SEED

We have given the crop considerations and the seed markets careful study in the last few months, and we purchased our seed stocks with the best interests of the consumer always in mind. Our stocks are always carefully selected, and we offer only the best varieties of RECLEANED Seed.

RED CLOVER—99.50 Pure, Fine New Crop Western Grown Seed.

ALSIKE—98.00 Pure New Crop, Dakota and Canadian Grown.

ALFALFA—99.60 Pure, Fine Hardy Western Grown Seed. Just suited for our climate.

RED TOP—94.00 Pure, Nice Clean New Crop Seed.

TIMOTHY—99.50 Pure, All Guaranteed 1922 Crop.

SWEET CLOVER—A nice lot of the seed will be here in a few days. This has been sown with much success by many of our customers.

These seeds are free from weeds, and our prices are even better than the present market would justify. The placing of your orders now will protect you against any advance in prices that might occur before sowing time. Liberal quantities are now for delivery for the accommodation of the early sower. Come and see our seed.

Jones & Satterfield
CHESTERTOWN, MD.
PHONE 51

FEBRUARY SPECIALS

To close out some odd-lots of Merchandise we offer in this "Special February Sale" some wonderful values.

Special lot Sweaters for men Women and Boys.

Ladies' all wool sweaters $7 value	$4 65.
" " " " $4 "	2.75.
Ladies' Sport Coats $5.00 value,	$3.45.
Men's $4 Sweaters Special price,	$2.95.
" $5 " " "	3.45.
" $3 " " "	2.25.
Boys $2 " " "	1.45.
" $2.75 " " "	1.95.

RAIN COAT SPECIALS

Men's Rain Coats, $6 and $7 value	$4 95.
Boy's " " $4 value	2.95.

GLOVES

Special lot Men's $2.00 Gloves	$1.35
" " " $1.00 "	65c
" " " $1.25 "	95c
" " " Knit Gloves	25c
" " " Wool Mittens & Gloves	65c

Outing Flannels of extra quality at these low prices for this sale only 17c yd.

We dave just received a large shipment of Selx Shoes for Men "New Spring Styles" $4.50, $6.00, $7.50 pair.

These shoes represent the best values and styles to be had anywhere at these prices.

F. A. HURLOCK & CO.
STILL POND, MD.
PHONE 17

CULP Lumber

Everything to Build Anything

WORKING PLANS FREE

AT OUR OFFICE

Full Stock Building Material

W. S. & A. M. CULP

phone 5. CHESTERTOWN, MD

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Sheriff. Hadaway has but eight prisoners in the local jail.

—Kent farmers have filled their ice houses from the recent freeze.

The Germans have now invented a tickless clock.

—The "pink candle" band of thieves continue their depredations around Seaford.

—Northern Florida was hit by the cold snap which prevailed in Kent this week.

—Recent snows are believed to have done some good to wheat and pasture fields.

—It is understood that Chestertown will have a 16 cent electric light rate in the near future.

—Massey School had a slight fire recently, but it was soon extinguished and little damage was done.

—Mr. H. N. Baldwin has returned from Florida and is preparing to contract for tomatoes.

—Easton, Md., is steadily growing commercially, according to a recent press report from that town.

—Congressman Goldsborough and Senator Weller are using the mails freely in the distribution of free seed.

—Pocomoke City now has one of the biggest department stores on the Eastern Shore, owned by Mr. M. L. Veasey.

—Miss Adeline B. Thawley, of Centreville, has been appointed public health nurse for Queen Anne's Co.

—The organization of a Ku Klux Klan has been perfected in Rock Hall and there is quite a large membership.

—This is the month to trim grape vines—the sooner the better to keep them from bleeding.

—A small house, occupied by W. H. Horner, on Calvert street, near College avenue, burned to the ground Wednesday night.

James Wiley, 75 years of age, was found frozen in an old cabin along the banks of the Christiana river recently and soon died.

—Figures of the influenza epidemic took a drop this week in the counties of the state. This monthly total has been 5,027.

—Chestertown is likely to experience a big building boom in the spring, according to reports from our contractors and builders.

—Ice has cut off all communications between Chestertown and Baltimore except by train and motor trucks, the latter going around by state road.

—Skaters were on the Chester river Tuesday afternoon and night. The ice on Radcliffe Mill Pond, near town, has been quite thick.

—The Kent and Queen Anne's Rural Letter Carriers' Association held their annual meeting at Lyceum Theatre on Thursday at 11 a. m.

—There is considerable talk among the business men of Rock Hall of establishing an ice plant in the town during the spring and summer.

—Chicken thieves have become so numerous on the Eastern Shore that a society for mutual defense against these people may have to be formed.

—Because of a tree that bore a new apple, Lewis Mood, of New York state, has receive $5000 for the same, according to the report.

—Mr. Harvey Morris has resigned his position with Mr. T. H. M. Bramble at Fairlee and will become overseer on the farm of Mr. J. Elwood Morris, near Worton.

—Mr. George Webb, of near Kennedyville, lost a fine cow recently. When examined, it was found that there was a nail, a piece of wire and a hairpin in her stomach.

—Residents of Havre de Grace recently saw thousands of canvasback ducks in the Susquehanna river, south of the Havre de Grace and Perryville bridge.

—Thursday was Washington's birthday and was observed in Chestertown by a displaying of flags, the closing of public offices and the closing of the banks.

—Wm. Lester Baldwin, Esq., trustee of the Harris' bankrupt estate, was in Chestertown this week, and with Wm. Frazier Russell, Esq., attorney in the matter, made a survey of the same.

—The annual banquet of the Triangle Club was held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in Christ M. P. Church. As usual, the event was a most enjoyable one.

—An inspection of the local branch of the Maryalnd National Guard was made Friday night by Col. Mitchell, commander in this section. He found the detachment in good shape.

—Sunday was the coldest lay of the winter, the thermometer registering ing eight degrees above zero here and umch lower at Rock Hall and Betterton.

—Quite a number of wild ducks have been the object of much curiosity near Chester river bridge, where they have found a break in the ice. Night and day they have been there.

—Congressman T. Allan Goldsborough writes us that he will be glad to send vegetable and flower seeds to anyone who will write him at Room 384, House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

—Mr. Del Hendershot, who has been in charge of the local milk station for the past year, has been transferred to New Jersey and has left with his family. Mr. George N. Cooper has charge at the station.

—Mr. John H. Clendaniel's sale of personalty, advertised in this issue to take place on March 1, is an unusual one, both from the large amount of personalty to be sold and from the fact that the stock has been kept all winter and will be sold at a time when spring work begins on the farm.

—Mr. C. N. Satterfield entertained his fellow members of the Board of Town Commissioners with its clerk, at a turkey dinner at his home on Queen street Wednesday evening.

—During a low tide recently the ice piled into the steamboat channel in Baltimore and the two ice boats from that city made unsuccessful attempts to break through the jam but to no avail.

—The press of the country is full of the opening of the tomb of King Tutenkhamun, one of the Pharaohs, who died about 3,000 years ago. It seems that, in those days, it was the belief that a person came to life again after 3,000 years. In that event, this King had prepared himself for a fitting and gorgeous life.

—Owners of the Rock Hall-Bay Shore Ferry Co. have applied to the Aerial Department of the Aberdeen Proving Grounds to bomb the ice that is choking the channel off Huntingfield shore, near Rock Hall, to enable the ferry boats to make their Rock Hall landings, and relieve congestion of the freight and passenger traffic now on this side of the bay.

—Mr. T. W. Perkins, as receiver, has sold the Gilpin Falls Electric Hydro Trust Estate, comprising the electric light company, lighting Elkton, and North East, to the Elkton Electric Co., Inc., a new corporation backed by the subsidaries of the Pennsylvania Water and Power Co.; price $75,000. This was considered a very nice sale and will pay handsome dividends to the creditors of the failed Warburton bank.

—The military dandy is coming back. Drab uniforms of war days are to be superseded by the more pretentious garb, favored by the American Tommy Atkins of pre-war days. The new summer toggery of the U. S. Marines will be blue coats with brass buttons, white trousers, white belts and white cap covers. Toreador trousers are barred, but the carrying of swagger sticks will be considered good form by fastidious dressers.

—After a year or more of effort, the residents of Betterton and Still Pond have succeeded in inducing the Post-office Department to establish a star route from those points to connect with the Elkton-Centreville star route motor truck, which brings the early morning mail from Elkton. The connection will be made at the intersection of the state roads just below Kennedyville.

—R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., has recently purchased a fine skipjack from parties at Champ, Somerset county, on the Manokin River. The boat is 31½ feet long and has a beam of 10½ feet. It is equipped with a Rapid six-and-a-half horsepower engine and a mainsail of 92 yards, with a jib of 31 yards. It is a Virginia-built boat and Mr. Rogers has a bargain. He is having her painted and repaired and will bring her home in April. Mr. Rogers will name her "Two Sisters."

—According to statistics recently compiled by Dr. W. W. Wright, hog specialist, of the United States Bureau of Agriculture, Kent county, with less hogs than any other of the five counties comprising the northeastern district of the state, had more outbreaks of hog cholera than any of the other counties. There were seventy-three outbreaks in the county.

—The February meeting of Old Kent Chapter, D. A. D., met at the home of Miss Laura Thomas. The following were elected to attend the eighteenth meeting of the State Conference of the D. A. R., which will take place in the Southern Hotel, Mar 15, and 16: Delegates, Miss S. E. Stuart, Mrs. Levi Clough, Mrs. Louis E. Barrett; Alternates, Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth, Mrs. Geo. Albee, and Mrs. Wm. T. Brown.

—The dwelling and all outbuildings on the Sheppard Morris farm, now owned by J. Edward Hurlock and tenanted by Thomas Quinn, Jr., were totally destroyed by fire of an unknown origin last week. The fire started in the dwelling, supposedly from a defective flue and before assistance arrived, the blaze had spread to outbuildings. Nothing of value was saved by Mr. Quinn, but the stock was gotten out of the barns before they caught fire. The loss is estimated at from $8,000 to $10,000, with partial insurance.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Brown spent farmers' week with their sons at Cornell. They report the sessions as most interesting and instructive.

Mr. and Mrs. Muriel Hildebrand, of New York, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a fine son.

Dr. T. H. Fowler will probably remain in Europe until the close of the summer vacation.

Mrs. John C. Davis, Miss Rebecca and Mr. Clark Davis and Miss Susan V. Hill attended the Wright-Silvey wedding at Preston on Saturday evening last.

Miss Fannie Stuart has been on the sick list. Miss Rebecca Davis has been substituting for her.

Mr. Charles F. Wheatley, cashier of the Peoples Bank, has been confined to his home with the grippe, but, we are glad to state, is much improved.

Mr. James M. Wood has been quite sick at his home in the Fifth District with stomach trouble.

Mr. John W. Hirons has returned to his old position with Jones & Satterfield, Mr. Newnam having moved to Chester, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Cooper are visiting their daughter in Washington.

Mr. Thomas Kennard has been quite sick with pneumonia.

Mrs. Lawrence E. Duyer has been on the sick list.

Mr. Phil Sewell has been quite sick the past week.

Mr. Daniel Reed, of Washington, visited his mother this week.

Miss Rebecca Kendall, of Wilmington, was home for the week-end.

Miss Margaret Nukols and Mrs. Harry Fowler are attending the millinery openings in New York and Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Williams and two children, of Greensboro, were week-end guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. E. M. Selleck.

Mr. Norman McParland, of Baltimore, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sparks on Sunday.

Mr. George Burk is visiting his sister in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Vandegrift will move into the fine residence of Mr. E. D. Albaugh, who, we are glad to state, will remain here. Mr. Albaugh has many warm friends in this community.

W. W. Beck, Esq., and wife have returned to Baltimore.

Mr. Arthur Cooper has been confined to his home with the grip.

Mr. Wm. G. Smyth, who has been on the sick list, is now able to be about again, we are glad to state.

Mr. George E. Noland has been sick the past week. Mr. Conlyn Noland, who has also been on the sick list, is now convalescent.

Mr. J. B. McIntyre, who has been critically ill, is somewhat improved, we are glad to state.

Mrs. Harvey S. Brown has been quite sick with measles and grippe at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Coxe, Sr., near Massey, for the past three weeks, but has improved enough to go to her home in Chestertown. We all hope she will be well and strong again.

Mr. Walter Wright attended the W. C.-Penn Military basketball game in Chester Tuesday night.

The City Club Bulletin, of Baltimore, recently contained an excellent likeness of Mr. James W. Chapman, Jr., of Baltimore, formerly of this town.

Rev. and Mrs. T. B. Cooper, of Michigan, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Davis. Rev. Cooper is a former pastor of Pomona M. E. Church, and is a relative of Mr. C. H. Jefferson.

Mr. Roland Pennington, cashier of the Galena Bank, is quite sick at his home there with the grip. Mr. Ernest Strong, book-keeper in the Chestertown bank, had charge during Mr. Pennington's illness.

ROCK HALL

Mr. C. A. Blackiston and Mrs. Edwin Boulter have been suffering from abscesses in the head.

Mrs. Annie Biggers was paralyzed in the left side Sunday week and, although somewhat better, is still seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman entertained for the week-end their son-in-law, Mr. Walter Stevens, of Baltimore.

Mr. Lloyd Stevens, of Marlboro, N. Y., is on a visit to his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Akers.

Mr. and Mrs. Abbott Reisinger and son, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Matthews on the Haven.

Miss Mary Edwards, of Piney Neck, spent the week-end with Miss Evelyn Carter.

Mrs. William Porter, of Baltimore, is on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Frank McKivitt.

Mrs. Fred Carter, her daughter, Miss Mildred, and son, Mr. Ralph Carter, and friend, Mr. William Dill, of Worton, have been guests of Mrs. Susan Carter and other relatives.

ROCK HALL'S

Picture Parlor

ROCK HALL

Saturday, Feb. 24—Herbert Rawlingston in Another Man's Shoes"; also two-reel Western.

Wednesday, Feb. 28—CONSTANCE TALMADGE in "A PAIR OF SILK STOCKINGS." Will appear at Rock Hall Picture Parlor Wednesday, Feb. 28. Also two reels, "Whirlwind on the Brink" and News.

Saturday, March 3—"OVER THE HILL." The greatest human storm of all time. A picture that will live forever. The black sheep returns home. M. and J. Cartoon and News.

Pictures at 7.30 p. m.

Save

The Difference

and buy a New Suit or Overcoat now as they will be much higher next season and you will also save our Clean-up Sale Discount of ¼ off.

Overcoats, $18.75 to $45.
Suits, $18.75 to $37.50.
Basement Specials, $15 and $18.75.
Big Ulsters, Ulsterettes and Dress Chesterfields in Overcoats, Business Suits, Mixed Worsteds and Dress-up Suits.

Special

Two Trousers Suits

for Young Men, $25, $30 and $35, unusual values and latest models.

Spring Top Coats

New Models, $20 to $45.

MULLIN'S HOME STORE
WILMINGTON

COMBINATION Sale of MEN'S CLOTHES

With every suit you buy you receive Absolutely Without Cost a Pair of Shoes, a Hat or Shirt and Tie as follows:

Combination No. 1

With your choice of any $22.50 Suit you receive absolutely without cost a $3.00 Hat, and a $2.00 Shirt and a $1.00 Tie—all for

$22.50

Combination No. 2

With your choice of any $25.00 Suit you receive without cost a pair of $5.00 Shoes, a $1.00 pair of Hose and a 50c Tie—all for $25.00

Combination No. 3

With your choice of any $27.50 Suit you receive without cost a pair $5.50 Shoes and a $1.00 Shirt and a 50c Tie—all for

$27.50

Combination No. 4

With your choice of any $30.00 Suit you receive without cost a pair of $6.00 Shoes, a $1.00 Tie and a pair of 50c Hose—all for

$30.00

Do Your Own Selecting

All Short Pants Suits for Boys, 2 pair pants, are one-quarter off

VANSANT & NEWSOME

Progressive Clothiers Chestertown, Maryland

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8222-0512