THE TRANSCRIPT

ALL who can should attend the Kent County Exhibit and Poultry Show, to be held at Washington College Nov. 17, 18 and 19. The parties who arranged the exhibit have gone to much expense and trouble and deserve the fullest encouragement of the people of this community.

MRS. EDWIN W. CORWIN, who was a candidate on the Republican ticket in Queen Annes county, led her ticket by 240 votes. She carried the 7th and 5th Districts over her Democratic opponent by a small majority, but was defeated in the county by 776 votes.

WHAT TUESDAY'S ELECTION SHOWS

The result of the election on Tuesday shows that Kent county is normally a Democratic county and that the state of Maryland is normally a Democratic state. With the Democratic forces united Kent County can always be depended upon for Democratic rule. If our party will select, or will permit the people to select, candidates suitable and capable to fill the offices to which they aspire, there will be no doubt about their election. This was fully demonstrated on Tuesday. Some of the Democratic candidates were loath to permit their names to be placed before the voters, because they were not anxious for the office, but responded to the wishes of their friends after much persuasion. Let the future making of tickets be governed by this year and the result will be plain. That the voters of this county and state preferred the Democratic issues to the Republican issues cannot be doubted—the result speaks for itself. It is to be hoped, and we believe the promises made in the Democratic platform will be carried out and that the people will be fairly dealt with.

WEDDINGS

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Tucker announce the engagement of Hilda Reese Smith to Corporal Gordon N. Burns, of Quantico, Va. The wedding will take place in the near future at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker.

The wedding of Miss Marguerite Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Howard, of Chestertown, to Mr. Richard Samson, of Berkeley, W. Va., was solemnized in Christ M. P. Church Wednesday at high noon. The ceremony, which was simple but beautiful, was performed by the Rev. N. O. Gibson. The bride, attired in a brown traveling suit and carrying yellow chrysanthemums, was attended by her sister, Mrs. C. Kent Lambert, as matron of honor, who wore grey crepe de chine and carried scarlet dahlias. Mr. Chas. F. Wheatley was the groom's best man and Messrs. Jos. N. Wheatley and David B. McMenamin were ushers. Miss Clara Usilton rendered the bridal march. After a short tour the young couple will reside in Berkley, W. Va.

Miss Eulah J. Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kelley, of near town, and Mr. William J. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Smith, of Chestertown, were quietly married in Emmanuel P. E. Church on Saturday evening last at 7 o'clock by Rev. C. L. Atwater. The happy couple will reside in Chestertown.

Mrs. Walker, who was Miss Marguerite Ellen Ahern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. P. Ahern, of Millington, was married Wednesday at Sts. Philip and James' Catholic Church by the Rev. Hugh J. Monaghan. Her husband, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Walker, of North Calvert street, volunteered for service at the outbreak of the war. He was the first Baltimore marine to be reurned home after the battle of Chateau-Thierry, in which he was wounded.

DEATHS

Mrs. A. M. Startt, a resident of Worton Station for the last 38 years, died at Cambridge State Hospital on Monday, Nov. 7. She was removed to Undertaker Fellows' chapel at Still Pond, where the funeral services were held by Rev. S. S. Hepburn on Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m. Beautiful floral tributes were received. Interment in Still Pond cemetery. She is survived by three nieces and one nephew. The pall bearers were Perry Rasin, Roby Rasin, Harry Williams, George Cooper, W. M. Hadaway. Undertaker Fellows.

Mrs. Mary E. Smith, widow of the late S. Franklin Smith, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ollie Estes, on Kent Circle, Chestertown, Sunday evening about 7 o'clock from the infirmities of age. Mrs. Smith had just eaten a hearty supper and seemed to be feeling better. Her daughter left the bedroom to go down stairs for a short time, and when she returned she found her mother dead. Mrs. Smith was 83 years old. She is survived by the following children: Charles S. Smith, Mrs. W. C. Morningstar, of New York, Mrs. Hallie Kelley, Baltimore; Owen C. Smith, Mrs. Ollie Estes, Dr. Frank W. Smith. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p. m., services conducted by the Rev. N. O. Gibson; interment in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were: Franklin Smith, Spencer Smith, Owen C. Smith, Dr. Frank W. Smith, Ollie T. Estes. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mrs. Luella B. Rasin, wife of Mr. Merritt Rasin, of Balto., died on Monday, after a short illness aged 31 years. Mr. Rasin was formerly from Kent and is the brother of Clerk of the Court A. Parks Rasin, who attended the funeral, which was held on Thursday in Baltimore.

DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE!

State and County Goes Overwhelmingly Democratic

Gordy Elected Comptroller by Over 24,000 Majority

STATE SENATE WILL HAVE 21 DEMOCRATIC SENATORS TO 6 REPUBLICANS

House of Delegates Has a Democratic Majority of 46

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY ONCE MORE IN FULL CONTROL OF MARYLAND

Kent county has returned to her Democratic moorings, after six years of partial Republican control, with the largest Democratic majority in recent history of the party. The women deserve much credit for the splendid result; without their vote the mejorities would, of course, have been much less. They were well organized and carried out their program most thoroughly. The Democrats presented to the voters good men and they accepted them. The personnel of the Republicans was also good, but the vote clearly shows that Kent county is Democratic under normal conditions. The following is the official tabulated result of the vote:

The state-wide Democra[illegible] was a pleasant surprise, even to the best informed Democrats. In many Republican strongholds the Democrats won part of their ticket, while in others they made remarkable gains over their usual vote. Harford county will have one woman representative, Miss Mary E. W. Ristean, who will have the honor of being the first woman representative in the Maryland Legislature. Two years from now we expect to see many women members of our legislature and occupying other public offices. There is nothing to prevent Gov. Ritchie from putting through his progressive program, because the voters of the state on Tuesday placed the power in his hands. They heartily responded to his request for a Democratic legislature, and accepted the Democratic platform in full.
