Will Try To Save M. D. & V.

"Whatever power the Public Service Commission has to prevent abandonment of service on the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway will be exercised to the limit," said William Milnes Maloy, chairman, and Frank Harper andE zra B. Whitman, members of the Public Service Commission. Governor Ritchie has also declared that whatever it was possible to do to keep this Eastern Shore railroad running the Public Service Commission must do and that he would back them up in any legal steps they might take.

In the meantime the Girard Trust Co., of Philadelphia, trustee for the M. D. & V., is going ahead with plans for the foreclosure sale at Love Point Monday, when rolling stock, track lines and steamboats will be sold at public sale.

BARTHELMESS REMARKABLE IN "TOL'ABLE DAVID"

Voted By Press Critics As Best Picture Produced Last Season

How love and adoration on the part of a carefree mountain youth for his big brother lifts him from boyhood to manhood in a single day and causes him to scale insurmountable heights in behalf of his brother is the story which Richard Barthelmess portrays to the public in "Tol'able David," the star's first picture for Associated First National Pictures, Inc., which is to be shown at the Lyceum Theatre, Monday and Tuesday of next week.

The play, replete with thrilling adventures staged in the mountains of Virginia, is full also of heart thrills wound around simple family life. Mr. Barthelmess, as David, reaches the hearts of his audience through his appeal for sympathy for the ideals of the romatic country boy, and he thrills them with his revelation of indomitable courage and tenacity of purpose at the risk of his own life in defending these ideals.

A new-born babe who pulls at the very heart strings with the message his entrance into the world carries, is among the characters. David's dog, his courageous father, tender mother, pitiful sister-in-law whose life is blighted by the tragedy which befalls his hero-brother, all carry the same message.

The touching love theme which runs through the story, being the basis for many a delightful romantic scene not untouched by comedy at times, furnishes a beautiful background.

Mr. Barthelmess, who first appears before the public as a star in this play gives a sympathetic and understanding, portrayal of the youth "David," which will bring an answer ing heart throb from all who see him.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY, MARYLAND.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Having recently received several letters from different sections of the county, and having been asked by a number of loyal party people, both men and women, to present my name again as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Senator, beg to say that, after a careful consideration concerning this matter, I have fully concluded to do so.

While thus announcing myself, I cordially ask for your assistance and trust that you may be able and willing to give me your earnest and active support. Should I succeed in receiving the nomination at your hands, and then be fortunate enough to win at the polls in November, it will be my pleasure and my pride to discharge the duties of said office with promptness, uprightness and courtesy to all.

My attachment to the party which won my early allegiance has grown stronger with the passing years, and I hope to be worthy of your confidence and endorsement once more. I regard the State Senatorship as an important public trust, but am not pressing any special claims or fitness upon my fellow-citizens in this connection.

Realizing my many shortcomings and imperfections, I humbly await the verdict of my party, and by this verdict I now promise to abide.

Faithfully yours,
WILLIAM F. RUSSELL.

Easton Diocesan Convention

The Easton Diocesan Convention was held at Easton the 1st and 2nd of May. On Monday, April 30, there was a service especiall for the men. The speaker was Mr. Hobbs, of the Baltimore Sun. He made a most enthusiastic and impressive appeal to the men of the church. On Tuesday at 10 a. m. the clergy formed in line and marched to the Cathedral and after the celebration of the Holy Communion, the Bishop read his address. Lunch was served at 1 p. m. on both Tuesday and Wednesday. On Wednesday Miss Ethel Miller, of Baltimore, held a conference of women in Christ Church. Judge W. H. Adkins, who had been treasurer for the diocese for twenty years, tendered his resignation on account of poor health. State Senator Daniels was elected in his place. The salary of Bishop Davenport was raised to $5000 and S. E. Shannahan was elected secretary. On Wednesday afternoon a conference was held for boys and girls, Miss Frances Withers being the speaker. The Diocesan Camp was visited in the afternoon. In the evening a mass meeting was held for the young people, the speakers being Rev. H. T. Kloman and Rev. Karl Block. The convention adjourned to meet at Salisbury next year.

The delegates to the convention from Kent County were: Clerical, Rev. Louis Sheen, Rev. R. L. Saunders, Rev. C. L. Atwater, Rev. S. S. Hepburn; Lay Delegates: Mr. Thomas Masesy, Mr. Wm. Smyth; Mr. R. H. Collins; Mr. P. A. M. Brooks, Mr. Edward Pennington.

DEATHS

Mrs. Estella G. Ford, widow of the late Dr. Stephen E. Ford, died Thursday, May 3, at her home in Chestertown, aged 53 years. She was one of the most prominent ladies of Chestertown and was always active in every movement for the uplift and progress of the community. She leaves two sons, Mr. Fred Ford, of Detroit, Mich.; and Mr. Charles B. Ford, of Chestertown; and two daughters, Miss Stephanie Ford and Miss Emil E. Ford, of Chestertown. Mrs. Ford also leaves two brothers, Daniel Potts and Budd Ford Potts. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services, which will be held at her late m., conducted by Rev. Mr. Sard and Rev. Mr. Wise. Interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

The pall bearers will be: J. T. Baxter, C. S. Smith, A. M. Culp, Prof. Mark Creasy, W. B. Copper and R. S. Thomas.

Mrs. Ford was born in Queen Annes Co. April 13, 1870. In 1892 she was married to Dr. Ford and moved to the old family homestead in North East, Cecil Co., where they made their home until 1905. In the fall of that year Dr. and Mrs. Ford returned to this community and from that time made Chestertown their home. Dr. Ford died in February, 1912. Both Dr. and Mrs. Ford were members of the M. E. Church.

Tomato Contracts Signed

Farmers at Golts, Millington, Massey, Kennedyville, Betterton, Harris Wharf, Lynch, Worton, Chestertown, Riverside, Quaker Neck and Buck Neck have signed contracts for growing tomatoes at 25 cents a basket, while about 230 acres have been contracted for in Broad Neck, 170 of which at 22½ cents and 60 at 23 cents per basket. The Canners Journal reports that a large acreage will be planted on the Eastern Shore for the open market, but as far as we are able to learn this report has not been confirmed.

Washington Wins Again

Washington College won first place Thursday in the twenty-fifth annual oratorical contest of Western Maryland College. St. John's carried off second honors in a field of four contestants. University of Maryland and Western Maryland were the other two entrees. The representatives of the various colleges were: Washington, Townsend Howes; St. John's, W. C. Baxter; Western Maryland, C. H. Richmond; University of Maryland, Aubrey S. Warewell.

Unusual Picture Program At Lyceum

The people of this community are fortunate in being able to see the best in motion pictures at the Lyceum. It is no longer necessary for the people of Kent County to go to the city to see a good show, as the pictures which have been the talk of the country are being shown in Chestertown. Moving pictures have long ceased to be a novelty and the public will not go to see second-rate pictures. They demand the best and this demand has been readily met by the management of the Lyceum.
