NECESSITY OF VACCINATION AGAINST SMALL-POX

Forty Percent Of Children In Fifteen Elementary Schools Of Kent Co. Unsuccessfully Vacinated

Vaccination is one of the most beneficial agents for the health of the human race that has ever been known to man. The first reference to vaccination and small pox found in the laws of Maryland relating to public health was passed in 1886. This stated that the local and county health officers shall investigate small-pox and other diseases dangerous to public health and shall take all proper steps for the restriction and suppression of such disease. A result of the enforcement of this and the vaccination law is, there have been but eleven deaths from small-pox in Maryland during the last ten years. It must be remembered that vaccination is the chief and leading measure with which to stamp out small-pox and that if all the individuals of a community were properly vaccinated small-pox would not exist.

Both the public health and school laws of the state require that every child shall be successfully vaccinated before being allowed to attend the public schools. A recent survey of 824 school children of Kent County shows that over forty percent of these children have not been successfully vaccinated. If we are to continue to be as free of small-pox in the next few years as we have in the past these children must be vaccinated. In addition to this our school laws require it in order that these children may be protected.

The best time for vaccination is in the winter or spring for then the vaccine is fresh and there is also less danger from dirt and infection of the children's arm. The School Board is offering through the County and State Health Officers free vaccination to those children whose parents desire it. Otherwise it will have to be done by the family physician.

(Signed)
LOUIS C. ROBINSON,
Superintendant of Schools.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE

A "pep" meeting was held by the students for the baseball team and for the purpose of distributing gold basketballs and sweaters to the basket ball team. The meeting was timely in that it served a double purpose It was Thursday, April 26, and the day before the St John's-Washington College base ball game. The speeches by townsmen, professors and students did much to raise the enthusiasm of the student body for the following day. Of no less importance that night was the event arranged for the basketball team. The Varsity and Junior Varsity teams of the famous "Flying Pentagon," Coach Kibler and Manager Stenger were presented with gold basketballs and black sweaters. The members of both teams and the manager were also awarded certificates permitting them to wear the "W." The presentations were made by Prof. Howell in behalf of the athletic association.

Mr. Clarence W. Perkins, of Baltimore, will speak before the Mt. Vernon Literary Society Friday, May 11. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Adelphia Literary Society announces the following program for Monday, May 7: Reading of Scriptures, Chaplain; Piano Solo, Knight; Five Minute Talk, Sasse; Reading, Nelson; Five Minute Talk, C. Armstrong; Humorous Reading, Cooper; Five Minute Talk, Wingate; Moonbeam, Soifer.

Saturday, May 12th Will Be Bundle Day For Kent County

House cleaning time to me, means just that one thing, now-a-days. We hope that every one will heed the call, and will tie in bundles all kinds of old clothing. Please send old sweaters, woolen materials, scraps of materials, old shoes, tied in pairs, any food commodities you may be able to spare, and carry them to your nearest centre which will be announced later in each community. If you can, help to get them in to Chestertown, some time during the week.

Kent County is one of the few counties in Maryland to have her money all subscribed. In working through Caroline, Queen Annes, and Talbot, I find that Kent has beat them all, and just because we have all worked, as we use to sing in Sunday School, "You in your little corner, and I in mine". That's just what we've done, and we have all been happy in doing it too.

The need is still very great. Nearly twice as many to take care of this year, as we had last year. "Have a Heart" as the boys say, and carefully look over the winter clothes which you are now ready to put away. Give too, part of the money which you are now wasting each year. Part of the Smoking money, part of the Chewing Gum money, a little bit of the Ice Cream money, send it in until the need is all supplied.

EVELYN HARRIS,
Chairman for Kent.

Boy Scout Drive Expected To Be Across By May 12

The drive for Kent's quota for the Eastern Shore Council of Boy Scouts is expected to be over by the end of next week. The drive has been on in earnest for four days and a good portion of the quota has already been subscribed.

The Boy Scout organization is not only nation-wide, but is world-wide, as most of the Eureopean countries have adopted this method of training boys so that they will be of the most use to their country and themselves. Statistics have it that 80 per cent of all criminals and 85 per cent of all Christians are made in the fleeting years of boyhood. Is it not worth while to train a boy to be a good citizen in a way in which he is interested? A scout does right because he is honor bound to do right and not because he is made to do so. The boys of Kent Co. today will soon be the men of Kent Co. and through them is determined what Kent will be in the future. Is it not worth while to give them every opportunity to be a good citizen? Scouting does this.

Every town in Kent County is taking part in this drive and any contribution toward this cause will be very acceptable.

To Study State Agricultural Problems

Governor Ritchie this week announced the appointment of a committee to give immediate and thorough study to the problems of the farmer and endeavor to work out a program for the state to adopt, by legislation, or otherwise, for development of agriculture and allied interests.

The committee is made up of representatives of state or county organizations interested in various phases of agriculture, horticulture and breeding. Its appointment is in pursuance of a resolution at the conference of agriculture called by Gov. Ritchie in Annapolis Jan. 26. Among those on the committee are Mrs. O. H. Medders, president Kent Co. Federation of Rural Women, Still Pond.

The first meting, the Governor announced, will be held in the Union Trust Bldg., Baltimore, at 10.30 a. m., May 15. He will outline the purpose of the proposed study and it is expected the committee will then organize for its work.

WEDDINGS

Miss Sara Shapiro and Mr. John Walmsley Davis were quietly married in Philadelphia Monday, April 30, at 9 a. m., by the Rev. Wm. A. P. Hass, pastor of Wharton Memorial M. E. Church. After a short trip north they will reside at 5501 Chester avenue. Mr. Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Davis, of this town, and has been for several years assistant manager for the Fred P. Increasing Oyster Life In Chesapeake

Swepson Earle, consultant engineer of the State Conservation Department, turned in an interesting report last week to the State Conservation Commission on the success of planting shells to increase oyster life in the Chesapeake and its tributaries. Mr. Earle stated that a close investigation of the plantings of last year show remarkable success. Four out of five of the beds started for experimental purposes showed a wonderful possibility in this type of oyster culture.
