THE KIND THE WHOLE FAMILY LIKES

HAVE YOU Noticed Any Difference In The Flavor of

GILL BROS. ICE CREAM

Better Than Ever

YOU couldn't help but notice it—if you have eaten some within the past week or two. Why? Because we have sprung a pleasant surprise on the folks of Chestertown, Kent and Queen Anne's Counties.

GILL BROS. ICE CREAM has always been mighty good cream, but recently we have succeeded in improving our method of manufacturing, with the result that our cream is noticeably rich and possesses a more delicious flavor; in short, GILL BROS. ICE CREAM is

We have been making this new, improved ice cream for the past two weeks without public announcement of any kind. We wanted to test the improvement—to see if it would be noticed without first calling attention to it. Our expectations have been more than realized. The response has been immediate and unmistakable—the people of Chestertown, Kent County and Queen Anne's county have appreciated our efforts and have told us so.

You will find GILL BROS. ICE CREAM to be smoother, richer in cream (by actual test), finer in texture and to have more delicious and pronounced flavors than any ice cream ever before served in this community, a community ever noted for its high standards of edibles and delicacies. The high reputation which we have to maintain as ice cream manufacturers assures the permanence of this new and improved quality cream.

GILL BROS. ICE CREAM should not be thought of only as a delicacy, for it is a perfectly balanced, nourishing food as well—equally good for child, strong man or invalid. Serve GILL BROS. ICE CREAM at your table daily—take a brick of it home today—"the kind the whole family likes."

DEATHS

Henry P. Burris, Esq., son of the late Dr. Burris, of Virginia, and a nephew of the late Judge James Alfred Pearce, of this town, died last week in Birmingham, Ala. Mr. Burris went to Birmingham in the latter part of the eighties and in the growth of the place became prominent in educational, civic and religious matters. He is survived by a wife and one son.

Word has reached the county of the death of Mrs. Mary Dobson at her home in Hollywood, Cal. Mrs. Dobson was an English lady, having come to the States as a bride many years ago. With her husband, she settled in Boston, Mass., where Mr. Dobson went into the engraving business. After a few years they made their permanent home in Philadelphia. Mr. Dobson soon died, his widow going into the fur business, of which she made a splendid success, retiring several years ago. Being in none too good health, she at once went to California, but came East over a year ago for a month's visit. For about 30 years Mrs. Dobson had spent her summers at Betterton, where she made a great many friends, both among the town people and city guests. Being a much-traveled and well-informed lady, with a thoroughly English accent and manner, and possessed of a kindly disposition, soon endeared her to a large circle by whom she will be greatly missed. Her happiest moments were when administering to the comforts of others. Being of the Church of England in the old country, she was an ardent worker in the Protestant Episcopal Church here and was particularly active and interested in the Episcopal Church at Betterton. After moving to California several years ago she became a convert to the Catholic faith, to which denomination she willed her estate.

Mrs. Fannie R. Hadaway, wife of J. Frank Hadaway, and daughter of E. I. Crouch, died at her late home near Smithville, Wednesday, March 28, age 34 years. She leaves three children, Grace, Frank and Dorothy; also three sisters and two brothers. Funeral at home Friday at 1 p. m., interment in Chester cemetery. Rev. Mr. Horner to officiate. The pall bearers were Lester Crouch, Samuel Crouch, Howard Hadaway, Mabrey Hadaway, Clarence Hadaway and Robert Goodman. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Graves, widow of the late Levenus C. Graves, died at her home at Blacks Wednesday, March 28, aged 85 years. She leaves the following children: Mrs. Haywood Alderman, of Greensboro, N. C., Carrie May Graves, at home; and Wm. C. Graves, She also leaves a sister, Mrs. Caroline Sutton. Funeral services will be held Saturday at 11 a. m. at Shrewsbury. The bearers will be John C. Sutton, George W. Sutton, B. Spencer Sutton, William Janvier, Frank Medford and William Moffett. Rev. Mr. Collins will officiate. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mr. John Geiser, a higly respected resident and farmer of Worton, Md., passed away at the home in Cambridge, Wednesday, March 21. The remains were removed to the funeral parlors of B. R. Fellows, Still Pond, Md. and prepared for burial. Funeral services were held at the Funeral Parlors Friday, March 23 at 2 p. m. Service in charge of Rev.Truman Smith. Internment Union Cemetary, Worton. Pall bearers, Frank Mason, Charles Mench, Carson Greenwood, William Hadaway, Thomas Mann, Elmer Atwell. B. R. Fellows Under taker.

There will be the usual Wednesday evening service at 7.30 p. m. All candidates for confirmation are asked to meet the rector after this service. The election of the vestry will be changed from Easter Monday until after service on Wednesday evening, the 18th of April. The Little Helpers' Mite boxes will be offered at the Children's Easter Service 2.45 Sunday and the treat will be held as usual on Easter Monday. We hope to have a full attendance.

St. James M. P. Church. The Easter program will be held at the Sunday School hour, 10 a. m.; preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. The Ladies Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Annie Usilton Tuesday afternoon, March 3, 2 p. m. This is the meeting for the election of officers and all the members are requested to be present.

LESSEES OF OYSTER GROUNDS

The Conservation Department announces to the lessees of oyster grounds in this state, that seed oysters may be obtained from the area known as the Upper Potomoc River Seed area until May 1st; and between the period of April 26th and May 15th in the Severn River between the following lines: on the east from Greenbury Point to the mouth of Lake Ogleton and on the west of the upper or railroad bridge crossing the Severn River.

This latter section is under certain regulations issued by the office of the Conservation Department and the State Board of Health, and must be complied with.

CHURCH NOTES

Rev. J. L. Ward will ask for a change of pastorate from the Lynchburg, Va., charge at the coming Maryland Annual Conference of the M. P. Church. He was a former pastor of the M.P. Church here.

Rev. O. E. Jones, pastor of the M. E. Church here, will doubtless be returned to this charge at the coming session ot the Wilmington M. E. Conference. Rev. Jones has done good work while here and has made many warm friends. He has been offered several large charges this year, it is reported, but prefers to stay in Chestertown another year. The affairs of the church are in most excellent shape. The attendance last Sunday morning at S. S. was 207.

The W. F. M. S. of Middleton Dist. held its quarterly meeting on Friday, March 23, at Union Church, near Chestertown, one of the most attractive rural churches on the district. That the Methodist people are awakening to their responsibilities in the foreign field was evidenced by the large number of representatives and friends in attendance at this meeting. The Society was given an enthusiastic welcome by Rev. Mr. Rowlenson, pastor of church. Services of devotion were conducted by Rev. Mr. Frye. The morning session was occupied with reports and discussion of methods. Plans were started for a membership drive on district. This is a great work and deserves to be backed by every church on the district. At lunch hour the church was magically changed into a lunch room and a feast was enjoyed and a pleasant social hour spent. During the afternoon session Mrs. Ruffel, of Baltimore, gave a splendid talk on Young Peoples work, which was an inspiration to everyone who heard it. A delegation of young people from Greensboro gave an effective demonstartion on tithing and the children trom Union School came over in a body and entertained with a song. All left with a feeling of greater inspiration and of a day worthily spent.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. J. F. Wooden, pastor. Services for Sunday, April 1: Special Easter exercises will be held in the Sunday School beginning at 10 o'clock; preaching at 11 a. m., sermon on the resurrection of Christ from the dead will be preached by the pastor. Special music will be rendered by the choir. At 7.30 the C. E. services will be held, followed by communion service.

The services of Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, for tomorrow, Easter Day, will be: Holy Communion at 8 a. m.; mornnig prayer and holy communion at 11 a. m.; Children's service at 2.45 p. m.; evening prayer at 7.30 p. m. The special music for Easter Day will be: "Christ Our Passover," by Schilling; Te Deum by Shuey; Jubilate by Schilling; anthem, "Come Ye Faithful," by Percippe.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. O. E. Jones, pastor. Service for Sunday, April 1: Sunday School at 10 a. m.; preaching at 11; E. L. at 6.45 p. m.; evening preaching at 7.30 p. m.; evening preaching at 7.30; subject of morning sermon, "Christ, the First Fruits"; evening subject, "The Gladness of Easter"; the following anthems will be sung: "Why Seek Ye The Living Among the Dead"? by Stults; "The Song of Triumph," by Morrison; and "Christ, the Lord, is Risen Today," by Morrison. Topic fo rE. L., "The Living Lord," leader, Mrs. Robert Moffett. The W. H. M. S. will meet with Mrs. Robert Moffett, Jr., on Wednesday afternoon. The monthly social and business meeting of the E. L. will be held on Friday evening at the home of Miss Kate Trew. Junior League on Friday evening at 6.45. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening at 7.30.

The annual session of the Wilmington M. E. Conference will be held in Dover beginning next Wednesday.

Asbury M. E. Church, Millington, O. H. Connelly, pastor. Tomorrow being Easter, all the services will be in keeping with the spirit of the day. Special music will be a feature of all the services. The S. S. will meet at 10 a. m. with the Supt., Harry L. Higman, in charge. It is expected that this will be a very interesting session. The subject of the morning sermon by the pastor at 11 o'clock will be: "Some Meanings of Easter." The E. L. service at 7 p. m. will be in charge of Miss Mary Stevens. At 7.30 p. m. the pastor will bring the evening message, using as his subject, "Death Abolished." There will be no mid-week services during the week, since the pastor will be attending the sessions of the Wilmington Annual Conference, which convenes at Dover, Del., on Wednesday next. The pastor will preach at Dulaney Church Sunday (tomorrow) afternoon at 1.30 o'clock. He will preach at Massey tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Both of these sermons will be Easter messages.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE HAS MOST IMPRESSIVE BASEBALL SCHEDULE—LOCAL HUNTERS SHOW CLASS IN BIG CHASE—OTHER NOTES

Manaaer Griffith of the Washingtong College football team is at work arraging a schedule for next fall. He has already secured games with the United States Marines, the Third Corps Area, Penn Military Academy, Lebanon Valley, Haverford, Mt. St. Mary's and St. John's, and expects to arrange three more games before finally closing the schedule.

W. Grove Bell, fish expert for the State Conservation Commission, has begun a campaign on the Eastern Shore of restocking bay tributaries with commercial fish. This is one of the yearly activities of the department.

The State Game Department mailed approximately 62,000 postal cards to every hunter in the state, requesting information concerning the number of game killed by each hunter during the past hunting season.

During the reecnt fox hunt near the town of Queenstown, in which the hunters and hounds of the Harford and Elkridge Hunt Clubs took part, the female hound belonging to Mr. Charles Nicholson, of near Chestertown, outstripped all the hounds of either pack and the Queen Anne's hounds as well. Not only that, but the hound belonging to Mr. Nicholson was the truest hound which participated and "made off" the trail almots every time it became puzzling. Old hunters who were present said she was the best hound they have seen for many years. This hound was sired by "Casey," the great hound sent here by Mr. Yandall, of New Hampshire.

Local fans are eagerly awaiting the opening of the baseball season on Apr. 11 when W. C. plays Navy at Annapolis. Washington College has some fine material and should have a mighty good team. The entire squad is showing up well in practice. The schedule follows:
