—Bishop Michael Curley, of St. Augustine, was installed archbishop of the Diocese of Baltimore in the Roman Catholic Cathedral on Wednesday in the midst of a distinguished congregation of clergymen and laity. The archbishop's address showed him to be an orator of great ability and it was filled with patriotic fervor. He said education was the most important work of the church. Education permeated with religion is its greatest goal. It is evident that, like his distinguished predecessor, Cardinal Gibbons, his influence for good in all national and religious affairs will be largely felt.

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Alvin Hunifer and Florence Wallis, both of Cecil County, occurred at Galena Nov. 30, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. P.
Prettyman.

Miss Florence Alice Freeman, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Freeman, of Millington, and Mr. Frank Clinton Woolleyhand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Woolleyhand, of Sudlersville, were quietly married at the M. E. parsonage, Millington, on Nov. 24, at 5.30 o'clock by Rev. O. H. Connelly. The bride was becomingly attired in navy blue charmeuse satin with hat to match. After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The happy couple received many useful presents. After Jan. 1 they will reside at Millington, where the groom is engaged in farming.

Two popular people of Rock Hall, Miss Jennie Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, and Mr. Thomas W. Joiner, son of Mr. Thomas W. Joiner, were married in Baltimore Tuesday evening, November 22, 1921, at 7.30 o'clock by Rev. Anderson. The bride wore a dress of brown broadcloth with accessories to match. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, of 1512 Hanover street, whose guests they were until the next day when, accompanied by their hosts, they returned to the home of the bride's parents, where a reception was tendered them that evening. Many handsome presents and good wishes were showered upon the young couple, who have taken rooms for the present at the home of the bride's parents.

CHURCH NOTES

Nine conversions have resulted so far from the union revivals of the Methodist Churches in Chestertown.

The corner-stone laying and dedication of the Claiborne M. P. Church will occur on Sunday, Dec. 4, with appropriate exercises.

Chesterville M. E. Church, South.
Rev. C. E. Kirby, pastor. The revival meetings closed Friday night and we feel it was a good thing to be told the old gospel story once more. A class will be received into church membership on Sunday morning, and any who wish to be Christians will be welcomed into our fellowship. Holy Communion will be administered and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. G. T. D. Collins, of Baltimore, at 11 a. m. Sunday School, with classes for children, the young people and adults, at 10 a. m.
You need the church and the church needs you.

Trinity (Millington) M. E. Church, South. The revival season begins on Sunday at 3 p. m. and the meetings will continue for two weeks, with preaching by Rev. G. T. D. Collins, of Baltimore, every evening at 7.30.
The hearty singing and strong gospel messages. Don't fail to hear this able and experienced messenger of God. Every-
