

Springtime and Painting are here. Have you ever considered us when you think of

PAINT

Our Paint Department has been growing very steadily. It has some of the best advertised lines that are made. We can help you paint anything. If it is a Barn, we offer you a good

RED OR BROWN
a $1.25 a gal.

We put it against anything on the market as high as $1.50 a gallon

A good house paint of Lead and Oil at $2.50 a gal.

There is nothing offerer on the Shore to beat it for less than $3.00 a gallon.

OUR INTERIOR FINISHES

are creations of the artists skill in blending colors. When you finish a room with our you have a creation of art that is hard to excell. Ask for our book on decorations.

NO LUSTRE FINISH

When you need anything in the Paint line let us figure on your estimate.

Jones & Satterfield

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

PHONE 51

A fast pick-up

The Selz $Six is a pick-up —its price is so much less than usual. It is picked up fast everywhere. This special shoe outsells any other of its kind because of its greater value.

It is the only shoe that has ever been recognized nationally as an unusual bargain. Such quality at such a price is a rare economy. Let us fit you.

LOWER Operating Cost

The first cost of the Selz $Six is very much lower than usual. And it gives long wear because it is as fine a shoe as any man needs. So its operating cost is low.

Men everywhere demand this shoe. It would not be the biggest seller of its kind in the United States if it were not the greatest value. Let us fit you.

F. A. Hurlock & Co.,

STILL POND, MD.

PHONE 17

CULP Lumber

Everything to Build Anything

WORKING PLANS FREE

AT OUR OFFICE

Full Stock Building Material

W. S. & A. M. CULP

Phone 5. CHESTERTOWN, MD

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Kent has a good prospects for a big asparagus crop.

—Kent's summer resorts are preparing for a big season.

—The alumni of St. John's are endeavoring to raise $100,000 this year.

—Work of laying sewer connections on Maple avenue has been concluded.

—"The Hottentot" will be shown at Lyceum Theatre on April 25 and 26.

—Minute Talks by the Business Men's Association will be found on page 4 of this issue.

—A very enjoyable meeting of Old Kent Chapter D. A. R. was held on Saturday last at the home of Mrs. Ella Roberts, near Sudlersville.

—S. Scott Beck, Esq., was elected president of the Chestertown Bank of Maryland Wednesday to succeed the late W. W. Beck, Esq.

—The Dramatic Association of W. C. presented their play, "The Arrival of Kitty," Thursday evening at the college in a most favorable manner.

—A delegation of Queen Anne's women waited on the County Commissioners and made a petition for a salary sufficient to pay the county nurse.

—Governor Ritchie has issued a proclamation declaring April 22 to 28 Forest Protection Week, in accordance with a proclamation issued by President Harding.

—Fairlee Grange will hold a special meeting Wednesday evening, April 25. Supper will be served at 7 o'clock sharp. Program commences at eight o'clock.

—The families of Mrs. M.deK. Smith Mrs. Marion Walbert and Mrs. Alday Clements are expected to return to their homes here the last of the month.

—Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth and Miss Bessie Stewart are in Washington attending the convention of the D. A. R. Miss Stewart is regent of this chapter. About 2000 delegates are present.

—The Federal Agriculture Board of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture has established a rigid quarantine law to suppress the introduction of these plant enemies.

—The James G. Harris farms, offered at public sale on Tuesday by W. Lester Baldwin, trustee, and Wm. Frazier Russell, Jr., attorney, were withdrawn because of insufficient bids.

—The Japanese cherry blossoms are in full bloom at "Byford," the handsome Barroll home. Travellers, crossing the bridge, have a beautiful view of the lawn with its wealth of blossoms and flowering trees.

—The directors of the Third National Bank has appointed Mr. W. B. Copper, the president, and Mr. T. G. Wroth, delegates to the annual meeting of the Maryland State Bankers Association Convention which meets in Atlantic City the middle of May.

—The play, "The Arrival of Kitty," presented by the W. C. Dramatic Association Thursday evning certainly reflects credit on those who took part and also on the directors. It was a roaring comedy and well acted from start to finish.

—Postmaster Bowers will shortly begin a campaign among the rural patrons of the postoffice to have all mail boxes of uniform height and the posts and boxes painted or whitewashed with the name or number of the patron on each box.

Mr. J. Thomas Smith, of Queen Anne's, near town, had a valuable mare stolen from his stables ercently. The animal was found near Chester River bridge next morning with her hip broken and died as they were taking her home.

—Charles Jolls, Chief Clerk of the Railway Mail Service, with headquarters in Philadelphia, paid the local office an official visit last week and held the annual case examinations of the clerks. This is his first visit here since his promotion to the chief clerkship.

—The Men's Cub of Chester Parish will hold a special meeting on Thursday, April 26, at 8 o'clock p. m. in the Parish House of Emmanuel P. E. Church. Hon. T. Allan Goldsborough will address the meeting on a topic of his own choosing in which all good citizens are interested. A buffet luncheon will be served.

—Knocked down by a freight car at the plant of the Worth Steel Co., at Claymont, Del., Monday, Clarence King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, and formerly of this town, was instantly killed. He was employed as a brakeman and his foot became entangled in the guard rail, and before he could extricate it, he was killed.

—Clerk of the Court R. R. Ayres has issued the following marriage licenses recently: Peter Marth, of Chester, Pa., and Agnes Cosden, of Chestertown; J. Albert Baxter and Bertha M. Hunter, both of Queen Annes; Harry J. Rackensperger and Anna M. Walter, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Jas. D. Pettit and Emma Talareck, both of Millville, N. J.

—Mr. Waller, the well-known photographer, who formerly had his studio in Chestertown, took pictures at the college Tuesday of the Senior, Junior and Freshman Classes, Dramatic Club, Glee Club, Adelphia and Mt. Vernon Literary Societies in front of William Smith Hall. A picture of the co-eds was taken in front of Reid Hall, while pictures of the varsity basketball team and the co-eds team were taken on the gymnasium steps. A picture of the baseball team was taken on the field.

—The committee appointed at the meeting of the Asparagus Growers Association last week for arranging for the marketing of this year's asparagus crop has been active and will have some definite information to report in our next issue. Arrangements have been made with two trucking companies to handle the crop, one to buy at different points in Kent County and another to carry the grass to Baltimore on consignment. The time and points for collection have not been definitely decided upon.

WEDDINGS

The engagement of Mr. Wm. Galen Vansant, formerly of Chestertown, to Miss Emily Herndon, of Chatham, Va., is announced. Mr. Vansant is practicing law at Chatham and is doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rowland, of Mechanicsburg, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Rowland, to Richard Heagy, of Camp Hill. The wedding took place at noon Tuesday in Mt. Calvary Episcopal Church in Camp Hill. The Rev. O. H. Bridgman and Dr. S. S. Hepburn, of Chestertown, Kent County, Md., the latter a great uncle of the bride, officited. The organist was Prof. A. C. Kuschwa, of St. Stephen's Church, Harrisburg. Mr. and Mrs. Heagy were unattended and only the immediate families were present. Heagy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Heagy, of Camp Hill, and is chief clerk in the governor's office. Mrs. Rowland, the bride's mother, is the youngest daughter of the late J. B. Stavely, of Still Pond, and sister of Messrs. A. N. and Harry Stavly, of Kent.

25 ADDED TO STATE POLICE

Recruits Will Be Given Preliminary Training At Annapolis

Twenty-five recruits to the state police force will begin their preliminary training at the Annapolis Marine Barracks today. E. Austin Baughman, Automobile Commissioner, announced Saturday. The use of the barracks was granted him by the Navy Department, as he had used them on previous occasions.

The expected increase in automobile traffic this year has caused the Automobile Commissioner to have men in readiness to fill any vacancies on the force as they occur. The men who will attend this camp have been selected from eligible lists submitted by Oliver C. Short, State Employment Commissioner.

Chestertown Business Men's Association To Hold Meeting Monday Evening

The Chestertown Business Men's Association will hold their first open meeting this year on Monday evening, April 23, in their rooms, Imperial Hotel Building. Some very important matters, which will directly affect this community, will be discussed. All membrs will be present and all those interested in the community should be present.

The Association has increased its membership about 50 per cent since its second annual banquet, and is growing fast.

Remember, every one interested in the community is cordially invited, whether you are a member or not. A buffett luncheon will be served.

Stevens Brothers

Grain, Fruit, Poultry & Produce Commission Merchants

226 S. Charles St., cor. Camden St. Baltimore, Md.

Under personal supervision of R. Nelson Stevens, over thirty-five years successful experience.

References—Merchants & Mechantics First National Bank. All commercial agencies.

—Subscription to The Transcript $1.50 a year.

Wherever You Go

you will never have to apologize for the clothes you get here

Style

Quality

Price

New Sport Models, $20 to $35.
New Golf Models, $25 to $50.
Extra Knicker Models, $25 to $60.
New Young Men's, $20 to $50.
Two-Trousers Suits, $25 to $40.
Men's Conservatives, $20 to $50.
New spring styles and values just in and put in stock.

More Top Coats

$25 to $40

Men's and young men's regulars and stouts

MULLIN'S CLOTHING STORE

WILMINGTON

Lyceum Theatre Chestertown

MONDAY AND TUESDAY, APRIL 23-24 NO PICTURES

Theatre rented to P. E. Church for presentation of Operetta.

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY, APRIL 25-26 Thos. H. Ince presents

THE GREATEST LAUGH-GETTER EVER SCREENED

"THE HOTTENTOT"

A Comedy Drama Super-Special—The gasp of an earthquake, The Yells of a mirthquake, The fastest, funniest thing that ever hit town. A steeple chase that chases thrills along your spine. Also Movie Chats, Sports Review and Larry Semon Comedy. Greatest Program ever presented by any theatre anywhere. ☞Your money back if you want it. Prices 10, 20, 20.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 27-28 SOL LESSER PRESENTS

JACKIE COOGAN in

MY BOY

The Kid's a Wiz! He has a hundred new smiles for you; yes, and a sob now and then. Here he's an immigrant kid, dodging the cops and adopting a surly old sea captain as a dad. And you ought to see him shimmy. Prices 10, 20, 30.

Ralston Oxfords for Spring

HERE ARE YOUR SPRING OXFORDS

We never hesitate to show you and recommend Ralstons—not only because we know the experience of those that wear them, but also because we know that Ralstons are made to live up to their reputation of over twenty years of honest value shoes at honest prices.

THE FENWAY MODEL

is a "Tried and True Ralston." This new Fenway Spring 1923 model comes in Tony Red and Tony Black.

Thousands have worn and liked shoes made on this last. Try it! You'll find it as nice a shoe as you ever wore.

Price $6 & $7.50

THE CLYDE MODEL

This Clyde last is every inch a "Ralston.' Words do not do it justice. You have to see it. Made in Tony Brown and Tony Black Spartan Calf.

They are honestly designed, honestly made and are sold at honest prices.

$7.50

VANSANT & NEWSOME

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

Head-to-Foot Outfitters for Men and Boys

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8222-0578