"Good news travels fast," a... many bad back sufferers in Ch... town are glad to learn where r... may be found. Many a lame, we... and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Ask your neighbor. Here is an example worth reading.

Elmer Newton, tailor, 113 S. College ave., Chestertown, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills several times when my kidneys were disordered and they have always cleared up the trouble. If I took cold, it always settled on my kidneys and caused me to have backaches that interfered with my work. I also had frequent headaches and the kidney action was irregular. I used Doan's Kidney Pills from Sterling's Pharmacy, and in every instance they have soon strengthened my back and kidneys.

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Newton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

suddenness, she sat down on a trunk and burst into tears.

This was more than the man behind the trunk could bear. With great caution he stepped out, and when he had reached the middle of the floor he coughed. She looked up with a faint shriek, and he swept a bow that was a masterpiece.

"You will pardon me, madame," he said in a strained voice. "But I have never been able to look on the tears of a beautiful woman without at once flying to the rescue. Is there aught I can do?"

"Why — why — Harry Fahnestock! How you scared me!"

"I cry your pardon, but I wot not of this Harry Fahnestock. I am the —the—who the deuce am I? Oh, yes —the Marquis de Lafayette, at your service."

"Delighted, I'm sure. I wonder if that was what those old Johnnies said when they met a lady?"

"I'm sure I don't know—Monsieur."

"Er—ahem—would you—I mean wouldst care to trip the mazes of the minuet with the humblest of your suitors?"

"Why, yes—if you think you can."

She rose and extended her hand. He hummed the beautiful minuet of Paderewski, and up and down the floor of the garret they went in the movements of that most graceful of all dances. At last she approached him and bowed low; he also bowed, but as she rose to her feet she found herself caught in his ...rms and felt warm kisses on her ...

ARE THE ACCOUNTS AUDITED?

Yes. Every year an audit company of first rank and reputation examines the accounts of the International, National and Territorial Headquarters. Every six months the Army's National Auditor and at longer intervals, the International Auditor examines the accounts of the various headquarters. These auditors insist upon both cashiers and book-keepers producing vouchers that every dollar has been spent for the purposes for which intended. Stubs of receipt books must show amounts received, name and address of source. Unless these conditions are fulfillled, auditors will not certify accounts. Auditors will not sanction any departure from customary and accredited modes of business procedure in keeping accounts.

DOES THE SALVATION ARMY PUBLISH BALANCE SHEETS?

Yes. Balance sheets of International, National, Provincial and Divisional Headquarters are published annually. Every Corps or field unit in the United States issues a quarterly balance sheet.
