...T VIRGINIA LEADS IN OUTPUT OF CARBON BLACK

West Virginia produces immense quantities of carbon black. In 1921, twenty-four million pounds or 41 per cent. of the output in the United States was manufactured in the State.

Carbon black is "smut" produced by burning natural gas. It was first made at New Cumberland, West Virginia, in 1872.

The Bureau of Mines describes something of the history as well as the use of carbon black. In the order of their importance they are, printer's ink, rubber, black and gray paint enamel and stove polish, other products such as crayons, typewriter ribbons, black and gray paper, glazed paper, tarpaulins, black leather, bookbinders' boards, marking and stenciling ink, rubber sheeting and clothing, hard rubber, artificial stone, black tile, Chinese and India inks, insulating materials and case hardening.

With the increased production of automobiles, large quantitfes of carbon black are consumed in the manufacture of tires, tops and upholstery.

Every telephone contains carbon black in its "make up." It is found in the hard rubber of the receiver and mouthpiece, in the transmitter as well as in the enamel with which the telephone is painted. The hard rubber jack panel strips in telephone switchboards, the japans, printers and stenciling inks used extensively in the manufacture of telephone and other electrical equipment all contain carbon black

DADDY WAS NOT CONCERNED

Information Must Have Been of Considerable Importance to Woman Who Was Returning Home.

The woman was evidently returning from a trip away from home. When she came into the waiting room at the station three youngsters swooped down upon her and all but smothered her with hugs and kisses.

"My, I'm glad to get home!" the mother exclaimed. "And how is Harry?' she asked.

"Oh, Harry did just fine while you were gone!" Virginia put in. "He didn't tease me a bit, and he helped with the work, and he took his music lesson, and he practiced every day, and—and everything."

"That was fine, Harry!" mother praised. "And you, Virginia; how did you do?"

Of course it was up to Harry to do his part here.

"Say, mamma, Virginia's a brick!" he exclaimed. "She can cook 'most as good as you can, and sweep—say, mamma, you ought to see her sweep!"

"Well, I'm certainly glad to hear that," mother told them. "And little Rosemary, of course she was all right—but how mamma did miss her!"

"I helped Virginia cook!" Rosemary told her mamma, with evident pride.

"Well, you all did just fine, I can see that," mother repeated. "And,

The full amount necessary has not yet been subscribed. Who will be the next to help make it up?

To love your town you must help to make your town lovely. To do this—burn all rubbish possible—never throw it in the streets, gutters, alleys vacant lots, back or side yards or over the back fence. Keep your sidewalks and gutters clean. See that spaces between sidewalks and gutters are clean. See that spaces between sidewalk and curb are well sodded. Alleys should be kept clean. Cut all weeds before they seed. Grow vines on back and side fences. Aim for the cleanest and most attractive block in the town. Obey the town laws and then all of the above will be accomplished.

No doubt you all read with interest the excellent article by President Titsworth of Washington College, entitled "An Old College For A New Day," which recently appeared in the Kent newspapers. The Business Men's Association has since sent copies of the article to thirty newspapers on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, the Eastern Shore of Virginia and throughout Delaware. These were accompanied by a letter from the Association asking that the article be published and setting forth the interest of the Association in the College and its community service. CHRISTMAS GREETINGS
TO ONE AND ALL

Having searched the market through and through I have filled my shelves with a stock of all new and fancy goods and will guarantee same as well as price. Some of my customers have told me that their home merchants have said that because my prices are so low my goods somewhat inferior. This is all a hum-bug. These customers have purchased here and found my goods stood up under the strongest test and were equal to any. So make Cohen's department store your Xmas headquarters and you will not only save yourself the time and trouble of hunting for Xmas presents but will save yourself money besides. Above all, shop early as the early shopper gets the best selection, but as my shelves are jammed and packed there will be plenty for all.
