According to all reports, the present year, which was issued in Monday last, promises to be an unusual good and prosperous one. Just who the prosperity will include remains to be seen. In this, an almost exclusive agricultural section, it is absolutely necessary for a better business condition for our farmers, before a more prosperous condition can be hoped for for other classes of business. That our farmers have had rough riding for the past year or two is putting it mildly. A number of them have told us that but for the sale of their milk they could not have continued farming. There must be some way found to improve the business conditions of our agriculture or else we may look for no better condition for other channels of trade. Cannot this be done through some co-operative system between our farmers and business me? We believe the opportunity is ripe and only needs proper developing. We would be glad to have the views of others on this matter.

Kennedyville M. P. Church

The Kennedyville M. P. Church had an interesting and delightful Christmas week. On Wednesday evening, Dec. 27, the Christmas entertainment was held at which time the Sunday Schiol class of Mrs. George Glenn presented the church with a lovely mahogany Seth Thomas clock. The entertainment and treat was a great success. The S. S. presented their worthy superintendent, Mr. Wilbur Ford, with a purse of gold in appreciation of his interest in the work during the year. At the same time the minister and his family were also remembered with appreciative gifts by the Ladies Aid Society of the church.

On Sunday last, Dec.31, a rising vote of thanks was given by the congregation to Mrs. Glenn's S. S. class for the gift of the beautiful clock.

Benevolence

"You prizefighters must be very wicked men," chided the sweet young thing. "It is impossible for you to follow the Golden Rule in your profession."

"Aw, I dunno," retorted Slugging Tom McCarthy. "Of course we try to do unto others more than they do unto us; but, then, we always believe it is always more blessed to give than receive."

WASHINGTON COLLEGE

The students of Washington College have returned to their books Thursday, January 4, 1923, at eight in the morning to be exact, after a two weeks' holiday. And Chestertown, which has been unusually quiet during that interval, has again taken on the appearance of a real college town. The Hill has taken on the customary hustle and bustle again. But it is a new student body that has come back. Every one, though reluctant to leave behind the joys of a holiday, was, nevertheless, glad to return to the Hill. Everyone appears happy and joyous. They have retained and brought back with them their Christmas cheer. The pending exams do not dismay them, for, after they have finished swapping "back home" yarns, they are going to enforce their New Year's resolution to get down to hard work.

GALENA

The watchnight services of the M. E. Church of Galena had a very interesting program and about thirty attended.

Mrs. G. E. Sterling gave her Sunday School class a party Wednesday evening, at which they all spent a very enjoyable evening playing games, etc. At a late hour the refreshments were served.

Quite a few are on the sick list. Among them are Mrs. Frank Ruth, Mr. William Wood, Mrs. Dr. Jones and four children, Mr. S. G. Caldwell, Mrs. Howard Stradley and children, Miss Jannie Parr, Mrs. Marjorie Redding and Mrs. Edward Walters.

Mr. S. G. Caldwell has been critically ill from tomaine poisoning, but is a little better at this writing.

Misses Helen Vansant and Eva McCauley have returned to their schools after spending the holidays with their parents.

Mr. Edward Caldwell has taken up a business course at Goldey College.

Mrs. George Johnston, of Kennedyville, has been spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. S. G. Caldwell.

Miss Cecelia Mullen has returned home after spending a few days with friends in Wilmington.

Miss Gladys Culley has returned back to her school after spending the holidays at her home in Rock Hall.
