Debutante reception, poetry and dance performances

By Pinnie L. Ross

The Columbia, Md. home of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Boone was filled to capacity on Sunday, March 25 as friends from Maryland, Massachusetts, Washington and Virginia came to extend best wishes on the occasion of a Debutante Reception given in honor of their daughter, Miss Denise Yvette Boone.

Yvette Boone.

Denise, a senior at Wilde Lake High School will be presented at the Columbia, Md. Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority's Debutante Cotillion on April 7, 1979.

Bouquets of spring flowers, greenery and soft music served as a beautiful setting for the receiving line from which friends were greeted. Mrs. Charles K. Price, Delta sponsor and close family friend, introduced guests to Dr. and Mrs. Boone who then presented Denise.

Denise Yvette Boone

Much conversation, gaiety and laughter abounded as the champagne flowed and guests circulated around the buffet table throughout the afternoon.

Relatives and friends serving as hostesses were: Miss Monica Boone (sister); Mrs. Ralph W. E. Jones and Mrs. S. Lee Martin (aunts), Miss Tyrene Gibson (cousin), Mrs. Ernest J. Colvin and Miss Karen Walker. Master Ivan Boone (brother), helped greet the guests.

Denise received a large number of beautiful gifts from the many friends and relatives attending the reception.

Among the many guests present were: Dr. Ralph W. E. Jones Jr., Dr. Wright Lassiter, Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Cole, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Massie Jr., Samuel P. Massie III, Dr. and Mrs. Richard James, Dr. and Mrs. Emerson Walden, Mrs. Thomas Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. William Weeks, Lt. Col. (ret.) and Mrs. Paul Walters.

Also, Col. and Mrs. Hampton Pearson, Dr. and Mrs. Lucius Outlaw, Charles K. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beckham, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Boone, Dr. and Mrs. Irving McPhail, Mrs. Gwendolyn Mickle, Miss Thomasina Mickle, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Boden, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Tilghman, Mrs. Roselyn Hammond, Dr. Robert Dixon.

Also, Dr. Calvin Woodland, Mrs. Kline Price, Mrs. Dulaney Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Payne, Dr. and Mrs. Donald Brown, Mr. and Mrs. James Mosley, Mr. and Mrs. Sherlon Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Patrick, Dr. and Mrs. Lethen Wrenley, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson III, Clarence Peay.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steele, Robert Harper, Harold Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Freeman, Mrs. Dora Walker, Mrs. Gladys Bush, John Arthur Jones, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Riley, Mrs. Dossher Wilds, Joseph Gibson, Mrs. Edith Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mathews, Dr. and Mrs. Cassell Lawson, Dr. Ernest J. Colvin, Mrs. Aurelia Tripp, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Linkins, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Noel Norricks, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Johnson and Mrs. Joan Fletcher.

This writer journeyed to New York last weekend to visit with her daughter and son-in-law who had significant dance performances over the entire weekend.

Daughter Hari Dam Kaur (Rae) performed in two concerts Saturday and Sunday in the Riverside Dance Festival at the beautiful Riverside Church with the Contemporary Chamber Dance Group.

Husband Siri Sat Nam Singh Khalsa, formerly cast member of the Broadway presentation of the "Wiz," was guest artist performing a specially choreographed number by noted Otis Sallied.

Sunday was busy for us. We rushed from two performances, had dinner, and rushed to the 8 p.m. premiere presentation of "Second Thoughts," a musical by Lamar Alford, directed by Healthe Head and choreographed by son-in-law Siri Sat Nam Singh Khalsa.

"Second Thoughts" was presented at Allen Center for Culture and Art, founded and directed by Baltimore's own Hazel Bryant, sister of the Rev. Dr. John L. Bryant, and daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Harrison J. Bryant.

Just last year Miss Bryant received the Mayor's Award of Honor which is given for outstanding contributions to the arts in New York.

The brilliant Miss Bryant has produced more than 70 shows since 1968. She was formerly an opera singer, she studied acting for three years with Stella Adler and Harold Clurman, is a graduate of the Peabody School of Music, the Oberlin Conservatory of Music and College, the Mozarteum School of Music in Salzburg, Austria. She has appeared in shows on and off Broadway.

Saturday was also a special day for me. I saw the works of my own daughter's touch on the stage of the Harlem Dance Center. It was a very successful performance of her students.

Like most mothers we are proud of whatever our children do, be it small or large, we should be by their sides.

Another great performer at the Riverside Dance Festival also appearing with the Contemporary Chamber Dance Co., directed by Nanette Bearden, with Rick Odums as artistic director, was Baltimore's Morgan State University graduate Bruce Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hawkins.

Bruce is one of the leading soloists with the Chamber's group. He is first of all a make-up artist for Essence, Avon, Revlon and Flori Roberts, and has worked with several magazines. He has been guest instructor at University of Washington, and Ewago Dance Community, Seattle, Wash.

He is a make-up consultant for Art Dyson, president, Soul Scizz Inc. Bruce is a member of Fred Benjamin Dance Company, the Otis Sallids New Art Ensemble. He recently performed in Siri Sat Nam's "Buffalo Soldier." A talented young man, another product from the big "B."

There are two more plays being presented in Queens, N.Y., another at Hemstead College choreographed by son-in-law Siri Nam Singh (Ronald Bush) before they close out we will return.

PROVIDENT AUXILIARY will hold its annual luncheon-fashion show Sunday, May 13. Shown here are (from L to R): Willia Bland, director, Flair Studio and coordinator of the production; designers whose clothing will be featured: Denise Bates, Jan Taylor, Damon, Mary Buster, Jaki Britton, Gene Simms and Sandra Wilkins.

Dolphin Cruising Club honors commodores

At its recent March meeting, The Dolphin Cruising Club, a Baltimore based boat club, honored its two past commodores, Capt. Edward Collie and Capt. John Blackwell.

Both men were presented with plaques for outstanding service to the club by secretary Jerri Blackwell.

Capt. Collie, a member of the Baltimore City Fire Department, was the Dolphin Cruising Club's first commodore, elected when the club was organized in 1975. He pilots a 46 foot houseboat and has been operating boats for 10 years as well as piloting the city's fire boat.

Capt. John Blackwell is a member of the city Police Department and was the club's second commodore. During his term of office he organized a flotilla of the Coast Guard numbered 18 now composed of 20 members of the club.

There are 30 boats in the Dolphins including male and female captains. Most of the boats of the club are moored at the Bridge Marina located adjacent to the South Hanover Street Bridge on the Patapsco River in South Baltimore.

The club's present commodore is Capt. Charles Howard.

Tattle Tales

WAIT NO LONGER — we know all our Tattletales fans have been dying to hear hot tidbits from Annapolis. We have heard enough stories to last for months but, please, we MUST show some restraint.

But this next one is just TOO cute to keep to ourselves.

LATE NIGHT FOLLIES — Child, what's goin' on in our state capital?

An insomniac needing some ice for his midnight soft drink popped into the hall of his hotel.

The sight that he saw shocked him silly: four naked lovelies cavorting in the hall, giggling and carrying on like crazy.

That will teach him — next time, drink milk.

THE BEST IS YET TO COME — If you think that is is outrageous, wait until next Monday night. The General Assembly session ends at midnight and it's a cinch our lawmakers and friends are going to party, party, party.

We hear Annapolis is going to get tipped on its left ear.

TIGHTFISTED — What supposedly well-off young businessman didn't want to spring for a hotel room and took his lady for a romantic evening to his mobile home that was parked in Baltimore apartment complex parking lot.

Hey, big spender . . . . .

SCHOOL DAZE — There's a school administrator who must be wearing that old "I-have-to-work-late-tonight-honey" line very thin.

Not even subtle or slick. He brazenly meets his other lady in the parking lot and takes her to dinner.

But since she works for the Board of Ed., too, maybe they are working. HMMMMMM!

SHENANIGANS — Have you heard about the ridiculous antics of the half-steppin', half-pint black executive whose organization is supposed to be dealing with minority business persons obtaining contracts with Maryland corporations?

It appears the little man has become the puppet of white-owned corporations and has been inflating the dollar amounts of contracts placed with minority-owned companies so white firms can continue to obtain big money contracts with government agencies.

What's happening to minority-owned firms? They are getting leftover scraps.

To make matters worse, we understand the half-pint fires all female employees who won't satisfy his personal demands.

What a shame!

The black business community needs to nip this fool's program in the bud before he sells us all down the river.

Silhouettes plan nearly new sale

Baltimore Chapter of Kappa Silhouettes will be holding a nearly new sale at the Kappa House, 4903 Liberty Heights Ave., April 7, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

If additional information is needed, please call 367-9520.

Benefit disco held at Odells

Recently, the Three W's Committee gave a benefit disco at Odells on East North Avenue which was a smashing success.

Over 400 people jammed the popular disco spot to sip cocktails and to boogie down from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

The Three W's is a charitable group consisting of just three guys who can really put it together. They are Wendell Wright, chairman, Kenneth L. Webster, secretary, and John S. Wood, treasurer.
