TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY, MARYLAND.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Having recently received several letters from different sections of the county, and having been asked by a number of loyal party people, both men and women, to present my name again as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Senator, beg to say that, after a careful consideration concerning this matter, I have fully concluded to do so.

While thus announcing myself, I cordially ask for your assistance and trust that you may be able and willing to give me your earnest and active support. Should I succeed in receiving the nomination at your hands, and then be fortunate enough to win at the polls in November, it will be my pleasure and my pride to discharge the duties of said office with promptness, uprightness and courtesy to all.

My attachment to the party which won my early allegiance has grown stronger with the passing years, and I hope to be worthy of your confidence and endorsement once more. I regard the State Senatorship as an important public trust, but as not pressing any special claims for fitness upon my fellow-citizens in this connection.

Realizing my many shortcomings and imperfections, I humbly await the verdict of my party, and by this verdict I nom promise to abide.

Faithfully yours,
WILLIAM F. RUSSELL.

MINUTE TALKS

BY THE

BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION

What we are trying to do is to secure co-operation, to secure community effectiveness, to secure the adoption of sane industrial and commercial plans, to secure adherence to such plans with the avoidance of unnecessary agitation and with the minimum of envy and discord. The man who will not lend his brains, his energy and some of his money to the efforts of his fellow citizens in directing the constructive forces of his community along the course that is best for the town as a whole is not a useful citizen. No man has the right to refuse his support to a community movement any more than the community has a right to refuse its protection to any man. Hundreds of bees to each comb of honey make a comparatively quick and easy operation of what would be an impossible task for a lone bee, however industrious. The comb of honey contains the greatest of lessons in the greatest of success-makers The biggest business is bound for failure if its members do not co-operate. To co-operate is to join forces and something more. It is to join hearts as well as hands—and slip a little soul into the bargain. As Kipling well puts it:

It ain't the guns nor armament, nor funds that they can pay,
But the close co-operation that makes them win the day.
It ain't the individual, nor the army as a whole,
But the everlastin' team work of every bloomin' soul.

A LETTER FROM THE LEGION

The Business Men's Association of Chestertown is an organization working for the community advancement, in every way, of town and county, and is especially worthy of the active support of all members of the American Legion. In addition, the Association is closely co-operating with this Post in matters of community interest and it is to be hoped the two organizations will go along together, working for the general welfare.

ROBERT R. AYRES,
Post Commander, Frank M. Jarman Post; No. 36.

A SUGGESTION

The Association is especially desirous of having the opinion of the people of the community in all matters that concern them and we would welcome any suggestions or expressions of opinion one might care to give us. If there is any matter you would like to have discussed in this column, or if there is anything you may have in mind we ought to know or insert in the Minute Talks, please jot it down and send it to the General Secretary. Remember this: A united citizenship will make a better Chestertown.

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Miss Florence Hilda Smith, of near Union, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, to Mr. Kennard Stafford, of Chestertown, was solemnized Saturday, Rev. J. T. Rowlenson performing the ceremony, which occurred at the bride's home. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served, of which the entire party, numbering about eighty, partook. After a short honeymoon, the young couple will reside in Philadelphia, where the groom has a lucrative position.

On Saturday, June 2, at 8 p. m., at the Methodist parsonage in Chesterville, Mr. Norman E. Teat and Miss Carrie E. Groff, both of Queen Anne's, were married, the ceremony was performed by Rev. H. A. Wilson.

On Saturday, June 2, at 8.30 p. m., the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Stevens in Chesterville was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their niece, Miss Anna Stevens, of Chestertown, became the bride of Mr. Wm. E. Slagle, also of Chestertown, Rev. H. A. Wilson officiating. After receiving congratulations, the company repaired to the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served, and after partaking of which the happy couple, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sayer, also of Philadelphia, and Miss Emily Stevens, of Atlantic City, motored to the home of Mr. Slagle in Chestertown, followed by the best wishes of their friends as they embarked on the matrimonial sea.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Alice Medford Skirven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Granger Skirven, to Mr. Charles Alfred Bolgiano Friday, June 15, at 7.30 p. m. in St. Margaret's Protestant Episcopal Church on Reisterstown road, Baltimore. Miss Skirven is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Skirven, formerly of Kent County.
