AFRO Sports

Same deal: Reds in 6

If the AFRO projection could declare the Cincinnati Reds winners over the New York Yankees in the World Series on Tuesday morning, it stands to reason that the prediction remains firm.

On Tuesday morning, neither the Reds nor the Yankees were sure of even being in the series. Both were involved in trying to eliminate the Phillies and Royals.

So, Cincy in six games in the best-of-seven faceoff which begins tomorrow (Saturday), is the AFRO forecast.

Too much speed, power, poise and all-round class . . . LACY.

TAKE A GOOD LOOK—That's what George Foreman tells John "Dino" George Forman tells John "Dino" Dennis as the two await tonight's (Friday) bout at Hollywood, Fla. "Look now," says George, "because you're either gonna see a lot of it the next we meet, or you're gonna just see it once—before the lights go out."

Terp Sheppard okay to play

Steve Sheppard, Maryland basketball captain, has his doctor's approval to participate tonight (Friday) as the Terps begin practice at College Park.

Sheppard, a 6-foot-5 forward and member of the U.S. Olympic Team, was given clearance after an echtcarditgram showed no structural problems in his heart.

"I don't have any questions about letting him play," said Dr. Richard Schwartz, an Arlington, Va., heart specialist.

Sheppard underwent the heart examination after a stress test showed an irregular heartbeat. The latest test measured enlargements of the heart.

Concern over Sheppard was heightened by the deaths of Owen Brown, a former Maryland player, and Chris Patton, a member of last season's squad. Brown and Patton had heart ailments and died while playing in pickup basketball games.

Sports is Theme

A film program planned expressly for sports fans will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m., at the central Pratt Library, 400 Cathedral street.

The show will open with "Great Moments in Sports," a half-hour compilation of highlights from boxing, baseball, and track; continue with "The Pigs vs. the Freaks," a humorous look at an annual football game held at Michigan state university which pits local policemen against university students; and conclude with "The Sensational Sixties," a brief study of the impact of television coverage on professional football. Admission to the library program will be free.

Bears face 'final exam' in S.C. State Saturday

It isn't even Christmas break yet but the footrail players at Morgan State College on the eve of "final exams."

Not really. The Bears have a lot of time left in both the classroom and on the gridiron. But it must be agreed that South Caroline State, which arrives at the Hillen Road campus tomorrow (Saturday), poses a pure test for coach Hank Lattimore and his pupils.

* * *

Certainly, it is stretching a point to imply that facing the rugged Bulldogs is Morgan's "final" exam. Win or lose, the Bears have yet to contend with A/T and Howard if they actually have eyes on the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference title.

And both the Aggies and Bison are being played on their home lots.

* * *

By the same token, a victory tomorrow at Hughes Stadium (kickoff 1:30), could mean an awful lot to the confidence of a Bruin eleven which has not been a steady performer.

The visiting Bulldogs have played five games to date, winning four of them. Three of the victories were by convincing margins — 30-0 over Delaware State, 40-0 over Howard and 28-0 over Johnson C. Smith.

* * *

The other two games were squeakers in which SC won one and lost one.

She dropped a crucial one-point verdict to A and T in the mud at Greensboro, 15-14, but rebounded two-weeks later to edge SWAC champion Alcorn, 7-6, at Orangeburg.

* * *

Morgan has endured a different sort of campaign. The Bears won two of three games played by relatively close scores and were walloped by Grambling in Tokyo in the other contest.

They beat Virginia State, 26-23, and North Carolina Central, 12-10, displaying superb defensive play. The Grambling score was 42-16.

In every game, coach Lattimore admits, the Bears moved the ball well on offense — until. Until they neared the goal-line.

* * *

"That is where we began to have problems. For one reason or another, a fumble, a missed block, a broken play, or something else, stalled us."

Lattimore had hoped to sharpen his deep penetration attack last weekend against winless Maryland, Eastern Shore, but was stalled again. This time by tornado warnings that negated team travel and caused postponement . . . SAM LACY.

Twenty years ago, few black men would have advised their sons to join the Navy.

Twenty years ago, Blacks made up less than five percent of the Navy. Almost all were in the lower ranks—black chiefs were rarities, black officers virtually nonexistent.

Things have changed a lot since that generation. Today there are black petty officers in every specialty from advanced electronics to nuclear propulsion, black captains commanding ships and shore installations, black admirals making policy decisions at high executive levels. It's a different Navy, and a better one.

If your son is through high school—or will be soon—ask him to check with us. If he qualifies, we can train him in one of over 60 career fields. He'll have travel, free medical and dental care, thirty days of vacation with pay. And, with the Navy Campus For Achievement, a chance to work for college or vocational credits—right in the Navy.

Your Navy recruiter has all the details. Call toll free, 800-841-8000. (In Georgia, 800-342-5855.) The world has changed a lot in a generation. So has the Navy.

TIME TO RELAX—Joe Morgan and Pete Rose, fellow firebrands of the National League champion Cincinnati Reds, enjoy a sober moment in the clubhouse after sweeping the Philadelphia Phillies in the playoff for pennant. They are confident they can go on to win the World Series, commencing tomorrow (Saturday) and thus become the first NL team in 54 years to win back-to-back world championships. The Reds beat Boston in seven games last fall.

3 gain top 10 berths in NCAA

Three teams from predominately black colleges are ranked in the tip 10 of the NCAA Division 2 at the moment.

Southern (La) University is placed third. Alcorn (Miss.) State remains fourth despite a recent loss to S.C. State, and Tennessee State climbs from 14th to 10th following last week's win over Grambling.

'My fault,' says Harris but teammate disagrees

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — "It was all my fault," James Harris kept repeating. "I made the mistakes and I paid for them."

He slumped on a stool with his head down following the Los Angeles Rams' dismal national TV performance Monday night, a 16-0 setbak to the San Francisco 49ers that cost them their NDC West lead.

Following a 446-yard passing day at Miami, Harris was sacked 10 times, six of them by defensive end Tommy Hart. The sacks led to three fumbles which, in turn, led to a 49er touchdown and a field goal early in the second half.

"I should have mixed up the count more," the Ram quarterback insisted, his voice trailing off. "I held the ball too long. I put too much pressure on our offensive line.

"But that's not to take anything away from the 49ers. I really didn't think our offensive line played that bad. They've got the best defense we've played against this year. We were prepared for them but it was just a night they came to play. I made those two big fumbles and that really cost us. This really hurts my pride."

All-pro guard Tom Mack disagreed with Harris on who was to blame.

"It looked like a jailbreak," he cracked. "It's our job to protect the general (Harris) and we didn't do it.

"We're disappointed. We probably didn't play as well as we could and they (the 49 ers) certainly played as well as they could. The athletes in their front four are excellent and they were in a situation where they could cut loose and rush the passer."
