Starving Flock To Moscow

More sleek, speeding horses, drawing well-dressed men and women in newly painted barouches; more roaring touring cars carrying laughing nouveaux riches; more elaborate show windows with the best of Berlin and the worst of Paris; more and more and still more beggars—boys of 5, with cunning faces of woe; women with babies, old men by the score.

Where do the beggars come from From the provinces, from the country, where famine still reigns, where peasants have eaten their horses and their dogs, have packed their odd belongings and become refugees. From the cities of the once fertile Crimea, where successive revolutions have destroyed and no one has built. From Moscow itself.

They live in colonies on the outskirts of the town. They have crude huts for shelter and a great open fire as the communal kitchen. If some of the beggars are to be believed they have real Communism there, for all earnings are supposedly shared.

Hazardous To Be A Baby

The number of deaths each year in the United States of infants less than a year old is greater than the total killed in all the wars fought by America, is the startling conclusion of Dr. Henry Painter, of the New York Nursery and Child Hospital in an address to a medical conference in New York recently. He suggested a national movement to alter conditions surrounding birth and death in certain sections.

"The business of being a baby is the most hazardous of all occupations," he declared, adding that a clergyman's chance of living was 14 times as great as that of the infant, the journalist's lawyer's or teacher's 12 times,the middle aged physician's 10 times, the taxi driver's 9 times and the farmer's 20 times.

Big Sum From Loblolly Tract

A recent cutting of a 10-acre tract of loblolly pine in Wicomico county netted its owner $3,555, or $355 an acre. For the 19,500 feet of 1-inch lumber he received $28 per 1000 feet or $5,460. The expenses, including cutting, handling and all, amounted to $1905. After the cutting he sold the scraps for $160.

Loblolly is the long leaf bull pine, known some times on the Eastern Shore as corn stalk pine and has a liking for low lands. It is called the loblolly in its Southern home, and that name has been adopted in this section. Kent county marks its northern boundary and the Gulf of Mexico its southern.

For the raising of loblolly there is available in 11 counties of Maryland about 50 per cent of the 1,460,000 acres therein contained.

DON'T RISK NEGLECT

Don't neglect a constant backache, sharp, darting pains or urinary disorders. The danger of dropsy or Bright's disease is too serious to ignore. Use Doan's Kidney Pills as have your friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor.

Robert T. Harris, farmer, R. F. D. No. 3, Chesterfield, Md., says: "I was in bad condition with kidney trouble. I had lumbago so badly, I could hardly get up or down. My back ached constantly and there was no let-up to the misery day or night. I had such sharp catches through my kidneys, I couldn't lift a basket of corn. The action of my kidneys was disordered and annoyed me. A friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills and they quickly stopped the backaches and I could do my work without suffering. There is nothing to take the place of Doan's Kidney Pills with me."

Frequent Headaches

"I suffered with chronic constipation that would bring on very severe headaches," says Mrs. Stephen H. Kincer, of R. F. D. 1, Cripple Creek, Va. "I tried different medicines and did not get relief. The headaches became very frequent. I heard of and took it for a headache, and the relief was very quick, and it was so long before I had another headache. Now I just keep the Black-Draught, and don't let myself get in that condition."

Thedford's Black-Draught (purely vegetable) has been found to relieve constipation, and by stimulating the action of the liver, when it is torpid, helps to drive many poisons out of your system. Biliousness, indigestion, headache, and similar troubles are often relieved in this way. It is the natural way. Be natural! Try Black-Draught.
