Wayne L. Dorsey, control clerk in the Dickinson Building is also deserving of congratulations. He has been awarded the Associate Commissioners Citation for his outstanding work performances.

SSA's Spanish Speaking Program sponsored a three-day Quadri-Regional Seminar this past week at the Downtown Lord Baltimore Hotel. Participants were from the Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Atlanta Regions.

The seminar was held to emphasize SSA's commitment to the Spanish Speaking Community. Father Antonio Stevens-Arroyo, from New York City was the keynote speaker on Tuesday morning.

Wednesday afternoon's lunchtime speaker was Gilberto Chavez, National President of "Image," the largest Spanish speaking organization in the United States. James B. Cardwell, Commissioner of Social Security, extended the welcome to participants from central headquarters, Civil Service Commission and Health, Education and Welfare offices.
