AFRO Bridal Register

Mrs. Tina Brown has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Ann Brown to Allen T. Jones, son of Mrs. Sarah Jones.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Carver Vocational Technical High School where she was active in cheerleading, gymnastics and dressmaking. In addition, Miss Brown was "Miss Carver, 1975-76" and Miss Prem Queen 1975.

The bridegroom-elect is also a product of Carver. He is presently serving in the Marines and is stationed in Camp Lejuene, N.C.

A May wedding is planned.

Mason-Simms

Mr. and Mrs. Granville E. Simms have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Cynthia L. Simms to Charles L. Mason Jr.

The marriage was performed by the Rev. J. Lloyd Garrison on Feb. 14 at the John Wesley United Methodist Church. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Mrs. Victoria Carter, matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Ceryse Mason, Miss Sandra Mason, Mrs. Paula Blue, Miss Sandra Logan, Miss Michele Parrish, Michele, Vera and Sherelle Alexander were the flower girls.

Mr. Mason's attendants were Wilbert Lomax, best man; Kevin Mason, Charles Duppins, Milton McRoy, William Burton and William Bridges, ushers.

For her wedding, the bride wore a hooded gown of satin crepe with a matching full length cape. She carried white orchids and roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Wakefield Clubhouse. Guests were present from Virginia, Washington, D.C., New Jersey and South Carolina.

The new Mrs. Mason is a product of Eastern High School and the Community College of Baltimore. She has served in the U.S. Army Reserves since May, 1974.

Mr. Mason is a graduate of Douglass High School. He is a Vietnam veteran and also serves in the Army Reserves.

Homa Perry and wife, Julia are new parents. It's a baby girl born March 30. Is it true that Johnnie and Helen McKey have new twin girls? Let's hear something folks.

Catonsville Notes

... by Liz Williams

Continue to send "get well" cards to Marie Johnson (Ernest) who is at home and to Hannah Lindsay (Vernett) at North Charles Street General Hospital where she is doing nicely.

Send sympathy cards to the family of Hugh Taylor (Estelle). Mr. Taylor is the father of Paul Taylor, Marida Mae Savage, Ruth Wilson (Ellsworth), Marion Holmes, David, Robert, Kenneth and Joseph Taylor.

Also sympathy cards to John Boston (Charlotte) who recently buried his sister (Adele Johnson) of New York City. She was also a sister of Edna Freeman of Catonsville.

Cleaver Poag is back in our community after a recent car accident. "Thank God" things were not any worse and that she is on the mend. Let us give this fine lady and teacher a visitor a call on the phone.

Usher Board No. 2 did it again at the Grace AME Church. Last Sunday, they presented The Mass Choir of Israel Baptist Church, located at Preston and Chester St.

The choir was organized in February, 1973, by Harold K. Kennedy, deputy executive director, Baltimore Urban League. His purpose was to accomplish unity, harmony and love among the singing groups and members of all ages witmin the church family.

The choir consists of 102 voices from Senior Choirs I and II, the Male Chorus, the "Youth Choir," the "Jubilee Chorus," and members from the church congregation. The members of the No. 2 Usher Board are: Anita Maybin, president; Ella Mae Webb, vice president; Geneva Webb, secretary; Delores Lynch, treasurer; Marian Banks, financial secretary,
