Armis... Day Celebrated

The American Legion of Kent Co. celebrated Armistice Day yesterday in a most appropriate and fitting manner.

A parade was held, which had for its line of ma... from the Chester River steamboa... art to Washington College, wh... the Legion and the students were addressed by Congressman Goldsborough. Dr. Gould, the president of the college, also made appropriate speeches for the occasion. It was quite an imposing spectacle to see the long line, which started at 10.30 a. m., led by the American Legion, and followed by the Washington College students and the children of the High and Elementary schools, with their teachers, maching along the street, decked with flags, while the flag which floated from the pole on the square was flying at half mast in memory of those who had once been with them, but had given their lives for their country.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

(Other personals on page 1)

Mr. A. W. Carmine, of Philadelphia, is the guest of friends in this section.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Howard Strong is ill with fever at his residence on Washington avenue.

Mrs. Ben Houston and little son, of Wilmington, have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines on Water street.

Mrs. Henry Clay Brown and Miss Isabelle Perry are enjoying a motor trip through West Virginia.

Dr. John Wethered has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hope H. Barroll.

Mr. Allan Harris and wife are visiting friends in Wilmington.

Mr. Charles Ford is quite sick with chills and fever.

Bargain Days

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be bargain days in Chestertown. The merchants will give bargains on the articles advertised on page 3 in this issue; each store will have two to three articles at greatly reduced prices. This is a new venture on the part of our merchants and should meet with the encouragement it deserves. Everybody come. You will find bargains galore. Read what the merchants are offering on page 3. You will find many useful things there that you need. This is a great sacrifice on the part of the Chestertown merchants and one that should be appreciated.
