IN MEMORIAM

GREEN In loving memory of our dear Daughter, Mother and Grandmother, ELLA GREEN, who passed away March 9, 1975:
"GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN."

REV. JOHN M. DAY, JR.

In memory of REV. JOHN M. DAY, JR., who passed away February 19th, who truly believe that the call to the ministry meant dedication to your churches, your parishoners and God:
From the God who dwells on High
'Tis hr ours to reason why,
To some He gave the gift of birth
And their children wandered throughout the earth.
To others He gave a motherly love
Yet He takes their children to dwell above.
It's not for us to question why
But why dear God did JOHN die?
Momma loved him and so did we.
He had a devoted wife in Verna Lee.
He was working for You in a dedicated way
Why, oh why, did You take JOHN AWAY
Could it be that among the rest
JOHN'S life was most fully blessed?
Could it be that among us all
JOHN was the one who answered Your call.
And that when his work had reached a peak
You wanted no earthly glory for him to seek?
And so You took this man of God
Before earth's greeds upon him trod
If that is so, his family thanks you God.

Composed by sister, IRMA K. ROY and Dedicated to him by HIS FAMILY.

Submitted by His Wife, VERNA DAY and HIS CHILDREN.

KNOX — In memory of our loved one EMERSON KNOX, who passed away March 12, 1972:
Five years have passed and time has healed
But never has there been revealed
Why Thou O' God did choose for Thine,
A dear one I thought was mine.
Time has healed, but oh the tears,
That often have flowed over these Five years.
The Lord has been my constant Guide, walking always by my side.
Teach me O' Lord to understand, The working of a mighter hand;
Then shall I know the victory is won,
When I can say "Thy will be done."
YOUR DEVOTED FAMILY

PLEDGER — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, WILLIAM R. PLEDGER, who passed away March, 1974:
Three years have passed since that sad day
When the one we loved was called away
God took him home — it was His will
While our hearts he lively still.
Wife, ARLINE and CHILDREN
