The Buick...ills issue of The Tra...ill be found an advertisement for the Buick car, sold by the progressive firm of Noland-Bennett-Russell, Chestertown. This is a car that the public never grows tired of, but which grows more popular every year. They always give satisfaction, and it is easily one of the best cars on the market.

Fine Bungalow Sold—The Sapp...ton bungalow, built by Mr. William F. Malin several years ago for the former owner, was sold this week to Mr. Albert Hartman, of Indiana, brother of Mr. Hartman, who recently purchased the Williams property. Mr. Hartman, who was formerly from the City of Phiadelphia, will reside with his family there. We welcome them to this section of the country. The price of the bungalow and land which went with it was $10,000. The sale was made by Mr. Stephen R. Collins, agent for the Strout Farm Agency in Kent County.

Suicide At Cambridge—Walter T. Stevens, 55 years old, committed suicide at Cambridge Saturday by fastening a tube leading from the gas jet into his mouth. He was found by police who were notified by Dr. P. P. Payne. After entrance was gained by breaking the door leading into his print shop, where he slept and worked, the police found him lying on a bed. Dr. Payne, who resides next door to the print shop, detected the gas fumes when he arose Saturday morning. The dead man was said to have been married twice. The motive for his act is believed to have been despondency on account of ill health.

Officers Installed—The newly elected officers of Massey Lodge, No. 157, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, were duly installed at their regular meeting Tuesday evening by W. T. Medford, Special District Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Maryland, as follows: Noble Grand, Gorton T. Marriner; Vice Grand, Chas. F. Baker; Rec. Sec., Isaac Gibbs, Jr.; Treasurer, Harry G. Ransom; Chaplin, Ollie H. Connelly, and Harman H. Darrell as representative to the Grand Lodge. This lodge is progressing nicely and their reports for the fiscal year shows many marked improvements. New regalia and pedestals were presented to the lodge for the newly installed officers.

Chestertown Man Gets Fine Position—Mr. Goldey Warren has accepted a fine position with the National Life Insurance Co., which company he has been handling in this county for some years. Mr. Warren's remarkable success in this county has earned him this promotion, which is in the capacity of a state managerial position, with headquarters in Baltimore. Mr. Warren is an insurance man of the highest calibre, and possesses a remarkable amount of energy. He knows the business from beginning to end and was bound, in the very nature of things, to climb high up the ladder of success. While this community is glad whenever one of its people attains success, we all regret very much to lose Mr. and Mrs. Warren from our midst.

Fountain's "Ghost" Nailed—The Easton Jail for the first time for a long while is now free of anything or any signs of Isaiah Fountain, so says the sheriff of that county. He says that when Fountain was hanged over a year ago he left behind him hanging in the jail an overcoat, undercoat, a vest and two pairs of trousers. Sheriff Soulsby tried to give them away, without avail, and when he took charge of the jail he ordered them given away, but all refused them when he told them they belonged to the late Isaiah Fountain. Sheriff Caul says that Chief of Police Charles A. Stoops promised to remove them, but never found time to do so. The colored inmates of the jail were afraid of them, and there continually floated through the corridors of the jail stories of uuusual happenings in connection with them. Finally the sheriff "nailed" the "ghost yarns" by destroying the garments.
