Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

IT developed at the bankers' meeting at Atlantic City this week that Gov. Ritchie would have opposition for the nomination for Governor. Just who will be his opponent is not generally known, but it looks to us that it will either be Mr. John M. Dennis, the State Treasurer, or Mr. McMullen, of Cumberland.

AN effort is being made by the friends and many of the political workers of the county to avoid a primary contest here in September. Primaries are expensive, both to the candidates and to the county, and if one could be avoided it would meet with the approval, we are sure, of most of our citizens, as primary fights usually place friends of the various candidates in very embarrassing positions and often disrupt the party. It is, therefore, most earnestly hoped that a ticket can be agreed upon by giving and taking and thus avoid a primary contest.

WASHINGTON WINS FROM BLUE RIDGE COLLEGE AND SEEMS LIKE CANDIDATE FOR STATE CHAMPIONSHIP—OTHER NOTES

Washington College took another big stride toward the state championship on Tuesday afternoon when they defeated the strong Blue Ridge College team on the local diamond by the score of 7 to 3. Hickman was on the mound for Washington and held the visitors safe at all times. Armstrong, Flowers and Johnson starred for Washington with the bat.

Another state game, of particular interest will be played next Tuesday on Washington Field when Mt. St. Mary's College team will lock horns with W. C. This game is always one of the most interesting on the local schedule and this year will be no exception. On the following Thursday the U. S. Marines team will play the collegians here. Both of these games should draw big crowds.

Willard knocked out Johnson the other day in New Jersey and Firpo defeated his opponent. Both are contenders for Dempsey's crown, but, according to fight critics neither showed any ability that will justify a showing against the champion. Dempsey will defend his crown against Gibbons in July, which fight causes very little enthusiasm among the fight fans, who realize that Gibbons will be no match for the champion. Carpentier and McTigue, conquer of Siki, who defeated Carpentier, have been matched for the lightheavyweight title, to take place in the near future. With all these titantic struggles in the offing prizefighting will receive a stimulus this year far greater than any year in the past that we have any recollection of.

Chestertown High School base ball tossers defeated Rock Hall High last Friday 30 to 3. The locals got plenty of practice for the County and Eastern Shore track meet.

The Eastern Shore league is due to open next week. Local fans are quite interested in the prospects of the league this year and most of them will undoubtedly root for Cambridge to crop the pennant, as this is the club for which the local favorites Johnson and Flowers will perform. If these two sluggers leave for the opening of the league Coach Kibler's Washington College nine will be at a great loss.

MINUTE TALKS
BY THE BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION

Are you going down the Shore with the B. M. A.? If not, you are missing a very pleasurable and instructive three day outing. Every man interested in studying the agricultural, commercial and industrial life of the Eastern Shore should be a member of the party. It will be an opportunity to see at first hand every aspect of Shore activity; a bird's eye view, so to speak, of the whole Del-Mar-Via Peninsula. The trip will serve the double purpose of advertising Chestertown and of widening the viewpoint of those of us not yet quite alive to the wonderful possibilities of the Peninsula for development and growth.

Early Monday morning, May 21, a comfortable bus with a capacity of twenty-five persons and ample baggage accommodation will leave Chestertown. At each town visited a guide will be provided and the tourists shown the points of interest. At Salisbury Mr. Freeman, Secretary of the Salisbury Chamber of Commerce will join the party for the remainder of the junket. The party will stop at Easton for lunch and at Salisbury for supper and rest for the night. Lunch the next day, May 22, will be had in Pocomoke and the night will will be spent in Berlin. The return trip will carry the sightseers through the adjacent section of Delaware and Chestertown will be reached the night of the 23rd.

The expense of the entire journey will be only a nominal one and extremely small compared to the advantages and pleasure attached thereto. The trip will be made through the finest sweep of farming country in Maryland.

Following is the itinerary: Leave Chestertown early Monday morning, May 21. Centreville, Easton (lunch), Preston, East New Market, Cambridge, Sharptown, Salisbury (supper and the night), Princess Anne, Crisfield, Pocomoke, (lunch), Snow Hill, Berlin (supper and over night), Selbyville, Milford, Frederika, Smyrna, Middletown, Cecilton, Galena, Kennedyville, Chestertown.

All those interested in the Shore trip are requested to communicate with Mr. R. H. Collins, Jr., or to phone Chestertown No. 2 or No. 231.

We have extended the campaign to June first to enable those who naturally, without question, would be expected to be a part of such an organization as this, to come in with us. To say nothing, of course, of those who will come in merely as a matter of public spirit.

The results of the campaign, so far, have been encouraging in the extremee.

Don't wait for us to call on you, tell us you want to join.
