TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY, MARYLAND.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Having recently received several letters from different sections of the county, and having been asked by a number of loyal party people, both men and women, to present my name again as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Senator, beg to say that, after a careful consideration concerning this matter, I have fully concluded to do so.

While thus announcing myself, I cordially ask for your assistance and trust that you may be able and willing to give me your earnest and active support. Should I succeed in receiving the nomination at your hands, and then be fortunate enough to win at the polls in November, it will be my pleasure and my pride to discharge the duties of said office with promptness, uprightness and courtesy to all.

My attachment to the party which won my early allegiance has grown stronger with the passing years, and I hope to be worthy of your confidence and endorsement once more. I regard the State Senatorship as an important public trust, but as not pressing any special claims for fitness upon my fellow-citizens in this connection.

Realizing my many shortcomings and imperfections, I humbly await the verdict of my party, and by this verdict i nom promise to abide.

Faithfully yours,
WILLIAM F. RUSSELL.

AN EXPLANATION

In the "News Items" of last week the statement "Find out about Mr. L. P. Corkran" is likely to be misleading, —word was sent to the office to find out from him relative to the sale of his property, etc. And by a mere accident the above statement got into print. Hence this explanation.

MINUTE TALKS

BY THE

BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION

It promised merely to be an interesting and instructive little trip down the shore. It proved to be a vivid inspiration, a soul-satisfying experience, an educational and gastronomic success—a real adventure.

The progress of the party of fifteen, representing the Business Men's Association of Chestertown, was marked by a series or right royal welcomes. At every point, from Centreville where the presentation of a hugh key to the Town was made, to the big banquet in Salisbury—nothing was spared to show the visitors every courtesy. From the famous strawberry auction block at Marion to the Picking Duck Farm in Berlin and the Caulk Dental Plant in Milford, every type and variety of activity was appraised and inspected.

It was an experience such as the casual visitor through the Peninsula would not, indeed could not, enjoy. Even to those who had previously visited this whole interesting section the trip was a revelation. For a rapid, though no less intensive, inspection was made of everything that is worth seeing. We shall not mention the quantity of the food consumed nor the quantity of the delicacies devoured for it would be to paint the lily. Suffice it to say that such a journey through a countryside famed in song and story; rich in historic memories; renowned for thebeauty of its rivers and plains—yet, withal, teeming with minature centres of commerce and modern industrial culture—was in itself an inspiration and a delight.

It is to be hoped that such a trip may be made an annual affair. As a means of comparison among the Peninsula towns; as an effort at re-stocking and re-valuation of own municipal virtues and defect to say nothing of a grand and glorio good time—we can think of nothing quite so valuable.

This issue of the Transcript carries a more detailed description of the tour. Details of the general meeting last Tuesday night will also be found elsewhere in this issue.

MEMORIAL DAY CELEBRATED

Occasion Observed In Chestertown In A Manner That Paid A Just Tribute To The Nation's Heroes Of The Past

Memorial Day was observed in Chestertown Wednesday under the auspices of the American Legion of Kent Co. The day was an ideal one for the big event and a great crowd thronged the college campus and Chestertown.

At 9.30 a. m. the Legion headquarters was swarmed with ex-service men who had opened the old barracks bag and resurrected the uniform, wrinkled and moth-eaten, but still in a condition to represent that which they are proud of. Of course there are a few, who, due to easy living after the hard, healthy training that comes with army life, were unable to get into their uniform, but were there just the same. At 10.00 a. m. the Legion Post, with the Chestertown Band and Sanitary Corps of the Maryland National Guard, paraded to Chester cemetery and decorated the graves of those who died in army camps or were killed in the late war. After a short prayer by Rev. Gibson, Lieut. C. P. Gould, of U. S. Naval Reserve Forces, introduced Senator Legg, of Centreville, who gave a very interesting talk, in which he praised the American Legion in what they were doing for the wounded ex-service men. Rev. T. J. Sard, pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church, closed the ceremony with a short prayer, after which the Legion marched back to the headquarters and fell out for a business meeting.

At 1.30 p. m. the Legion led a parade, composed of the Business Men's Association and about thirty-five automobiles and trucks, representing the various automobile dealers in Kent and Queen Anne Counties, which paraded to Washington College Athletic Field, where a large track meet was held, followed by a baseball game between Kennedyville and the American Legion The American Legion won the game, which was one of the most interesting games to the local fans that has been played here for some time.

Miss Augusta M. Jones, daughter of Mrs. Ida M. Jones, and Edward R. East, of this town, were married on Saturday at St. James M. P. parsonage by Rev. W. E. Simms. They will reside here.

Miss Florence Hilda Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, of near town, and Kennard R. Stafford, son of Mail Messenger William B. Stafford, will be married in Philadelphia on June 2.
