Parties....Parties

By Arnetta Lottier

Clean Blockers are having parties all over town to celebrate winning prizes for having such beautiful blocks this summer. 500 W. Preston St. had a grand time last week when they had their party. The street was closed off so they would not have to be concerned about cars interrupting them. Police officers stood at both ends of the block through the courtesy of Central Police Station.

They had a cake as large as a table, white, trimmed with yellow and green flowers inscribed: 42nd Annual AFRO-AMERICAN Clean Block — Thank you all the kids from 556-570 W. Preston St. Music was provided by Mrs. Doretha Baglin, Advisor. Refreshments including fried chicken, hot dogs, candy and nuts were served to the group of well-behaved children.

Miss Shirley Basfield, AFRO Clean Block Administrative Assistant, a guest at the party, was given two beautiful scarfs and a necklace by the Clean Blockers. Miss Basfield sends her sincere thanks to this block for their thoughtfulness. Denise Baglin is captain, Mrs. Martha Whiting, co-advisor.

2000 Sinclair Lane had a big party a few weeks ago. They used the recreation center in the park across from their block because of the rain. Understand they served folks from many blocks and a good time was had by all. Eddie Howard is Captain; Mrs. Mary James, Advisor.

To the Clean Blockers who have had parties or intend to have parties, call and let us know - 728-8200.

2200 Prentiss Place plans to have their party today (Friday). There are many youngsters in this block so you know they'll have a marvelous time. Eric Davis is Captain; Sarah Robinson, Advisor.

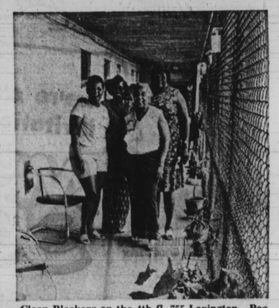
1700 N. Montford Ave., top prize winner, has great plans for their party Saturday, Sept. 11. Mrs. Delores Fields is Captain; J. C. Gross, Advisor.

2400 Lakeview Ave. used part of their prize money to give goodies to the youngsters who won a trip to the Oriole - Kansas City baseball game. The balance will be used for their block anniversary party next May. Mrs. Minnie Williams, Advisor; Michelle Randall, Captain.

Thanks to Lexington-Poe Mrs. Marian Dicks, Advisor to the 755 W. Lexington St. Lexington-Poe Homes, wishes to thank the Captains, Co-Captains and other residents of this high riser for the time and thoughtfulness they spent making their building a cleaner and more beautiful place to live during the AFRO Clean Block Campaign.

Even though 11 floors were involved, everyone acted as one team and showed what can be done in unity. Each floor decided on the type of hanging baskets they wanted and then made them. On inspection weekend they brought out their lovely plants to decorate their halls.

Mrs. Dicks, along with the AFRO hopes this group will not stop their efforts to keep this a lovely building but will continue to show other highrisers what can be done if you try. Lexington-Poe management should be very proud of these tenants.



Clean Blockers on the 4th fl. 755 Lexington - Poe Homes, lined their hall with plants of all descriptions as well as hanging baskets. Shown here are Mrs. Willie Jones, Mrs. Esther Malchen, Mrs. Ruth Stricklin, Co-Captain; Mrs. Marian Dicks.

See you at City Fair

2,000 AFRO Clean Blockers attend Jaycee Circus

Last week, over 2,000 AFRO Clean Blockers attended the George Matthews Great London Circus sponsored by the Baltimore Jaycees.
