Girl Scout volunteers cited at banquet

● Evening of love

Some 35 volunteers were cited at a recognition dinner dance July 10 sponsored by the Girl Scouts of Central Maryland. Those honored for their hours of service to girls through Girl Scouting were from the west and northwest areas of the city.

Four top awards were presented to Tondaleon Milburn, Dorothy King, Mary McCargo and Christine Blake who had the highest number of recorded hours of services. Recording hours of service is a new venture for Girl Scout adults in this area.

The program was part of a pilot project in which volunteers in a limited area of the city keep a monthly account of time given to Girl Scouting either in direct service to girls or in administrative positions.

Others cited included, Yvonne Archer, Kim Bailey, Constance Berry, Christine Blake, Madelyne Blunt, Hortense Brittingham, Bernice Brown, Shirley Cooper; Jannette Dates, mistress of ceremonies; Mary Davis, guest speaker and Baltimore City Public Schools teacher; Cynthia Douglass, Joan Faulcon, Ann Foelds, Shirley Griffin;

Myra Hill, Burnisher Johnson, Marian Johnson, Towanda Jones, Dorothy King, Iris Lee, Eliza M. Lloyd, Marcia Martin, Evelyn MaCallum, Mary V. McCargo, Phyllis Moore, Martha Murrill, Macy Perry, Joan Randall, Jacqueline Richardson, Jean Smith, Willie H. Smith, Mary E. Taylor, Deborah Watts and Sharon Wheeler.

The program was highlighted with a song, sung by Robin Montgomery. Scout which she dedicated to the volunteers, and a presentation to Michael Johnson, Girl Scout administrator, by Victor Dates and dancing music was provided by "The Three of Us."

Some different ways to prepare succulent fish dishes

AN UNCOMPLICATED but impressive dinner to serve family and guests is Authentic Shrimp Gumbo, combining convenient fresh-frozen okra with shrimp and seasonings.

Great Gumbo! it's easy yet impressively elegant

Mention "Gumbo" to most folks and the reaction's likely to be "New Orleans" or "Southern specialty."

Actually, gumbo originated in Africa where it was a kind of fish stew. And African dish called "Caruru" with shrimp, okra, onions, "greens," dried malagueta pepper and salt, was the model for the shrimp gumbos that became the popular southern dish.

And it is the basis for our delicious Authentic Shrimp Gumbo. The original was much hotter, however, so if you prefer fiery foods, keep adding red pepper.

If you have avoided preparing gumbo because it sounds complicated, this recipe may change your mind. Authentic Shrimp Gumbo has three virtues — it is easy to prepare, cooks in one pot in 45 minutes, and taste experience has proved it to be a family and guest favorite.

One of the primary ingredients for great gumbo is okra. Once hard to find in most parts tof the country, Okra is now available everywhere fresh-frozen. A good source of Vitamins A and C, it "beefsup" the nutritional value of this tasty dinner.

For a change of texture, serve the gumbo with a crisp, flat Eastern bread, toased. Pita is particularly good. A light spread of cottage cheese makes a refreshing shift from butter. Add a variety of luscious summer fruits for dessert.

Authentic Shrimp Gumbo

1 16-oz. polybag of frozen cut okra
3 large onions, sliced
2 cloves garlic, chopped
½ pound dry hot sausage, diced or sliced
2 tablespoons bacon fat or butter
1 bay leaf
Salt and pepper to taste
½ teaspoon crushed red pepper (or more to taste)
1 can (-lb.) stewed tomatoes
1 can (8-oz.) tomato sauce
2 cups water
2 pounds cleaned raw shrimp

Combine all ingredients except shrimp. Simmer 30 minutes over low heat. Add shrimp. Simmer an additional 15 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

STUFFED FISH fillets in a tangy olive sauce are a Spanish style dish with an American flavor.

Spanish Fish Fillets, Olive Fish Chowder

Many homemakers prepare fish the usual "floured and fried" way. If you fall into that category, consider these delicious fish dishes that provide nutritional balance as well as mealtime variety.

Spanish Fish Fillets (Makes 6 servings)

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
One-third cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped celery
One-third cup chopped toasted blanched almonds (optional)
½ cup chopped Spanish pimiento stuffed green olives
Salt and pepper
6 medium-sized fillets of sole or flounder, (about 2 pounds)
One-third cup butter or margarine, melted
2 tablespoons lemon juice
One-third cup sliced Spanish pimiento-stuffed green olives

To prepare stuffing for fillets, melt 2 tablespoons butter in small skillet over low heat. Add onion and celery and saute until golden. Stir in almonds, parsley, chopped olives and a dash pepper.

Place 1-6 (one-sixth) of stuffing mixture on one end of each fillet and roll up jelly-roll fashion. Sprinkle fillets lightly with ½ teaspoon salt and a dash pepper and arrange, seam-side down, in shallow baking pan. Combine (one-third cup melted butter with lemon juice. Pour over fillets.

Bake in 350 degree oven about 25 minutes or until fish is tender. Add sliced olives during last 20 minutes of baking period.

Olive Fish Chowder (Makes 7 cups)

3 tablespoons olive or salad oil
½ cup finely chopped onion
½ cup finely chopped green pepper
1 large garlic clove, crushed
3 cups chicken broth
1 can (16-ounces) stewed tomatoes
2 cups cubed potatoes, (about 3 medium)
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon white pepper
½ cup sliced Spanish pimiento-stuffed green olives
1 package (12 ounces) frozen flounder fillets, thawed and cut into cubes
1¼ teaspoons paprika

In a large saucepan, heat oil; add onion, green

Speaking of women. . .

(A look at what black women are doing locally.)

Do you know a dynamic woman — an outstanding community leader, church worker, businesswoman, mother, club woman — who is great in her own right? The AFRO wants to know about her. Send a brief biographical sketch and black and white glossy picture (or we can arrange to take a photo of her) to: Speaking of Women, c-o AFRO-AMERICAN NEWSPAPER, P.O. Box 1857, Baltimore, Md., 21203. Sorry, pictures can not be returned.

Edna DeCoursey Johnson, associate director of consumer affairs for the Baltimore Urban League, has been re-appointed to the Consumer Advisory Council by President Ford.

Mrs. Johnson, a former Baltimore City Public Schools teacher, has been working with the BUL for the past 13 years. She is known throughout the community for her involvement with numerous civic and women's organizations. In addition, Mrs. Johnson serves as a board member of the American Red Cross, Baltimore Area Council on Alcoholism, Consumers Union of U.S. and the Voluntary Action Center of Central Maryland, Inc.

Mrs. Johnson has been the recipient of several citations beginning with the Teacher of the Week award presented in 1947 by the AFRO-AMERICAN.

This year she was listed in Whos Who in Black America and World's Who's Who in Women. She has authored three publications.

Mrs. Johnson and some 11 other members will meet with the President four times during the year to advise him on consumer affairs and monitor consumer aspects of federal regulatory agencies.

Marcus Garvey Day

The Fifth Annual Marcus Garvey Day Festival will be held Saturday, Aug. 14, noon to 7 p.m. in Harlem Park, Gilmor St. and Edmondson Avenue.

The festival will be in honor of Marcus M. Garvey who was born in Jamaica, the West Indies, in 1887. Garvey, a father of Pan-Africanism, founded the Universal Negro Improvement Association which advocated black nationalism, black enterprise and a "Back to Africa" movement.

Garvey is given credit for the saying — "Black is beautiful." In addition he organized his UNIA under the black liberation flag — red (the blood of black people); black (the color of black people) and green (for the land and hope). He died in exile in 1940.

MARCUS GARVEY

The free festival will feature music, art, poetry, a marketplace, games, food and positive vibrations. In case of rain, the festival will be held the next day. The festival is free.
