Elkins, at Emmitsburg.

Harvard vs. Princeton, at Princeton, N. J., will be the classic of the day in big football circles.

Snow Hill has been eliminated from the Eastern Shore League.

The great players at football for all time have been: Ends: Shevlin and Hinkey, Yale; Hardwick, Harvard; Campbell, Harvard; Snow, Michigan; Kirkpatrick, Yale. Backs: Thorpe, Carlisle; Mahan, Harvard; Brickley, Harvard; Heston, Michigan; Eckersall, Chicago; Coy, Yale. Linesmen: Schulz, Michigan; Heffelfinger, Yale; Hare, Pennsylvania; Cowan, Princeton; Cutts, Harvard. Stevenson, of Pennsylvania; Eckersall, Chicago; and Daly, of West Point, have been perhaps the best quarters.

The big event in local football circles today will be: Washington College vs. George Washington University, at Chestertown. The game will start at 2.30. George Washington will bring a strong aggregation here that will greatly outweigh Washington College and should be the winners by a somewhat large margin.

Washington College lost to the University of Delaware Saturday afternoon by a score of 47 to 0. A large crowd of local rooters were on hand.

Delaware, from the kickoff, had the edge on Washington, and there was never any stage of the game where Washington even had a chance of scoring. The visitors scored but three first downs during the entire game and two of those were the result of penalties imposed on Delaware for holding and off-side plays. Crowe, in the third quarter, made a 30-yard run, which was the only first down earned by Washington.

Delaware fairly run wild with the numerous plays that were pulled off. The Blue and Gold always had something in reserve, and when a line plunge failed they would come back with an end run, and, if that failed, a forward pass, and few times did Delaware fail to make their first down. The few exceptions were when Delaware was penalized either for holding or offside plays. Delaware's line was especially strong and the visitors could not get through.

Washington's line-up was as follows: ...son, l. e.; Stringer, l. t.; ...John..., l. g.; Clark, c.; Keenan, r. g.; Bischoff, l. g.; R...woll, r. e.; Russell, Steinger, r. t.; Ca... Bounds, r. h.; q. b.; Bankard, l. h.; ... Crowe, f. b.

The ducking ... 10, 12, 10, 1... Wednesday in Kent ...on openes ...e entire state of Maryland, and th... ...son for killing rabbits and qua... ...s squirrels will begin Nov. 10. Thi... ...s to be a banner season for the American hunter. Game of the sort usually hunted is more plentiful, generally speaking, than it has been for many years. In some localities there are more ducks and geese than the oldest inhabitant ever saw before. East of the Mississippi River migratory birds are making their southern flight in unprecedented numbers. The quail, or bob white, is present also in numbers not equalled for years. And the deer is not so scarce, apparently, as it used to be. All told, the 5,000,000 hunters who will carry a gun into the field or to lake or river between now and New Year's are apt to find the happiest hunting grounds of many years, according to reports to the Biological Survey, United States Department of Agriculture, from United Staes game wardens stationed from Maine to Florida and from the Atlantic to the Mississippi. The Department recently sent a letter of inquiry to each warden and draws its conclusions from these replies.

Center College, a little intsitution of about 300 pupils, upset the football dope again Saturday and won from Harvard 6 to 0.

The Navy-Penn State game on Nov. 12 will present some real thrills. Both teams are confident of winning and it is about an even bet on the outcome. The team that can defeat the Navy this year will have to go some. When you consider that they have seven fast, hard running backs upon one roster, supported by a strong, hard-charging line, you get some idea of the Navy's attack. Then look at the wonderful Penn State team, with a wonderful array of talent that will make the Navy extend itself to win. The game should be well worth seeing.

—Chauncey Wilson, indicted for the murder of Gonzie Manuel, in the town of Stockton, on the 9th of last July, was found guilty of murder in the second degree and given 10 years in the Maryland Penintentiary. The murder was the result of a crap game.

There was no let up to the constant aching and every move I made caused me to suffer. My kidneys were disordered and very irregular in action.
