In the receiving party were Mr. and Mrs. Beck, Mr. Snowden Thomas, one of the ushers at the wedding and Dr. Barrett Catlin, a brother of Mrs. Beck. The decorations were cut flowers and silver bells. Elaborate refreshments were served from a most tastefully arranged table and a large wedding cake was cut.

Quaker Neck to Get State Road

The County Commissioners on Tuesday recommended to the State Roads Commission that the allotment for Kent County for 1923, after completing the unfinished piece of read nearMillington, be applied on the Quaker Neck Road. The total amount of money available for the county is from $85,000 to $90,000. It is estimated that it will take from $25.00 to $30.00 of that sum to complete the Millington piece, thus leaving about $50,000 to $60,000 to the Quaker Neck Road. It is estimated that from two to two and one-half miles could be built on the Quaker Neck road which would go a little this side of Pomona. Of the $85,000 to $90,000 appropiated for this county the Federal Government gives about $21,000, Kent County $21,525 and the State $43,000.

Petrified Oyster

Mr. George R. Caulk, one of the oldest oyster packers in this section, brought to the Comet office, one day this week two petrified oysters. The shells were closed together like a real live oyster and on being opened, the meats of the oyster was laying inside of the shell, from which it easily broke loose, petrified. Mr. Calk said, that he had seen many curosities caught on the oyster bars, but this was the first petrified oyster meat he had ever seen.

The oysters were caught on what is known as Maiden Point in Miles River by William Hunt. St. Michaels Commet.
