CAPTAIN KIBLER DECORATED

Hero Of World War Accorded High Honors For Distinguished Service Rendered In World War

Captain John Thomas Kibler, of Chestertown, coach of the Washington College Champion Basketball Team and a member of C. W. Kibler & Sons, Chestertown, had high military honors bestowed upon him on Thursday, Mar. 1, whenhe was decorated with a distinguished service cross by Maj.-Gen. John A. Lejeune at Washington. The following is an account of Capt. Kibler's extraordinary service, which entitles him to these high honors and comes from the War Department:

"John T. Kibler, captain, Infantry Officers' Reserves Corps, then first lieutenant, Twenty-third Infantry, Second Division. For extraordinary heroism in action near Etienne-Aux-Aranes, France, Oct. 3-4, 1919. Although severely gassed by a gas shell, which burst in the trench beside him, Lieutenant Kibler retained command of his company and led it forward in a difficult night attack, penetrating the enemy's line to a depth of two kilometers. Throughout the night he and his men were subjected to a deadly crossfire from enemy machine guns and at daybreak a strong counter-attack was launched against him. Heroically leading a small force against the flank of the attacking party, Lieut. Kibler succeeded in routing a greatly superior force. He courageously continued to lead his men until so weakened by the effects of the gas that he lost consciousness."

Regarding the above, Capt. Kibler received the following letter:

Headquarters U. S. Marine Corps
Commandant's Office
Washington, Feb. 20, 1923.

My Dear Captain—Upon my return to the office, I received your telephone message. I shall be very happy indeed to present the Distinguished Service Cross to you here at my office on Thursday, March 1, at 1 o'clock. With best wishes, and looking forward with pleasure to seeing you, I am

Very sincerely yours,
JOHN A. LEJEUNE,
Major General Commandant.
