THE TRANSCRIPT

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

THE Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. did good work at the fire on Wednesday night. The equipment was soon on the scene of the fire and the company went about their work in a very efficient manner. The water pressure was high and the Volunteer Fire Co. worked like veterans.

THE fact that the farmers of Kent County lost $15,000 last year as a result of hog cholera, is one that deserves attention. Dr. W. H. Wright, of the Federal Department of Agriculture, while in this office this week, called our attention to the fact that there is more hog cholera in Kent Co. than in the other five counties in his district combined. He also stated that there were fewer hogs in this county per square mile than in any of the other counties of his district. Dr. Wright attributes this to the fact that the Kent County farmers feed more garbage to their hogs, due to the fact that we have a number of summer resorts here and, consequently, much garbage from boarding houses and hotels. Dr. Wright states that if the farmers will stop feeding garbage, or if they will thoroughly cook the garbage before feeding to the hogs, and will follow the simple and necessary sanitary precautions and watch carefully all hogs purchased and brought into the county, that hog cholera can be practically eliminated here. We believe that it will be well for our farmers to study this situation carefully and co-operate in this effort to reduce hog cholera. Dr. I. R. Atherton, inspector in charge of hog cholera control work in Maryland, reports that eighty-four per cent of the disease in this state is caused by feeding garbage, table refuse or kitchen scraps containing pork, while thirteen per cent is due to the introduction of new stock. He further states that if swine raisers stop feeding any product that contains bones, rinds or scraps of pork and use care that no sick or exposed hogs are permitted on their premises, there will be practically no new centers of infection and, consequently, the spread of the disease will be checked.

KENT REPRESENTED

Messrs. Satterfield and Goodwin Attend the Conference of Public Utilities Of Maryland This Week

Mr. C. N. Satterfield and Mr. C. A. Goodwin, Town Commissioners of this town, accompanied by Mr. Charles S. Smith, representing the Water Board, Mr. Paul N. Adams, representing the gas company and Mr. Hope B. Hudson, representing the electric light company, took care of Chestertown's interests at the above meeting, while Betterton was well represented by Messrs, Howard Turner, C. H. Brice and Mr. Thomas.

The meeting was for the purpose of welding together all the public utilities of the state of Maryland and the promotion of better service and co-operation between the state, utility and the public at large. Our representatives report that the object of the meeting was more than attained.

The spirit of the entire meeting bids fair to promote the interests of the state and give better service to the public. The Water Dept. of Chestertown was commended by one of the commissioners of the Public Utilities.

While in Baltimore Messrs. Satterfield and Goodwin called upon State Highway Chief Maeple on the condition of Maple avenue and received the assurance that the work would be done but that he desired the co-operation on money matters of the people of Chestertown. The Commissioners are taking steps to meet this condition and believe they can assure our people of the work being finished this year.

SPORTS

WASHINGTON LOSES CLOSE ONE AFTER WINNING FIFTEEN IN A ROW—CHESTERTOWN WINS AT CHECKERS—OTHER SPORTING NOTES

Chestertown won from Barclay at the fine tonsorial parlor of Mr. Ralph Barnett Thursday afternoon in the big checker tournament, 37 to 29. Mr. Joseph Wheatley was the outstanding star performer of the contest, winning 11, losing but one and with one draw. Prof. Blades was defeated by Mr. Phillips, 9 to 8, while Mr. Don Falls also won from Mr. Meredith, 9 to 7. Young Mr. Matthews, of Worton, won 7 to 4, while Mr. Sutton was defeated in two contests. The complete score was as follows:

Wheatley 4, Wilson 0; draws 0.
Blades 8, Phillips 9, draws 2.
Matthews 7, Wallace 4, draws 5.
Falls 9, Meredith 7, draws 4.
Sutton 0, Stevens 4, draws 1.
Sutton 2, Wilson 4, draws 1.
Wheatley 7, Stevens 7, draws 1.

Arrangements are made to line up the ball players for the Eastern Shore League down the shore.

St. John's and Washington hooked up on the basketball floor last evening at Annapolis. Washington should win the game and clinch the state championship.

Parksley, Va., will have a new baseball home this year. They won the championship of the Eastern Shore League last year.

Washington defeated Temple University Friday evening on the W. C. floor, 48 to 26. Temple put up a hard fight for a few minutes but Washington got warmed up and accumbed before a perfect fullisade of goals. They were no match for the local aggregation, who seemed to be able to cage the ball from almost any angle. Carroll and Carrington led in the scoring, with five goals each, while the former added six points on free tries from the foul circle.

Washington College made it 15 in a row on the basketball floor Saturday evening, Penn, Jr., Varsity being the victim. Penn started off well, but were soon outclassed. Against the regular team Penn was able to make but one goal.

Washington College will play Mt. St. Mary's here next fall at football.

Chestertown High School basketball team continued its good work on the floor Friday night and easily won from Centreville, 42 to 18. Chapman and Kirby starred for Chestertown. Chestertown will play the five from Maryland State Normal School on March 9 in the local gymnasium.

Pearson, the former star basketball center, witnessed the game here Saturday night.

Blue Ridge College and Washington College will play basketball tonight on the local floor. The season will be concluded next Wednesday when Loyola College will play here. Both of these games should be good ones.

Washington College was unexpectedly defeated by the Pennsylvania Military College at Chester Tuesday the score being 41 to 40. Penn Military was regarded as a second-rate team, but managed, with the aid of sufficient foul shots, to win out, although W. C. made one more goal than they did. St. John's and Dickinson, who W. C. easily defeated, both swamped this aggregation. The outstanding feature of the game was the work of Carroll, who made 22 points for his team, scoring nine goals and four foul shots.

HARD SCHEDULE FOR WASHINGTON BASE BALL CLUB

Maroon And Black Arranges 25 Games Holy Cross And Penn Listed

Manager Timmons of Washington College has arranged a schedule of 25 games for Coach Kibler's diamond performers this spring. The season opens with Holy Cross on April 4th and closes on June 18 with Trinity College. There are many nines which appear on the Maroon and Black schedule for the first time, among them are Holy Cross, Elon, Navy, Marines, Providence College, Roanoke, St. Joseph's and the Third Corps. Two games each have been scheduled with St. John's, Blue Ridge and Mt. St. Mary's. Two games had been arranged with Western Maryland College, but due to the severing of athletic retalions, these contests were dropped. Haverford has returned to the schedule of the Eastern Shoremen after a long absence.

The annual game with the University of Pennsylvania is looked upon by the followers of the Maroon and Black as the big game of the season. Both tilts in previous years have been thrillers. The Quaker City lads carried off honors in the first test by a 3 to 2 score, but the Sho' boys came back strong last year and the Pennsylvania representatives were handed a 5 to 2 defeat.

There will be plenty of material from which to pick a team, and Captain Griffith's nine should make a good showing.

The schedule:

April 4—Holy Cross at Chestertown.
April 7—Elon College at Chestertown.
April 11—Navy at Annapolis.
April 13—Georgetown University at Washington.
April 14—United States Marines at Quantico, Va.
April 20—Providense College at Chestertown.
April 21—Penn Military College at Chester, Pennsylvania.
April 27—St. John's at Chestertown.
April 28—Haverford at Chestertown.
May 4—Blue Ridge College at Chestertown.
May 5—Ursinus at Chestertown.
May 8—St. Joseph's at Philadelphia, Pa.
May 9—Lafayette at Easton, Pa.
May 10—Albright at Myerstown, Pennsylvania.
May 11—Roanoke at Chestertown.
May 18—Mount St. Mary's at Chestertown.

May 26—St. John's at Annapolis.
May 28—Blue Ridge College at New Windsor.
May 29—Mount St. Mary's at Emmittsburg.

THE BUILDERS

By Arthur Wallace Peach

Like one who builds a stairway as he climbes,
We fashion with the years our upward way,
Building on the truth of vanished times,
Building from the dark into the day.

Behind the toilers on the areas high
The million follow through the countless years,
Sensing the beauty of a nobler sky,
A day of brotherhood that ever nears.

Though now and then in darkened centuries,
The hammers seems to cease their steady ring,
Far up the dreamer toils whose vision sees
Beyond the night truth's holy morning spring.

With every level reached, a fairer view
World spread the earnest toilers see,
And far above, in God's unfathomed blue,
The shining towers of eternity!
