AMTRAK'S $165 GEOGRAPHY COURSE.

DISCOVER AMERICA WITH OUR UNLIMITED MILEAGE U.S.A. RAIL PASS.

There's lots of America to see and Amtrak lets you see all of it. Our 26,000 miles of tracks take you through deserts, over mountains, across rivers and into quaint little villages, great big cities and even spooky ghost towns. This is the fun of geography.

The 14-day U.S.A. RAIL PASS is only $165, the 21-day PASS is $220 and a 30-day PASS is only $275. You go by coach as far as you like, for as long as you like and make as many stops as you like. So, what's not to like?

Where else but on a train do you have the freedom to move around, meet new friends, dine in style and relax in wide reclining seats while traveling through the country?

For information and reservations about Amtrak's U.S.A. RAIL PASS call (toll-free) 800-523-5700. Or your travel agent. Amtrak's Geography Course is a course you're guaranteed to pass.

Amtrak

Pennsylvania Station. 1515 N. Charles St., Baltimore

Note: Consumer must begin use of PASS within 15 days of purchase. Valid for regular coach travel only. Consult agent for rules and charges to upgrade to Metroliner or club and sleeping car service. Reservations may not be made prior to purchase of PASS. Prices subject to change. PASS available after May 15 at higher prices.

Frederick Scott, 82, mailman for 39 years

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Frederick I. Scott, 82-year-old retired mail carrier, at Providence Baptist Church, where he was an active member.

Mr. Scott, of the 4300 block Ethland Ave., died April 10 at University Hospital after a lengthy illness.

After 39 years of service as a mail carrier, Mr. Scott retired in 1962. Born in Baltimore, he served in the Army Signal Corps during World War I.

He was one of the founders of Providence Baptist Church and had served as chairman of the Trustee Board for 15 years and was superintendent of the Sunday School for 10 years.

Mr. Scott also organized the Cub Pack 298 of the Boy Scouts at Providence Baptist Church and had established a boys and girls basketball team at the church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Rebecca Waller Scott, two sons, Frederick I. Scott Jr., of Montclair, N.J. and David I. Scott of Baltimore; two daughters, Ms. Rachel E. Scott and Mrs. Patricia M. Waddy, of Baltimore; five sisters, Ms. Lelia O. Scott and Mrs. Bessie S. White, of Washington and Ms. Margaret T. Scott and Mrs. Grace S. Pumphrey and Mrs. Elsie S. Price of Baltimore and three grandchildren.

RECOVERING — The Right Rev. Harrison James Bryant, retired AME bishop and longtime pastor of Bethel A.M.E. Church in Baltimore, is resting comfortably at Provident Hospital where he underwent surgery on Tuesday. He is confined to room 7005-L. (AFRO photo)

The U.S. Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that in May 1976 about 750,000 wage and salary workers were on 4-day schedules, compared with about 50 million on standard 5-day schedules.
