JOSEPH BRICE, Proprietor.

Bake things he likes with FLAVO FLOUR. It's healthful and tissue building. There is more nutrition and a sweeter taste in FLAVO FLOUR. It is made with a new process by the most modern mill in the world. Nature's food values and the delicious flavor of the wheat are not milled out as they are by other methods. FLAVO FLOUR is milled at home from home wheat. It is good. Buy it and patronize Home Industry.

RESURGAM

This is the festival for you and me,
When Hope springs up beside brave Memory.
Sweet growing in the hearts of every one,
Woman or man, who proudly gave a son.
Some have come back, but some, alas! no more
Will step across the threshold of our door,
And, with a smile of youth and hope and cheer,
Make day of night and Summer all the year.
Yes, some came back, clear-eyed and strong and whole—
Conquerors, they, in body and in soul,
Wearing their honors with such modesty
That, through our tears of pride, we scarce can see.
But some came back all broken on the wheel
Of War! Dear Christ, how must those soldiers feel
The need of patience in adversity—
The need to learn the lesson which through Thee
We all must learn. They had their Calvary!
On Freedom's battlefields their bodies fair
Were as the bread He broke, a symbol there
In that high chamber; and their blood as wine
They spilt, Christlike, for us—your sons and mine.
And now, like Him, this Resurrection morn,
They lift themselves above their wounds, new-born,
Resplendent, crippled though they are,
Whose souls have need to heal, nor show the scar.
Though bodies cannot, Ever in this life
They'll bear the badge and burden of the strife.
And those, our dead, who could no longer stay,
But, like their Lord, have passed upon their way:
They sang Resurgam with their dying breath,
Blending together Liberty and Death!
The Lord has risen! He has risen, indeed!
And with Him those brave souls to intercede
On our behalf, who only stand and wait
Until we're bid to enter at that Gate.
He's risen, indeed, and through that glorious fact
We get the strength to bear, the power to act.
Our trinity of boys by Him are led,
The strong, the crippled, and the splendid dead!

—Caroline Russell Bispham, in the New York Times.

MILLINGTON

Rev. Mr. Saunders, of North Carolina, who has accepted a call to fill the pulpit at St. Clements and Holy Cross Chapel, will fill both pulpits tomorrow, Easter Sunday.

An oil burning engine is being installed at Millington Electric Power and Ice Company's plant under the direction of Mr. Steinke, which will insure in the future abundance of power and better lights, regardless of the amount of rainfall during the summer season. We may also soon be supplied with a day current which will add to our comforts and convenience. Enlargement of the ice plant is also contemplated to meet the increasing demand for ice.

Misses Mary Stevens and Elizabeth Felton visited friends in Philadelphia several days last week.

Mr. J. C. Numbers, of Arlington, N. J., spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Numbers.

Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.
