Carter's aides had little to say Friday concerning a suggestion by fellow Democrat, Sen. Abraham Ribicoff of Connecticut, that Secretary of State Henry Kissinger be kept on in the Carter Administration to work on the Middle East problems.

"He (Carter) is not President. He has no authority to appoint any envoy anywhere," said Press Secretary Jody Powell

On the final morning of his vacation at the 1,300 acre Musgrove Plantation on St. Simons Island, Carter, his aide Chip, and two close friends, Carlton Hicks and Jim Bishop — went fishing at 6 a.m., catching 30 sea trout. "We were just dragging them in," said Carter, who said he caught "seven or eight" himself.

Afterward, Carter said: "I'm tired of vacationing here and ready to go to work. We've had a good week."

He flew from the Georgia Coast to Albany and went by motorcade directly to his treeshaded home. He unloaded his own bags

Carter plans no further appointments or public appearances until he meets Friday afternoon with campaign manager Hamilton Jordan and transition director Jack Watson to discuss the staffing of the presidential transition.

Birthday congratulations to Mabel (Tim) Fletcher, the longtime crossing guard of Baltimore County. Mabel has been a "fixture" at Melvin and Edmondson Avenues for many years.

Our daughter, Debbie, is now 21 and Mrs. Fletcher was on the corner when Debbie was in the first grade at St. Mark Catholic School.

Let's hope she will continue to stay on this corner for many more birthdays.

Congratulations to the Rev. and Mrs. Moore and their church family at Sharon Baptist. They celebrated their 91st anniversary last week.

Sharon, we all know, is a landmark in the black community. Many congratulations given out last week at the banquet-site.

The Rev. Gentry McDonald grew up in Sharon until he came to Catonsville to become the pastor of the Morning Star Baptist. We here in Catonsville, thank Sharon Baptist for sending Rev. McDonald to our community; he is doing a great job.

50-yr. Providence Reading Center, run by the Oblate Sisters of Providence, held an open house for second graders on Nov. 5 at 701 Gun Rd. The center offers a prescriptive reading study program for kindergarteners through adults. Beginning readers, graduate students and tutors are welcome. Illiterate adults make up the present enrollment.

Send thinking of you cards to the family of Fannie Moore Jackson (Howard) Funeral services for Mrs. Jackson were held last Friday from The Ames United Methodist Church, Ft. Meade, Md., where she had been a member and the chairman of the Education Board and lay speaker.

Mrs. Jackson was the daughter of the late Sen. Harry Hanna Moore. She was a teacher for 42 yrs. and was a member of the Dunford County Education Association, and lifetime member of NEA.

She was also a member of the PTA, a graduate of the 1926 class of Douglass High School, Coppin Normal, and Morgan State University. In addition to her husband and mother, she is also survived by her sister Mrs. Bernice Seals of San Diego, Calif., and brothers, Dr. Marcus Moore, Philliard and Stephen Moore Jr. (Thelma). Brother Steve is the president of the Baltimore Guardsmen.

Thinking of you cards to the family of Ray Pindemughes (Audrey), father of Karen Pindemughes and brother of the late William "Bill" Pindemughes.

All of the old Baltimoreans remember the Pindemughes Piano Hospital located in the 1200 block Druid Hill Ave. Ray continued in the business which was a landmark in Baltimore City both in the black and white communities.

Congratulations to
