Last rites held for Mrs. Eunice Hall

FAMILY of the late Mrs. Eunice Berry Hall enter St. James' Episcopal Church for Mass of Resurrection. From left, Herbert Nutter, mortician; Mrs. Audrey Coleman, Los Angeles, daughter; Mrs. Audrey Norris, sister; Dr. William Hall Sr., son; Albert G. Hall Jr., son, Second row, Mrs. Lillian Berry, sister-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. Leon (Lillian) Bell, niece; third row, Mrs. William Hall Sr., Mr. and Mrs. William Hall Jr. In background Patricia, Pamela, Julie and Norman Hall.

Mrs. Eunice Berry Hall was eulogized as a loving, caring warm person who was a faithful, patient servant of God by Father Donald O. Wilson at a mass of the resurrection at St. James' Episcopal Church on Wednesday.

Mrs. Hall, 82, of 3227 Gwynns Falls Pkwy., died August 26 after a lingering illness.

Father Wilson said her life "among us was a true gift and her children and friends can attest to this."

Born December 24, 1894 in Newport, Rhode Island, she was the oldest of five children of William T. Berry and Mary Gustine Chatman.

She finished Rogers High School in Newport and attended Pratt Institute in New York. She then went to Cheyney State College in Cheyney, Pa. She graduated in 1917.

She began her teaching career in the public schools of Elizabeth City, N.C. and later taught in Baltimore County and Baltimore City. In 1923, she married the late Albert G. Hall Sr. and moved to Detroit.

Mrs. Eunice Berry Hall

For years, Mrs. Hall lived in the 1000 block W. Lanvale St. As her children grew up, Mrs. Hall returned to the classroom and later in 1942 started working at Social Security.

After her retirement in 1961, she returned to teaching adult education classes in public schools.

Mrs. Hall was a member of St. James Episcopal Church and a charter member of St. Martha's Guild. She was a member of the Cheyney College Alumni Association, Lincoln University Auxiliary, Pace setters and BOY Club.

She is survived by two sons, Albert G. Hall Jr., Dr. William M. Hall Sr., a daughter, Mrs. Audrey H. Coleman of Los Angeles; Norris, a niece, Mrs. Lillian H. Bell, and six grandchildren.

a sister, Mrs. Audrey B. Norris;

Here from Los Angeles for the funeral of Mrs. Hall were cousins, Barbara and Theodore Wilson, Peggy Young, Jacques Hall and his mother, Mrs. Alice Hall of Washington, D.C.; Dr. and Mrs. James (Mary) Sibley of Los Angeles and Mrs. Annette Carpenter and daughter, Marie, of Plainfield, N.J.

Grandson, James (Jay) Thompson, son of Mrs. Audrey Hall Coleman, both now living in Los Angeles, accompanied his mother to Baltimore to be at her bedside before Mrs. Hall's death but had to leave before the funeral.

Bethel to hold prayer vigil for unemployed

"We have chosen to pray for the unemployed on Labor Day, realizing there are literally thousands in the Baltimore Metropolitan area who have no jobs, who wish to be thankful.

"For 24 hours, beginning midnight Sunday, the church doors will be open and the community will be free to come in and pray."

Rev. Dr. John R. Bryant, pastor of Bethel AME Church, Druid Hill Avenue and Lanvale Street, made the above statement to the AFRO.

He was speaking of the 24-hour prayer vigil for the unemployed scheduled at Bethel starting at midnight Sunday through midnight Monday.

The Rev. Dr. Bryant, added, "Because we believe in prayer action, we are asking those who know of jobs to bring that information to the church so that immediate solutions will be mastered with immediate needs."

Baltimore area residents and community leaders are encouraged to participate by visiting the church. There will be continuous music and silent prayer.

Bethel students receive scholarships

Four student members of the Bethel AME Church, 1300 Druid Hill Ave. were recently inducted into the Society of Distinguished American High School Students. The announcement was made by the Rev. Dr. John R. Bryant, pastor of the church.

The students include Sonya Brown, Naomi Phillips, Marie Leake and Rose Smith.

The Society, which is one of the nation's foremost high school honoraries, inducted the students because of their excellence and leadership in church and civic achievements according to nominations by church officials and peer group.

The National Awards Program is sponsored by 21 colleges. Thousands of dollars in scholarship funds from these colleges are made available to Society members.

As sponsor, the Rev. Dr. Bryant received a National Appreciation Award for his efforts on behalf of the students and said, "I am extremely proud of these exceptional students and the honor that they have received. It's surely one that they will cherish the rest of their lives."

DEATH NOTICE

BROOKS — On August 28, 1977, RICHARD T. of 3920 Carlisle Avenue, beloved husband of Ruth F. Brooks, brother of Rosa A. Cauthorne, Frances E. Lewis, Rebecca Cauthorne, Catherine M. and Edward L. Brooks. He is also survived by several nieces, nephews and other relatives. The family will receive friends at the Marshall P. Hayes Funeral Home, 638 North Gilmor Street, Friday, 7 to 9 p.m. Funeral services at Angel Visit Baptist Church, Dunnsville, Va., Saturday 1 p.m. Interment in the adjoining cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

MOORE — In loving memory of our dear love one ELEANOR MOORE, who passed away September 2, 1970.
God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb
He gently closed her loving eyes
And whispered, Peace be thine.
Her weary hours, her days of pain
Her weary nights are past
Her ever patient worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Lovingly, ELBERT, EUGENIA, & CHARLES MOORE

STEVENS — In loving memory of our mother, MAGGIE O., who passed away August 27, 1965:
We have only your memory, dear mother.
To remember our whole life through,
But sweetness will linger forever
As we treasure the image of you.
Loving Children, BESSIE VIOLETTA, BLANCHE, SAMUEL and WIFE.

CARDS OF THANKS

FORTUNE — The family of the late JOHN NELSON FORTUNE is grateful to all the relatives and friends for their many expressions of love and concern during his illness and demise.
MAE W. FORTUNE and FAMILY.

JACKSON — The Family of the late THELMA JACKSON, wishes to thank their many friends for expressions of sympathy, cards, gifts, flowers and other acts of kindness. Especially Rev. William E. Johnson, pastor of Union Baptist Church, Turners Station and William C. March Funeral Director.

WILLIAM McCOY
Our heartfelt thanks to all who extended comforting sympathy and help in our recent sorrow. For the beautiful service, floral offerings and other kindness, we are deeply grateful.
Mother, MARY McCOY and FAMILY

ISAAC D. SCOTT
We wish to thank everyone for the kindness and sympathy shown to us during the passing of my husband our loved one.
Wife, INEZ SCOTT and FAMILY.

GRAY — The Family of the Late JOSHUA GRAY, wishes to give sincere thanks to all their friends, for the many expressions of sympathy during His bereavement.
ANNE JACKSON, & OSCAR GRAY
